Anatomy of a Lightning Logician
An Overview of the System

An expert system is like borrowing someone else's experience and expertise on a given subject. UNDERSTANDING COMPUTERS by TIME-LIFE BOOKS is exactly that, an expert system on the subject of computers.

It's not software based, so it can't crash. And since it's not machine-specific, it won't become outdated easily, which means you'll find it an invaluable, long-lived reference whether you have an IBM®PC, an Apple IIe®, a multimillion dollar Cray®, or no computer at all right now.

A BRAND NEW SERIES THAT PRESENTS COMPUTERS IN A WHOLE NEW WAY.

UNDERSTANDING COMPUTERS is a new series of books that presents computers in a unique, broad-based way, unlike any other computer book you've ever seen. It gets "under the hood," right down to the nuts and bolts of computers to explain what you need to know about them in plain English.

On a digital record, sound is carried by pits and spaces, which are read by a laser beam.

The first volume, Computer Basics, unwraps the mystery of writing binary code…the concept of logic gates…how chips are designed…how a light pen works for graphic effects…the sequence of events in a computer from the first clock pulse to the last. And much, much more.

Succeeding volumes cover Software. Input/Output. Graphics. Networking. The entire gamut of computer topics.

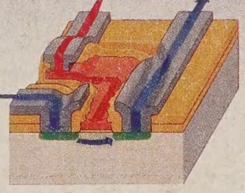
EVERY IMPORTANT CONCEPT IS ILLUSTRATED TO HELP ASSURE YOU UNDERSTAND.

Not only does UNDERSTANDING COMPUTERS give you all the computer background you want that you won't find elsewhere, it also shows you what it's all about. Full-color illustrations help make every concept crystal clear. And glossaries of terms help ensure your understanding. Each volume is a big 9¼" x 11⅛" hardcover book with approximately 128 pages.

FREE 10 DAY EXAMINATION. NO OBLIGATION.



How a transistor operates as a switch.

Begin to expand your computer know-how now by examining Computer Basics for 10 days free. Keep it and pay only $12.95 ($15.95 in Canada), plus shipping and handling. Then you can continue to receive other volumes every other month, always with a 10-day free trial. Keep only the books you want. And you can cancel any time. Or return Computer Basics and owe nothing.

Return the coupon today, and start to bridge the gap from computer buff to computer expert.

Letters To The Editor

We are receiving your magazine regularly, and appreciate it all the more as we become familiar with it. I do have a question, however. It has nothing to do with your (our) magazine, but general information. I hope I can make clear to you what we desperately need to know.

I think we clearly understand how to translate all listed data, except we're not sure what number corresponds with what satellite (for instance, Galaxy 1 is at 55 and Satcom 3R is at 62 on our set.) The young man who sold and installed our system listed a number (coordinate) for each satellite on a notebook, but there are only about one-half of the satellites, or less, of those listed in our magazine, and we don't know how to locate the other satellite positions.

I clipped your display from the top half of page 17, sent it to him, enclosed a self-addressed envelope, and asked him to indicate the numbers for each listed satellite. This was at least sixty days ago and we have had no response. I'm not inclined to be in the begging business, and thus turn to you.

This all is so new to us, and your magazine has been of great help. I thought the $48 subscription price was a shade high, but you certainly do have a class magazine, so maybe it's a case of getting what you pay for. We would not wish to be without it, at all.

Thank you most kindly for whatever help you may be able to give us.

Mrs. Owen E. Judd
Mount Vernon, Texas

EDITOR'S NOTE: Your problem is a commmon one. Any time new satellites are launched and we add them to the magazine, each satellite system owner has to make adjustments to his/her system. For example, several months ago Comstar 4 moved to the position vacated by Comstar 3, and Telstar 303 took its place—but its position was farther east than Comstar 4 had been. For this reason, each satellite system owner had to compensate for this move and add this satellite coordinate. The reason I can't publish the information when changes occur is because the satellite coordinates for each satellite system are unique. Your examples of Galaxy 1 being located at 55 and Satcom 3R at 62 are valid only for your system. The best advice I can give you is to consult one of your local dealers who can help you with your problem and show you how to make future adjustments. Because there are so many different dish positioner/receiver combinations on the market, it would be very difficult to provide instructions that would be useful. However, we can supply you with a list of dealers who offer our magazine in your area. By the time we go to press with this issue, someone will have contacted you with assistance. We appreciate your kind words.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter which I have sent to my Representative. A similar letter has been sent to my Senator. (The letter addresses the issue of scrambling and urges support regarding the matter.)

Thank you for the information provided in "From The Editor" in the December 12 issue of DISH.

▲ THE RIVER
(1984) The third and least successful member of 1984's "Dust Bowl Trilogy," which also included Country and Places in the Heart. Spacek is wonderful as a strong-willed Tennessee Valley farmer struggling to survive against both nature and capitalistic greed, and Glenn is just as good as the villain out to get her, but the picture itself is a bit too sappy and predictable. Beautifully photographed by Vilmos Zsigmond. Irritating musical score by John (Star Wars) Williams. Screenplay by Robert Dillon and Julian Barry. Directed by Mark Rydell (On Golden Pond.) With Sissy Spacek, Mel Gibson, Scott Glenn, Shane Bailey, Becky Jo Lynch, Barry Primus, Charlie Robinson, Billy Green Bush. (PG)

▲ STARMAN
(1984) E.T. meets Stranger in a Strange Land as Bridges portrays an alien anthropologist who finds himself pursued by scientists and government officials when he lands on Earth. Along the way, he falls for the husky-voiced Allen, and it's their romance that gives this sci-fi fable whatever fire it possesses. With Jeff Bridges, Karen Allen.

BOTTOM TEN ▼ MOVIES

▼ THE DEVILS
(1971) Flamboyant, but empty-headed succession of sights and sounds about a sexually-repressed nun's attempt to brand a priest as a devil. Set in seventeenth-century France, this sacrilegious nightmare contains scenes that are sure to offend even the most jaded of movie watchers. A genuine cinematic gross-out that's inspired an intellectually-suspect cult following. Based on Aldous Huxley's "The Devils of Loudon" and John Whiting's play The Devils. Written and directed by Ken Russell. With Oliver Reed, Vanessa Redgrave. (R)

▼ KING DAVID
(1985) Pretty boy Richard Gere vamps it up as King David in this forgettable, angst-ridden Bible epic. Will have most of you rooting for Goliath. Directed by Bruce Beresford. With Edward Woodward, Alice Krige, Denis Quilley, Niall Buggy. (PG-13)

▲ THE COTTON CLUB
(1984) Francis Ford Coppola's glittery musical drama of gangsters and prohibition, jazz and racial prejudice set against the backdrop of Harlem in the 1920s. Although loosely-plotted, with less-than-inspired acting from Richard Gere, the film's technical brilliance, an outstanding performance from Bob Hoskins and the high-flying tap dancing of Gregory Hines (not to mention the melodies of Duke Ellington) make for great entertainment. (R)

▲ CHOOSE ME
(1984) At long last, after what seems to be an endless parade of slob comedies geared to the teenage crowd, an intelligent, sly, offbeat comedy for adults. The story, which interweaves plot and characters, focuses primarily on the lives of three people: A repressed Dr. Ruth-like radio sex counselor (Genevieve Bujold), an ex-hooker-turned-bar owner (Lesley Ann Warren) and a looney-bin graduate (Keith Carradine) given to telling far-fetched stories. For my money, the best movie of 1984. (R)

▲ SWANN IN LOVE
(1984) Erotic, languorous adaptation of Marcel Proust's classic novel "Swann's Way," with Jeremy Irons as the young aristocrat who finds his social standing destroyed when he becomes romantically obsessed with a gold-digging courtesan. (R)

▲ THE SHINING
(1980)A chilling adaptation of the Stephen King novel. Writer Jack Nicholson, wife Shelley Duvall and their telepathic young son become caretakers for a palatial mountain resort, where evil oozes from every room and where daddy slowly goes berserk. Nicholson gives one of his great crazed performances, getting off lines that will have you howling and cringing at the same time. And more than a few of Stanley Kubrick's meticulously and eerily-staged scenes will haunt you long afterwards. (R)

▲ I KNOW WHERE I'M GOING
(1945) Wendy Hiller is dazzling as a young lady who intends to marry for money, but winds up changing her mind when she is stranded in the Hebrides with a handsome naval officer. Charming folk tale-like amalgamation of romance, comedy and thrills.

▲ TESTAMENT
(1983) Heartrending, low-key drama about the effects of a nuclear holocaust on a close-knit, small-town American family. Jane Alexander is unforgettable as the mother who courageously tries to maintain some sanity in the face of the greatest horror human beings will ever know. (PG)

▲ MCCABE AND MRS. MILLER
(1971) Robert Altman's decidedly-offbeat western set in the Northwest at the turn of the century. Warren Beatty plays a small-time-gambler-turned-capitalist who, with Julie Christie's help, establishes a bordello-gaming house in a frontier mining town and then must deal with the competition. The brilliant cinematography by Vilmos Zsigmond, the music by Leonard Cohen and the rather somber, low-key performances make the mood of this film as expressive as the plot.

▲ DAS BOOT
(1981) Hope and fear wax and wane at depth charge level in this soberingly-realistic, humanizing World War II drama. Tense, riveting action in suffocatingly-close quarters as a German submarine works the North Atlantic. The most expensive German movie ever made, it is meticulously crafted from cinematography to soundtrack. (R)

The Cotton Club

BY DANIEL SCHWEIGER

The Cotton Club is a movie of immense crowd-pleasing proportions, a sort of celluloid library of every technical trick invented in the pictures during the last ninety years.

THE MOVIE CHANNEL

Richard Gere (An Officer and a Gentleman) portrays coronet player Dixie Dwyer in The Cotton Club.

When film historians look back upon the work of Francis Ford Coppola, they'll find movies that are artistic (The Godfather), heavy (Apocalypse Now) and just plain pretentious (Rumble Fish.) It's a library that contains an inordinate amount of pictures that will retain some place of note in the cinema, with the exception of one that's likely to be overlooked—The Cotton Club. The reason? It's not a film that's sure to turn heads with any important messages. However, The Cotton Club is one of the most thoroughly-entertaining and dazzlingly-stylistic films ever made.

Making its satellite TV debut this month, The Cotton Club is a movie of immense crowd-pleasing proportions, a sort of celluloid library of every technical trick invented in the pictures during the last ninety years. With The Cotton Club, Coppola abandons every pretense that he's had to Neitzcheism or nihilism in favor of flash. His other movies are unbounded in their excellence, but it was about time the director gave himself and us a breather, and The Cotton Club provides for an infinitely-refreshing dose of sweet air.

The Cotton Club is a Grand Hotel-like combination of stories and stars that follows the action at the famed night spot from the Roaring Twenties to the Great Depression. For those unfamiliar with what formerly was Harlem's hottest cabaret, the Cotton Club was a sensually-decorated supper club which featured only black performers. The list of club entertainers includes such jazz legends as Duke Ellington and Cab Calloway. The people who went to watch them were the white, the wealthy and those wanting to be seen. Many were men who had gained their profits through illicit means and had come to the Cotton Club to lord over their territory—fearsome gangsters like Lucky Lucciano and Dutch Schultz. Presiding over the song and dance, the life and death deals was Ownie Madden, the owner of the Cotton Club, who doodled horses when he wasn't arranging murders or covering them up, and his imposing assistant and confidant, Frenchie.

The Cotton Club uses the novelty of combining these historical figures with fictional characters (a method that also was employed in Ragtime) to tell its stories. There's Dixie Dwyer (Richard Gere), a coronet player who gains an unwanted "Dutch Uncle" when he saves Schultz's life, and who has the misfortune of falling in love with the mobster's gun moll Vera Cicero (Diane Lane); "Sandman" Williams (Gregory Hines), who tries to keep his tap-dancing team together while pursuing the reluctant mullato singer Lilah-Rose (Lonette McKee); and Dixie's brother Vince (Nicholas Cage), who gains the reputation as a "Mad Dog" after accidentally gunning down some children. During the course of the film, these characters and story lines connect with chaotic results.

This film is part-musical, part-gangster movie; it's one picture that benefits from a case of split personality—the movie is like The Godfather with golden tap shoes. Coppola skillfully combines these two genres, blending them with a remarkable amount of fluidity. As jarring as it can be to witness a bloody killing and then jump to a dance number in the next scene, it all intertwines nicely. The director links the scenes to make a point about how the music is attached to the murder—and it's one well taken. Ultimately the music and the violence merge to create a breathtakingly-surrealistic conclusion in which the beats of the tap shoes and the blasts from the machine guns become virtually interchangeable. It's a violent and exhilarating number that would do Busby Berkely proud.

With so much action within the all-too brief confines of the film, each character still retains a remarkable amount of personality—particularly in the supporting cast. James Remar, who excels at playing psychopath roles, creates a truly-menacing gangster with Dutch Schultz. In The Cotton Club's most tense sequence, he turns a gourmet dinner into a bloodbath after another mob boss makes a crass remark about Schultz's Jewish heritage. Nicolas Cage notably matches him as the viscous "Mad Dog" Dwyer, a young hood who takes particular glee in remolding the numbers rackets with bullets and fists. Bob Hoskins and Fred Gwynne (Herman of Munsters fame) share a humorous and strangely-touching relationship as Ownie and Frenchie.

Gregory Hines shines as the love-struck and slightly-selfish "Sandman." In addition to giving a richly-emotional performance, Hines dances the feet off of everyone else in the picture. He and his real-life brother Maurice contribute one of The Cotton Club's most affecting moments as their characters share a spectacular tap-dancing reunion. Leading actor Richard Gere isn't given much to work with as Dixie. He's surprisingly restrained, and seems to have left the macho gruffness of An Officer and a Gentleman behind. However, Gere does play a mean coronet in the part.

Using some of the flashiest montage sequences yet seen in the cinema, Coppola breathlessly moves these people and his audience through the Jazz Age with a kaleidoscopic effect. Dancers perform elegant steps, hoods blow away each other and bootleg booze flows within the space of one frame to create a breathtaking exercise in style. A film of this sort must get viewers involved with the characters, place them in the midst of the action in every scene, and The Cotton Club accomplishes this magnificently. Rarely has this period come so vibrantly alive as with the production design of Richard Sylbert, who re-creates the rich surroundings of the Cotton Club and the jazz dives surrounding it.

Considering its troubled production history, it's amazing that The Cotton Club turned out so well. Coppola's insistence on accuracy and the expensive Hollywood treatment of the all-star cast caused budget over-runs that pushed the film's cost beyond the staggering $45 million mark. Then came a furious legal battle between Producer Robert Evans (The Godfather) and Coppola to determine the film's ownership. And, when all was said and done, The Cotton Club bombed at the box office—something not unknown to many great pictures.

The Cotton Club is the best and most extravagant cinematic valentine that any of its viewers will receive. Coppola lavishes the movie with an endearing dose of romanticism; rarely has overindulgence been so inviting. During the movie's grand finale, Lonette McKee exclaims "Here's to your fantasies!" Such is Coppola's tribute to the public's fond remembrances of an age of innocence, joy and savagery that never can be again.

Starman

BY DANIEL SCHWEIGER

The true test for any genre emulator is to see how much energy the movie can pump into its previously-used material. As cliched as Starman does get, it's a wonderful copy.

HOME BOX OFFICE

Jeff Bridges and Karen Allen co-star in* Starman, an extraterrestrial feature produced by Michael Douglas and directed by John Carpenter (Halloween.)

There's really nothing new about Starman, a pastiche of nearly every extraterrestrial-meets-earth woman movie made since 1950. At other times the film is so overly reminiscent of Steven Spielberg's E.T., with its miraculous healing powers and evil government agents, that one might think this picture was a remake of the aforementioned with adults in the title roles. But as cliched as Starman does get, it's a wonderful copy. The true test for any genre emulator is to see how much energy the movie can pump into its previously-used material. In Starman's these dead plot lines magically come back to life as if they were resurrected by E.T. himself.

Starman, which makes its debut on satellite TV this month, always will remain notorious for being the film that Columbia Pictures turned away E.T. to make. While this movie isn't nearly as successful, the studio should be applauded for creating a science-fiction film that's a stark contrast from such other fantasies dealing with awe-struck children encountering intergalactic emissaries. Despite the sometimes-idiotic stereotypes who pop up in the story, Starman is more mature and sensitive than other movies of its type.

What makes Starman particularly odd is Producer Michael Douglas' (Yes, that Michael Douglas) choice for John Carpenter as the film's director. A master of such visceral horror pictures as Halloween and Christine, Carpenter at first seems to be an odd man for the job, with his background of butcher knives and killer cars. However, Starman shows that Carpenter's really an old softy at heart with the astounding amount of love that he injects into the material; it's a feat akin to having Brian De Palma direct a Walt Disney film. But this isn't very apparent in Starman's spooky and sharply-edited opening, where the film's rat-a-tat rhythm might remind Carpenter fans of Escape From New York's exposition.

In a beginning shot that suggests Star Wars' first star field, the Voyager probe is intercepted by a strange planet, which plays back an anodized disc with messages of Earth's greetings attached to the Earthcraft; an alien spacecraft immediately is sent back in response to the warm salutations. Later, the air force is alerted to a mysterious object coming in for a landing over the United States. In the best tradition of the military, the fighter planes shoot down the spaceship over the wilds of Wyoming. The massive explosion goes unnoticed by Jenny Hayden (Karen Allen), who has fallen into a troubled sleep after viewing home movies which showed her recently-deceased husband, Scott, in the prime of his married life. Minutes later, the films are being reviewed by a bizarre blue light, which then enters a photo album containing a piece of Scott's hair. Jenny soon wakes up to a strange gurgling sound, and then is understandably shocked when she sees a glowing baby on her living room floor, a child which then turns into an exact duplicate of her husband (Jeff Bridges.)

This whole sequence works as a kind of fantastic horror film as Jenny reacts with terror to the naked man shouting kleptic greetings at her, all the while menacing the woman with a gun. What's more is that Carpenter directs the scene like one, replete with some incredible makeup effects (which are thankfully more fascinating than gruesome) and knowingly-sharp camera turns. The audience might think they're in store for more of the same at this point as the alien forces Jenny to drive him to Arizona for a rendevous with his race, but Carpenter has more clever things in mind for them.

Having set up the immense task of transforming his "monsterous" protagonist into a romantic lead, the director leaves the job to the capable hands of actor Bridges. The key to the film's believability is for the viewers to think that they're watching someone from another planet, and Bridges accomplishes this immediately with a series of jerky movements, bad impersonations of pop stars and an incredible nativity that turn him into more of a repetitive robot than a man. But as the voyage progresses, the Starman gradually develops an enchanting sweetness that makes him into a sort of otherworldly Cary Grant.

The best moments of Starman involve Jenny explaining such Terran terms as "love" and "food" to her companion, lines which Allen delivers with remarkable conviction and understanding. Sequences such as her showing the Starman how to eat apple pie might be hokily handled in another picture, but here they've got a simple and moving power due to the magnetic chemistry between Bridges and Allen. Their love scenes also are unexpectedly moving—especially the Capraesque mood of their romantic interlude on a freight train, where the Starman tells the infertile Jenny that he has "given" her a child.

Starman probably would work if it only was composed of this love story before its inevitable "mothership" conclusion (which sharp-eyed movie buffs will realize as being a direct rip-off of Wavelength), but Carpenter felt compelled to throw in a stock subplot involving the "evil" army's pursuit of the innocent alien. The villain is personified in a ludicrous manner by George Fox (Richard Jaeckel), who is hell-bent on doing a live dissection of the visitor. Opposing these unexplained and totally-irrational plans is a gold-hearted scientist named Mark Shermin (Charles Martin Smith), who serves as the somewhat-irritating narrator to the Starman's origins. With Fox shrieking in Snidely Whiplash rage and Shermin delivering pacifist platitudes while chomping on his cigar, these men's insistant point/counter-points come off with all of the depth and range of a Tom and Jerry cartoon.

This continuous pursuit by the army neccesitates a number of chases, most of which are exciting but completely superfluous. A lot of them are initiated by the Starman's ill-advised morality lessons to the wrong Earthmen, including a group of tobacco-spitting rednecks who get upset after the alien makes their freshly-killed deer get up and walk away. This leads to two policemen unbelievably causing a wild road chase, which leads to Jenny's "death" and the use of one of the Starman's several power globes.

But for as many "bad" Earthlings that Starman provides us with, the movie always is sure to balance them with an equal amount of good ones. People ridiculously jump in and risk their lives for the heroes, particularly when some students throw a Coke machine into the trail of the pursuing policemen, and a hot rodder engages what seems to be the entire U.S. Army to throw them off the Starman's trail. Their beneficial actions are elating and spectacular, if not utterly confounding. The results of sequences like these make the extraterrestrial seem like a bit of a Christ figure, something which doesn't set too well with the film's attempts to "humanize" its science-fiction elements. But consider this a film in which even the most-obvious problems like these are forgivable. So well-drawn are the characters of Jenny and the Starman that they give the movie a lot of tender moments before the visitor departs once more for the stars.

For all of Starman's spectacular ILM-generated effects and car chases, it's really an old-fashioned, lump-in-the-throat throwback to the thirties' "road" film, in which the lovers at first hated the sight of each other but ultimately ended up on seperate sides of the bed. Even though Jenny and Starman are from opposite ends of the milky way, they still make an involving pair to be reckoned with. ●

FRANK BAYLIN BRENT GALE

1986 HOME SATELLITE TV INSTALLATION AND TROUBLESHOOTING MANUAL

"The Home Satellite TV Installation and Troubleshooting Manual - 1986 Edition," written and published by Brent Gale and Frank Baylin, now is available. This 330-page book, which contains more than 300 illustrations, photographs and tables, is written in language easily understandable for both satellite TV dealers and do-it-yourselfers.

The text includes the necessary background theory and details on how satellites operate; methods by which to select and judge satellite TV components; a step-by-step installation guide including all of the pertinent charts and tables, diagrams and text explaining multiple-receiver and multiple-television hookups; methods to install large antennas; a complete strategy and details on troubleshooting any satellite TV system; and a thoughtful discussion of professionalism. The appendix includes footprint maps, a collection of useful equations, a glossary, a satellite-finding computer program and a complete list of pertinent reference books and magazines.

The book is ring-bound, with sturdy 8 x 11 pages that conveniently remain open when the book is being used. To order, send a check or money order for $31.95 ($29.95, plus $2 shipping and handling) to Baylin/Gale Productions, 1905 Mariposa, Suite G, Boulder, Colorado 80302.

BURR ENGINEERING INTRODUCES REMOTE CONTROL

Burr Engineering, a pioneer in satellite control systems, is introducing a remote control option for its recently-released SAT-TROL Model 10. One unique feature is that the receiving component can be retrofit quickly and easily into the microprocessor-based main control, if they are not ordered at the same time. The hand-held module uses an infrared transmitting signal, but has no "tell-tale" infrared window because of a new non-interfering plastic in the transmitter's housing. The receiver is so sensitive that it has a full 180-degree range, enabling it to accept commands from anywhere in the room. In addition to offering remote lockout capability, SAT-TROL 10 protects lockout integrity even when an electrical interruption occurs. The battery backup also retains other control data when power is down. SAT-TROL 10 provides total isolation between the sensor and control when they are not in operation, dynamic braking with better than .030 accuracy, overload protection, easy access to upper and lower limits and a stylish, slim-line design. At the dish, the SAT-TROL 10 system includes an actuator with a solid-state sensor, 36-volt motor with a thrust capacity of 1000 pounds, die-cast aluminum power head, zinc-plated 12-gauge inner and outer tubes and a standard 18" stroke. (Strokes up to 52" also are available.)

For more information, contact Mike Walters, Burr Engineering Company, 730 East Michigan Avenue, P.O. Box 460, Battle Creek, Michigan 49016-0460, (616) 965-2371.

VIDEO LINK ANNOUNCES ITS NEW WIRELESS REMOTE CONTROL SWITCHER

VIDEO LINK has announced the first deliveries of the new XL400 Wireless Remote Control RF Switcher. The XL400 is a fully-electronic switcher, with four inputs switchable to three inputs. Switching of inputs to the number 2 output can be performed remotely, using the push-button included or by wireless remote using an optional XTRA-LINK. XTRA-LINK is the patented Wireless Remote Control Extension System that allows videophiles to operate and control any IR remote-controlled component from a remote location (i.e., bedroom, den, kitchen, etc.)

The XL400 is available from VIDEO LINK, a division of Xantech Corporation, 12950 Bradley Avenue, Sylmar, California 91342, or call (800) VID-LINK.

HERO 10-FOOT "SUPER TENNA" HAS COMPUTER-DESIGNED SHAPE, HOLDS INTEGRITY IN 125 MPH WINDS

A computer generated the precise parabolic contours of this 10-ft. "Super Tenna" by Hero Communications, Inc. While the shipping weight of the antenna and mount is only 270 pounds, the antenna holds its shape in winds up to 125 mph. The reason is the strong truss design similar to that in bridges: Two hardnesses of high-test aluminum and aircraft riveting. Also, the thicker-expanded mesh, rather than the less-costly perforated mesh, gives the antenna a smoother, more accurate reflective surface.

Hero specializes in commercial-grade antennas. The 10-footer is an attempt to build commercial engineering standards into an antenna affordable for homeowners. For further information, contact Hero Communications, Inc., 2470 West 8th Avenue, Hialeah, Florida 33010, (305) 887-3203.

QUESTIONS / ANSWERS

BY TIM HOTCHKIN

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Satellite Questions/Answers, a regular Satellite DISH Magazine feature, is authored by Tim Hotchkin of Ft. Worth, Texas. The column, with a focus on technical issues of interest to consumers, addresses questions asked by readers of DISH.

Q: I have been concerned about lightning causing damage to my satellite system. How can I adequately ground my dish?

A. There is no protection against a direct lightning hit, which is very rare. Generally, lightning strikes indirectly and causes power surges and voltage transients. However, to fully protect your system I suggest first that you plug all of your electronic equipment into a high-voltage surge protector, which is available at most electronic and computer stores. This device will provide your equipment with protection from power surges which travel through the electrical wiring in your house.

To protect equipment from transient voltages or power surges through the satellite cable, ground your system using one of two methods: The ground rod method or the ground wire only method.

To use the ground rod method you will need to do the following: First, obtain a ground rod from a local hardware store or electrical shop. You should use a rod approximately eight feet long. Generally, soils have low enough resistance to be able to bypass voltage transients caused by lightning. If your soil is rocky or mixed with clay, you should treat the area where the ground rod is placed with copper or magnesium sulphate. Ordinary rock salt may suffice. Next, place the ground rod a couple of feet from the pole or foundation, and drive the rod until the top is two to three feet above the ground. Then, clamp a $^{1}/_{4}$-inch to $^{3}/_{8}$-inch diameter copper wire to the top of the rod and run the wire to the mount. Make sure that the wire is run as smoothly as possible because any kinks or sharp bends will impede current flow. Also, make sure all metal portions of the dish are making contact with the ground strap. Then finish driving the rod into the ground until the top of the rod is approximately six inches below the ground's surface. This will prevent someone from tripping over it.

To use the ground wire only method you will need to do the following: Run a heavy-gauge copper wire (Number 6 to Number 8) from the metal portion of the dish to wherever your house electricity is grounded. This usually is an outdoor waterpipe.

As a general rule, whichever method you use, be sure the ground wire is secured to bare metal for good contact.

Q. I have a Drake ESR 324 Receiver, 10-ft. Prodelin dish, Chaparral Polarotor 1 and a Drake 100-degree LNA. About thirty minutes after I turn on my receiver, black horizontal lines appear across the screen for a few seconds and then the screen goes blank. After a while, I turn it on and it works again for another half hour. What causes this?

A. You are losing power to your LNA. I suspect the voltage regulator in your receiver which supplies the power is going into what is called "thermal shutdown." When you turn off the receiver, the regulator cools down and starts working until it heats up again. I suggest you send it to a local dealer or return it to Drake for repair.

Q. The only time I experience problems with my system is when it is raining. The picture gets snowy and changes channels. What should I do?

A. Your problem is very common. The first thing you should check is where the IF cable connects to the downconverter. Check inside the connector for moisture and corrosion. If either of these conditions is found, cut the cable six inches from the old connector and install a new F connector. Be sure the connector has a good crimp, then check the rest of your cables and connectors and seal them with a silicone-type solution. If your dish does not have an LNA cover, I recommend you have one installed. You may prefer contacting your local dealer and having him take care of the problem.

Q. What is the best method for connecting my receiver to a VCR?

A. The best method, as far as I'm concerned, is to purchase a video switcher. This device, depending on the brand, will have three to five inputs and two outputs. This will enable you to not only connect your receiver and VCR, but any other electronic device and have remote-control capabilities. One output of this unit can be run from your main TV set, and the second output can be connected to another TV in another part of your home. You can then, with a push of a button, hook up your VCR, satellite receiver or any other electronic device to a set in another room.

NOTES:

Because winter now is upon us, I would like to offer a list of tips for you which should decrease the chances of equipment failure during bad weather.

1. Check all outside connectors and seal with a silicone-type sealant.

2. Lubricate all moving parts of the mount with a graphite-based lubricant. Do not use axle or wheel-bearing grease! These will harden in freezing weather.

3. If you have a motorized actuator, install a rubber boot to prevent moisture from entering the motor housing. If you cannot obtain a boot, drill a small drain hole on the underside of the housing. For extra protection, do both.

4. Install a protective cover over the LNA/feed assembly.

HOW TO USE THE GUIDE:

① The guide covers programming for fourteen days.

② Six pages of the guide are dedicated to each day.

⑤ The length of the program is indicated by the size of the box in which it appears.

⑥ The satellite reference bar, which appears above each grid, provides symbols which represent the satellites on which the channels can be found.

⑧ The polarity bar, which appears below the channel reference bar, provides the polarity for each channel.

⑨ The month's top ten movie selections are highlighted as Movie Pick within each grid page when the movie airs.

⑩ Reviews with ratings for all movies airing during the fourteen-day period can be found listed alphabetically across the bottoms of the pages.

Programs, movies, sports and specials have been selected for the seven days during the prime time period for all time zones.

THURSDAY

8:00E 7:00C 6:00M 5:00P
MOVIE: A SOLDIER'S STORY
(1984) Perceptive and well-acted adaptation of Charles Fuller's Pulitzer Prize-winning play. In the waning days of World War II, the tough-nosed sergeant of an all-black army unit is found murdered, and the polished, black military lawyer sent to investigate discovers the finger of guilt pointing in unexpected directions. Howard E. Rollins, Jr., and Adolph Caesar (who was nominated for Best Supporting Actor) both give outstanding performances, but the real standout is Denzel Washington as the Malcolm X-like Private Peterson. (PG) HBO EAST (G1,23) length: 2 hours.

10:00E 9:00C 8:00M 7:00P
MOVIE: 2010: THE YEAR WE MAKE CONTACT
(1984) A touching, occasionally-powerful sequel to Stanley Kubrick's 2001: A Space Odyssey. A Russo-American mission reactivates H.A.L., the treacherous computer from the previous movie, in order to find out what went wrong with the earlier voyage. What they discover is a peacenik's dream. Well-acted, particularly by Scheider and the underrated Mirren. Directed by Peter Hyams. With Roy Scheider, Helen Mirren. (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL EAST (G1,10) length: 2 hours.

1:00E 12:00C 11:00M 10:00P
MOVIE: THE SHINING
(1980) "Heeeeere's Johnny!" All work and no play makes Jack a maniacally-mischievous boy in this chilling adaptation of the Stephen King novel. Writer Nicholson, wife Duvall and their telepathic young son become caretakers during the off-season for a palatial mountain resort where evil oozes from every room and where daddy goes slowly berserk. Nicholson gives one of his great crazed performances, getting off lines that will have you howling and cringing at the same time; and more than a few of Kubrick's meticulously and eerily-staged scenes will haunt you long afterwards. Much better than the critical reception it received when first released. Directed by Stanley Kubrick. With Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall. (R) SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 2 hours 30 minutes.

10:00E 9:00C 8:00M 7:00P
LIONEL HAMPTON LIVE IN EUROPE
Fourteen all-time great jazz hits performed by world-renowned vibraphonist Lionel Hampton and a band of all-star musicians. Taped live in Antwerp, Belgium, this outstanding concert is a treat for big-band fans and jazz buffs alike. BRAVO (F4,2) length: 1 hour 30 minutes.

MOVIE: THE COTTON CLUB
(1984) Francis Ford Coppola's glittery and grandly-mounted musical drama of gangsters and prohibition, jazz and racial prejudice set against the backdrop of Harlem in the 1920s. Although loosely-plotted, with less-than-inspired acting from Gere, the film's technical brilliance, an outstanding performance from Bob Hoskins as nightclub impressario Ownie Madden and the high-flying tap dancing of Gregory Hines (not to mention the immortal melodies of Duke Ellington) make for great entertainment. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola, who was assisted on the scriptwriting by Pulitzer Prize-winning author William Kennedy ("Ironweed".) With Richard Gere, Gregory Hines, Diane Lane, Bob Hoskins, Lonette McKee, Nicolas Cage, James Remar, Fred Gwynne, Gwen Verdon. (R) HBO EAST (G1,23) length: 2 hours 30 minutes.

SATURDAY

THE REDD FOXX SHOW
Comedian Redd Foxx, best known for his long-running portrayal of the cantankerous Fred on Sanford and Son, returns to network television in this half-hour situation comedy. Premiering tonight, the show and the popular Benson (moving from ABC's Friday night line-up) will replace the short-lived Hollywood Beat. ABC (T1,10) length: 30 minutes.

MOVIE: STARMAN
(1984) E.T. meets Stranger in a Strange Land as Bridges portrays an alien anthropologist who finds himself pursued by scientists and government officials when he lands on Earth. Along the way, he falls for the husky-voiced Allen, and it's their romance that gives this sci-fi fable whatever fire it possesses. With Jeff Bridges, Karen Allen. SELEC TV (T3,2) length: 2 hours.

BARBRA STREISAND— THE BROADWAY ALBUM
In a rare television appearance, one of the leading female personalities in music and film unveils her long-awaited album of favorite Broadway melodies. This HBO exclusive includes Streisand's new video performance of the classic "Somewhere" from West Side Story, behind-the-scenes glimpses of her closed-door recording sessions and an interview with the Oscar, Emmy and Grammy-winning performer. HBO EAST (G1,23) length: 1 hour 15 minutes.

THE GARRY SHANDLING SHOW'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL
Garry Shandling's newest SHOWTIME venture is a parody of TV talk shows. It blends great moments with special appearances by many of Shandling's favorite guests including Senor Wences, Mr. Ed and Donny Osmond. SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 1 hour.

MOVIE: THE INCREDIBLE SHRINKING WOMAN
(1981) Hazardous household products and food additives are responsible for shrinking Lily down to pint-size in this mildly-funny and satiric comedy. She gets good support from Grodin as her consternated ad-man husband and the monkeyshines of Rick Baker as she first attracts the attention of the media and falls into the hands of mad scientists. With Lily Tomlin, Charles Grodin, Henry Gibson, Rick Baker (PG) HTN (F3,16) length: 1 hour 30 minutes.

MOVIE: TESTAMENT
(1983) Heartrending, low-key drama about the effects of a nuclear holocaust on a close-knit, small-town American family. Alexander is unforgettable as the mother who courageously tries to maintain some sanity in the face of the greatest horror human beings will ever know. Originally filmed for PBS. Adapted by John Sacret Young from a story by Carol Amen. Directed by Lynne Littman. With Jane Alexander, William Devane. (PG) SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 1 hour 30 minutes.

MOVIE: CHOOSE ME
(1984) At long last, after what seems to be an endless parade of slob comedies geared to the Clearasil crowd, an intelligent, sly, offbeat comedy for adults. The story, which interweaves plot and characters as deftly as Walter Payton runs through would-be tacklers, focuses primarily on the lives of three people: A repressed Dr. Ruth-like radio sex counselor (Bujold), an ex-hooker-turned-bar owner (Warren) and a looney-bin graduate (Carradine) given to telling far-fetched stories about himself which may or may not be true. What these three go through on the road to happiness will raise a wry smile of embarrassed recognition on the face of anyone who ever has risked romance with a stranger. For my money, the best movie of 1984. With Genevieve Bujold, Keith Carradine, Lesley Ann Warren. (R) SELEC TV (T3,2) length: 2 hours.

MOVIE: STARMAN
(1984) E.T. meets Stranger in a Strange Land as Bridges portrays an alien anthropologist who finds himself pursued by scientists and government officials when he lands on Earth. Along the way, he falls for the husky-voiced Allen, and it's their romance that gives this sci-fi fable whatever fire it possesses. With Jeff Bridges, Karen Allen. SELEC TV (T3,2) length: 2 hours.

MOVIE: THE SHINING
(1980) "Heeeeere's Johnny!" All work and no play makes Jack a maniacally-mischievous boy in this chilling adaptation of the Stephen King novel. Writer Nicholson, wife Duvall and their telepathic young son become caretakers during the off-season for a palatial mountain resort where evil oozes from every room and where daddy goes slowly berserk. Nicholson gives one of his great crazed performances, getting off lines that will have you howling and cringing at the same time; and more than a few of Kubrick's meticulously and eerily-staged scenes will haunt you long afterwards. Much better than the critical reception it received when first released. Directed by Stanley Kubrick. With Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall, Danny Lloyd, Scatman Crothers, Barry Nelson, Philip Stone. Some versions may be edited for television. (R) CINEMAX EAST (G1,19) length: 2 hours 30 minutes.

ROCKER '85
This special, broadcast in stereo, will count down the year's twenty best videos. mont. With Boris Karloff, Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Craig Stevens, Reginald Denny, Helen Westcott, John Dierkes. (BW-90 min) (Comedy) (NR) WGN: Jan. 18.

ABILENE TOWN ● ● ● (1946) Spirited western with Sheriff Scott mediating differences between ruthless and peace-loving cattleman. Fast-paced and well-produced. Directed by Edwin L. Marin. With Randolph Scott, Ann Dvorak, Rhonda Fleming. (BW-84 min) (Western) (NR) SPN: Jan. 13.

ACCUSED OF MURDER ● ● (1956) Tepid account of a cop who falls for a chanteuse, then gets in over his head with some gangsters. Directed by Joseph Kane. With David Brian, Vera Ralston, Sidney Blackmer, Virginia Grey. (C-74 min) (Drama) CBN: Jan. 15.

ACE HIGH ● ● (1969) Mediocre spaghetti western as Hill plays a gunslinger with the moniker of Cat Stevens. Directed by Giuseppe Collizi. With Terence Hill, Eli Wallach, Bud Spencer, Brock Peters, Kevin McCarthy, Steffen Zacharias. (C-123 min) (Western) USA: Jan. 12.

ADVENTURES IN BALTIMORE ● ● (1949) A twenty-one-year-old Temple plays a thoroughly-modern miss, who wants to fall in love, in this romantic programmer. Directed by Richard Wallace. With Shirley Temple, John Agar, Robert Young, Josephine Hutchinson. (BW-89 min) (Romance) USA: Jan. 22, 23.

AFRICA SCREAMS ● ● (1949) In embarrassment, as Abbott and Costello ham it up while on safari. With Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Hillary Brooke, Max Baer, Clyde Beatty, Frank Buck, Shemp Howard, Joe Besser. (BW-78 min) (Comedy) (NR) CBN: Jan. 15; SPN: Jan. 14.

AGAINST ALL ODDS ● ● (1984) The title will refer to the magnitude of your triumph if you wade through this glossy, well intentioned, but ultimately-unsatisfying remake of Jacques Tourneur's classic film noir, Out of the Past. In this version, Bridges plays an ex-pro athlete who's hired by former teammate Woods to find his runaway girlfriend Ward, whose performance will remind you that Brooke Shields isn't the only bad actress in Hollywood. Of course, Bridges and Ward fall in love, which, needless to say, upsets Woods just a trifle. Features an Oscar-nominated title tune by Phil Collins. Directed by Taylor Hackford (An Offi- cer and a Gentleman.) With Jeff Bridges, James Woods, Rachel Ward, Richard Widmark, Alex Karras, Swoosie Kurtz, Dorian Harewood, Bill McKinney, Saul Rubinek. (C-122 min) (Drama) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 10, 22, 30; CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 17.

AGENT FOR H.A.R.M. ● (1966) Can agent Adam Chance stop a foreign plot to spread alien spores that turn humans into fungi? Who cares? With Mark Richman, Wendell Corey, Martin Koslek, Barbara Bouchet, Donna Michelle. (Horror) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 16.

AIRPORT 1975 ● (1974) Can any movie boasting Helen Reddy as a singing nun be worth your time? Brainless and vapid sequel to Airport with less than a stellar cast. Sympathies to Myrna Loy. With Charleton Heston, Karen Black, George Kennedy, Helen Reddy, Efrem Zimbalist Jr. (C-106 min) (Suspense-drama) (PG) KTVT: Jan. 19.

ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND ● (1972) Botched British film version of Lewis Carroll's classic fantasy. The fine cast is completely wasted. With Fiona Fullerton, Flora Robson, Ralph Richardson, Peter Sellers, Dudley Moore. (G) HBO: Jan. 14.

THE ALIEN ORO ● ● (1978) Third episode of the five-part sci-fi thriller. After colliding with another spacecraft, the Earthship Ark and its crew is commandeered by aliens needing a lift home. With Keir Dullea, Robin Ward. (C-95 min) (Sci-fi) KTVT: Jan. 15.

ALL OF ME ● ● ● (1984) Two minds may be better than one, but when they're in the same body it makes for hilarious complications in this whimsically-funny romantic comedy. In the role that won him the New York Film Critics' Award for Best Actor, Steve Martin plays a forlorn lawyer who, through a mystical mess-up, winds up sharing all-to-close quarters with a selfish, rich and lonely Lily Tomlin—a situation that gives rise to some of the funniest physical comedy since the days of Buster Keaton. Directed by Carl Reiner. With Steve Martin, Lily Tomlin, Victoria Tennant, Richard Libertini, Selma Diamond, Madolyn Smith, Dana Elcar. (C-93 min) (Comedy) (PG-13) CINEMAX: Jan. 14, 20.

ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN ● ● ● ●(1976) Part-documentary, part-detective thriller, the totally-absorbing account of WASHINGTON POST

SPORTS / VARIETY CANADIAN THE NETWORKS THE NETWORKS

Franciscus, Barbara Eden, Jack Carter, Billy Barty. WOR: Jan. 18.

THE AMAZING MR. BLUNDEN ●●● (1972) Solid family fare as two children with ghostly assistance travel back in time to save a couple of deprived youngsters. With Lionel Jeffries, Diana Dors. (C-98 min) (Sci-fi) (G) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 16, 22, 26.

THE AMBASSADOR ●●● (1984) Mitchum registers as an American ambassador trying to mediate the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in this engaging political thriller. Directed by J. Lee Thompson. With Robert Mitchum, Ellen Burstyn, Rock Hudson, Fabio Testi, Donald Pleasence, Michael Bat-Adam. (C-96 min) (Drama) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 18, 29, Feb. 9, 13.

THE AMBUSHERS ●● (1967) Matt Helm tracks down a missing flying saucer in this trite spoof. With Dean Martin, Senta Berger, Janice Rule, James Gregory. WOR: Jan. 17.

AMERICAN DREAMER ●●● (1984) Romancing the Stone goes urban in this coy, but entertaining little comedy-drama. Williams is a bored American housewife who starts living the life of a fictional romantic heroine after being stricken with amnesia during a trip to Paris. With Jobeth Williams, Tom Conti, Giancarlo Gianini, Coral Browne. (C) (Comedy-drama) (NR) SELEC TV: Jan. 10, 20, 25.

THE AMERICANO ●● (1954) Stodgy western with an unusual location. Ford has three prize bulls to sell, but when he gets to Brazil, he finds the buyer has been murdered. Directed by William Castle. With Glenn Ford, Frank Lovejoy, Abbe Lane, Cesar Romero. (Western) WPIX: Jan. 14.

AMITYVILLE: THE DEMON ●● (1984) The real estate agency that handles this house should be exterminated. Roberts plays an investigative reporter who purchases the infamous dwelling and discovers that its basement is situated directly above Hell. (Big deal!) Anyone who has sat through either of the first two Amityville films could have told him that. Still, the 3-D effects, which will be lost on your TV screen, make this horror flick a cut above the average. Also known as Amityville 3 and Amityville 3-D. Directed by Richard Fleischer. With Tony Roberts, Tess Harper, Robert Joy, Candy Clark, John Beal, Leora Dana, Meg Ryan, Lori Loughlin, John Harkins. (C-105 min) (Horror) (PG) HTN: Jan. 13, 18, 22, 26, 31.

AMY ●●● (1981) Uplifting tale of a young wife who leaves her husband to teach the deaf how to use sign language. Directed by Vincent McEveety. With Jenny Agutter, Barry Newman, Nanette Fabray, Kathleen Nolan, Chris Robinson, Lou Fant, Margaret O'Brien, Lance LeGault, Lucille Benson. (C-100 min) (Drama) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 12, 15, 18, 21, 25, 29.

AND GOD CREATED WOMAN ●● (1956) "BB" busted onto the international scene with this role in then-husband Roger Vadim's first film. As a young girl taken in by a family with three excitable sons, the sex kitten just can't help turning up the heat. When first released you may have had to cross a state line to catch this at a drive-in, now you can sit at home and see if the famous scene on St. Tropez beach gets cut up. Directed by Roger Vadim. With Brigitte Bardot, Curt Jergens, Jean Louis Trintigant, Christian Marquand, George Poujouly, Jane Marken. (C-89 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 10.

AND NOW FOR SOMETHING COMPLETELY DIFFERENT ●●●● (1972) "Oh, I'm a lumberjack, and I'm okay." Hilarious, side-splitting excerpts from the Monty Python television series. The laughs are so fast and furious that if you don't want to miss any of the jokes, you had better take a deep breath at the beginning and hold it for about an hour and a half. That way you'll hear every word. (Unfortunately, you'll also be dead, but what a way to go.) Directed by Ian Macnaughton. Written by and starring John Cleese, Graham Chapman, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin, Terry Gilliam. Also with Carol Cleveland. (Comedy) (PG) BRAVO: Jan. 18.

ANGEL ●● (1984) Wilkes plays a "high school honor student by day and a Hollywood hooker by night." Sleazy exploitation film that bears watching if only because of the cast. With Cliff Gorman, Susan Tyrell, Dick Shawn, Rory Calhoun, Donna Wilkes. (C-93 min) (Drama) (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 15.

ANGEL AND THE BADMAN ●●● (1947) Wayne plays a gunslinger tamed by Quaker Russell in this engaging western. The picture is notorious for spawning a torrid off-screen affair between the two principals. Directed by Wayne's drinking buddy James Edward Grant. With John Wayne, Gale Russell, Harry Carey. PPV: Jan. 18.

THE ANGEL WORE RED ●● (1960) Sincere, moderately-entertaining story of a romance between a defrocked priest with Loyalist sympathies and a fun-loving cabaret chanteuse. Set during the Spanish Civil War. Directed by Nunnally Johnson. With Dirk Bogarde, Ava Gardner, Joseph Cotten, Vittorio De Sica. (BW-99 min) (Drama) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 22, 27, 31.

ANGEL'S ALLEY ●●(1948) A racketeer using reform school kids to steal cars gets his wires crossed when he recruits the Bowery Boys. With Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Bobby Benedict, David Gorcey. (Comedy) (NR) WGN: Jan. 12.

ANIMAL FARM ●●● (1955) "All animals are equal, but some animals are more equal than others." Compelling animated version of George Orwell's famous anti-totalitarian political fable. The ending has been softened, but the whole affair still packs quite a punch. Written and directed by John Halas and Joy Batchelor. ACTS: Jan. 22.

ANN VICKERS ●● (1933) Slow-paced adaptation of the Sinclair Lewis novel with Dunne an unwed mother trying to make it in the world. Directed by John Cromwell. With Irene Dunne, Walter Huston, Bruce Cabot, Edna May Oliver, Conrad Nagel. (BW-72 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 11.

ANOTHER COUNTRY ●●● (1984) Intriguing adaptation of the Julian Mitchell play based on the life of Guy Burgess, the upper-crust Englishman who became a spy for the Soviet Union. The drama explores his unhappy days at an exclusive boarding school in the 1930s, and the homosexual experiences that contributed to his eventual treason and defection. An absorbing and well-crafted film. Directed by Marek Kanievska. With Rupert Everett, Colin Firth, Michael Jenn, Anna Massey. (C-90 min) (Drama) (PG) BRAVO: Jan. 13, 25; CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 12.

APACHE ROSE ● (1947) She sends smoke signals trying to convince you to give up the fight. A western with Roy Rogers, Dale Evans. SPN: Jan. 20.

THE APE ● (1940) Lots of unintentional laughs in this ridiculous thriller, as Karloff plays a doctor who takes to wearing a gorilla skin to dispatch the victims he needs to find a cure for polio. Directed by William Nigh. With Boris Karloff, Gerturde W. Hoffmann, Henry Hall, Maris Wrixon. (BW-62 min) (Thriller) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10.

THE APE MAN ● ● (1943) Simian shenanigans as Lugosi plays a scientist who undergoes a species-change operation. With Bela Lugosi, Louise Currie, Wallace Ford. SPN: Jan. 9.

APOCALYPSE NOW ● ● ● ● (1979) "Everyone gets want he wants. I wanted a mission. And for my sins, they gave me one." Francis Ford Coppola's brilliantly-pulpy and surrealistic recasting of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness as a Vietnam war adventure. With orders to find and "terminate with extreme prejudice," army captain Sheen journeys up a river that snakes "through the war like a main circuit cable," and plugs into a Green Beret colonel gone bloodlusting mad. (Played with brooding, mumbling affectation by Brando.) A visually and aurally-stunning film flawed only by a pretentious and muddled ending. Written by John Milius and Francis Ford Coppola. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola. With Martin Sheen, Marlon Brando, Robert Duvall, Frederic Forrest, Dennis Hopper, Harrison Ford, Albert Hall, Larry Fishburne, Sam Bottoms, G.D. Spradlin. (C-153 min) (R) HBO: Jan. 10, 14, 18, 22; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 16, 22, 26, 31.

THE APPLE DUMPLING GANG ● ●(1975) Kids will love this silly western-comedy about a motley crew of lovable wackos. Knotts and Conway are a riot as a pair of less-than-effective crooks. Directed by Norman Tokar. With Bill Bixby, Susan Clark, Don Knotts, Tim Conway, David Wayne, Slim Pickens, Harry Morgan. (C-100 min) (Comedy) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 10, 13, 16, 22, 26.

ARIZONA KID ● Growing up in tumbleweed country, a boy has to learn how to defend himself. (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 16.

ARROWHEAD ● ● (1953) Calvary unit and Apache Indians sign a peace treaty, but the Indians are insincere. If things had worked out, there wouldn't have been much of a story. There still isn't. Very routine. With Charlton Heston, Jack Palance, Katy Jurado. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 18.

Shirley MacLaine, David Niven, Gig Young, Rod Taylor, Jim Backus. (C-101 min) (Comedy) (NR) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 15, 20, 24, 28.

AT WAR WITH THE ARMY ●● (1950) First Martin and Lewis comedy has some funny bits. With Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Polly Bergen. (BW-93 min) (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 11, 13, 18.

ATLANTIC FLIGHT ● (1937) Far-fetched melodrama as a pilot flies across the Atlantic to bring a life-saving serum to a dying friend. With Paula Stone, Weldon Heybum. SPN: Jan. 17.

AUNTIE MAME ●●● (1958) It's Russell's show as she plays the title role in this riotous adaptation of Patrick Dennis' novel about the adventures of his eccentric aunt. With Rosalind Russell, Forrest Tucker, Coral Browne, Fred Clark, Roger Smith, Peggy Cass, Joanna Barnes, Pippa Scott. (C-145 min) (NR) CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 16, 22.

B.J. LANGE PRESENTS ●● (1971) Lurid little thriller starring Rooney as a mentally-unbalanced movie director who goes over the edge when he kidnaps and tortures a famous actress. With Mickey Rooney, Keenan Wynn. (C-91 min) (Drama) (R-Violence, language, nudity) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 17, 22, 27.

THE BALLAD OF GREGORIO CORTEZ ●●● (1983) Lyrical, inventive account of a Mexican tenant farmer whose shooting of a Texas sheriff in 1901 led to an extensive manhunt. Director Robert Young unfolds his story a la Citizen Kane as various people describe their roles in the life and death of Gregorio Cortez. A devastating attack on American cultural imperialism based on a popular Mexican folk song. With Edward James Olmos. (C-106 min) (Drama) (PG) HTN: Jan. 18, 30.

BANDOLERO! ●● (1968) Stewart and Martin play outlaw brothers, Welch is their hostage, and judicial forces on both sides of the border want their hides. Better than watching your average TV series, but not by much. With James Stewart, Dean Martin, Raquel Welch, George Kennedy. (C-106 min) (NR) WOR: Jan. 14.

BARRY LYNDON ●●●● (1975) The ultimate coffee table movie—lovely to look at; but if you want action, you'd best stick to Eastwood and Bronson. Meticulously crafted, beautifully photographed, leisurely paced, the film chronicles the misadventures of an eighteenth-century naif who Kissinger-like advisor to the President of the United States. A subtly-wicked satiric poke at American values and the influence of TV, scripted by Jerry Kosinski from his own novel. Douglas, in his last screen role, won the Best Supporting Actor Oscar for his portrayal of the aging tycoon and political power broker. Directed Hal Ashby. With Peter Sellers, Shirley MacLaine, Melvyn Douglas, Jack Warden, Richard Basehart, Richard Dysart. (C-130 min) (Comedy) (NR) HBO: Jan. 13, 18, 21.

BELLS ● The Bard meets Ma Bell and the result is much ado about nothing. Shakespearean actor Chamberlain earns a few extra bucks impersonating an ecologist who's worried about a rash of deaths seemingly caused by—now, don't laugh—"killer phones," Ridiculous rubbish. With Richard Chamberlain, John Houseman. (C-95 min) (Drama) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 16, 21, 27, 31; SELEC TV: Jan. 9, 14, 22, 27, 31.

BELLS OF SAN FERNANDO ●● (1947) Not as impressive as their counterparts at St. Mary's, but they still ring on the hour, every hour. A timely tale of rebellion against a cruel overseer. With Donald Woods, Gloria Warren. (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 21.

BEND OF THE RIVER ●●● (1952) Good western action set in Oregon with Stewart as the scout for a wagon train whose provisions are stolen by his former outlaw partner. With James Stewart, Arthur Kennedy, Julia Adams, Rock Hudson. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 18.

BEWARE, MY LOVELY ●● (1952) Bizarre thriller as Lupino plays a widow who hires Ryan to help around the house, then discovers he's out of his mind. Directed by Harry Horner. With Ida Lupino, Robert Ryan, Taylor Holmes, O.Z. Whitehead, Barbara Whiting. (BW-77 min) CBN: Jan. 17.

BEYOND THE FOREST ●● (1949) Slow-moving melodrama as Davis plays the adulterous wife of a small-town doctor. Directed by King Vidor. With Bette Davis, Joseph Cotten, David Brian. (BW-93 min) (Drama) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 15, 21.

THE BIG BOUNCE ●● (1969) Ex-GI O'Neal and coquettish Taylor-Young indulge their desires in this hip, pointless sixties melodrama. Adapted by Robert Dozier from the novel by Elmore Leonard. Directed by Alex March. With Ryan O'Neal, Leigh Taylor-Young, Van Heflin, James Daly, Robert Webber, Lee Grant. (C-102 min) (Drama) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 10, 15, 21, 26.

THE BIG CHANCE ●● (1933) Uneven drama. With John Darrow, Mickey Rooney. (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 13, 14, 15, 18.

THE BIG MOUTH ●● (1967) A timid bank clerk gets involved with stolen diamonds when he is mistaken for a notorious gangster. Typical Lewis routines. With Jerry Lewis, Harold J. Stone, Del Moore, Susan Day. (Comedy) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 9.

THE BIG SCORE ●● (1983) Williamson plays a Dirty Harry-like cop who goes after a psychotic thug in this OK actioner. Directed by Fred Williamson. With Fred Williamson, Richard Roundtree, John Saxon, Nancy Wilson, Ed Lauter, Joe Spinell, D'Urville Martin, Michael Dante. (C-85 min) (Drama) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 13, 18, 23.

BILLY THE KID RETURNS From the grave, no less. And if your name is Pat Garrett, you'd better hightail it across the border. (BW-95 min) (Western) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 19.

BIRD OF PARADISE ●● (1932) Sensual South Seas romances as McCrea woos the exotic Dolores Del Rio. Visually exciting. Directed by King Vidor. With Joel McCrea, Dolores Del Rio. (BW-82 min) (Comedy) (NR) SPN: Jan. 9.

THE BLACK RAVEN ● (1943) Cheap, surpriseless mystery as various characters get together at an inn during a storm. With George Zucco, Wanda McKay, Glenn Strange. (BW-61 min) (Horror) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 17, 20.

THE BLACK STALLION RETURNS ●● (1983) Without the exquisite cinematography and the strong story line of the original Carroll Ballard film, this sequel finishes out of the money. The magical bonding between Kelly Reno and his beautiful stallion has taken a back seat to a routine Arabian nights adventure; what's left makes only for juvenile viewing. With Kelly Reno, Teri Garr, Vincent Spano. (C-103 min) (Adventure) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 16, 19, 24; CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 15, 21.

BLACK TIDE ●● (1956) British-made melodrama. With John Ireland, Joy Webster. (BW-79 min) CBN: Jan. 16.

BLAME IT ON RIO ●● (1984) A hot-blooded, mindless American sex "comedy" with Caine as a middle-aged tourist who falls for his best friend's Jayne Kennedy. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 15.

BORN TO KILL ●●● (1947) Harrowing, must-see film noir as a psychopath becomes romantically involved with his wife's conniving sister. Directed by Robert Wise. With Lawrence Tierney, Claire Trevor, Audrey Long, Walter Slezak, Elisha Cook, Jr., Philip Terry. (BW-92 min) (Horror-drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 12.

THE BOSTONIANS ●●● (1984) In Boston during the latter stages of the nineteenth century a beautiful orator (Potter) is recruited by a militant feminist (Redgrave) to lead the fight for women's suffrage. Thoughtful adaptation of the Henry James novel, with a knockout performance by Redgrave. Directed by James Ivory. With Vanessa Redgrave, Christopher Reeve, Madeleine Potter, Jessica Tandy, Linda Hunt. (C-120 min) (PG-Adult themes) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 10; HBO: Jan. 9.

BOWERY BOYS MEET THE MONSTER ●● (1954) There are a few hair-raising chuckles in this better-than-average ofering as the boys get trapped in the house of a mad genius. With Huntz Hall, Leo Gorcey, Bernard Gorcey, Ellen Corby, Lloyd Corrigan. (BW-65 min) WGN: Jan. 19.

BRADY'S ESCAPE ●● (1980) When an American pilot is shot down over Nazi-occupied Hungary, the locals compromise their safety to help him escape to freedom. With John Savage, Kelly Reno. (C-92 min) (Drama) (PG) HTN: Jan. 22, 31; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 10, 16, 19, 25, 29.

BRAINSTORM ●● (1983) Natalie Wood's sudden death during the shooting of this film nearly prompted the producers to can the entire project. But for some reason (the box office appeal of a dead star?), they changed their mind. Director Douglas Trumbull was given the green light to piece together a patchwork sci-fi thriller—more special effects than plot—about a device that permits one person to experience the thoughts and sensations of another. With Natalie Wood, Christopher Walken, Louise Fletcher, Cliff Robertson. (C-106 min) (PG) CINEMAX: Jan. 19.

BREAKIN' ●● (1984) Legit hoofer Dickey and a pair of breakdancers try to make it on Broadway in this spunky, teen-oriented tribute to a trend that seems about as durable as the hula hoop. Directed by Joel Silberg. With Lucinda Dickey, Adolfo "Shabba-Doo" Quinones, Michael "Boogaloo Shrimp" Chambers, Phineas Newborn III. (C-90 min) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 9, 17, 25.

BREAKIN' 2 ELECTRIC BOOGALOO ●● (1984) Sequel to the previous rap hit Breakin', with ballerina-turned-breakdancer Dickey again teamed up with street buddies Shabba-Doo and Boogaloo Shrimp. This time they dance into action to help save a community center. With Lucinda Dickey, Adolpho Quimones, Michael Chambers. (C) (Musical-drama) (PG) HBO: Jan. 11; SELEC TV: Jan. 17, 21, 25.

BREAKING AWAY ●●●● (1979) In an Indiana university town, it's the collegians vs. the "cutters" (local stonecutters boys who are drifting after high school graduation.) Dennis Christopher plays the cutter who's crazy about bicycles and wants to emulate Italian road-racers. Charming, affable film, written by Steve Tesich. (Drama) WPIX: Jan. 12.

THE BRIDGE ON THE RIVER KWAI ●●●● (1957) The "war is madness" theme has never been done better than in this Oscar-winning epic about British POW's in a World War II Japanese camp. Knockout acting by Guinness (he won an Oscar) as an unhinged British officer, who directs the construction of "the bridge on the River Kwai," and Holden as an American determined to blow it up. Adapted from Pierre Boulle's novel. Scripted by two blacklisted writers, Carl Foreman and Michael Wilson. Directed by David Lean. With Alec Guinness, William Holden, Jack Hawkins, Sessue Hayakawa. (C-161 min) (Adventure) (NR) AMC: Jan. 10, 19.

A BRIDGE TOO FAR ●● (1977) Overlong, and ultimately tedious war epic about a 1944 Allied parachute mission into Holland behind German lines. Based on the bestseller by Cornelius Ryan. Directed by Richard Attenborough. With Dirk Bogarde, James Caan, Michael Caine, Sean Connery, Edward Fox, Elliott Gould, Gene Hackman, Anthony Hopkins, Hardy Kruger, Laurence Olivier, Ryan O'Neal, Robert Redford, Maximilian Schell, Liv Ullman, Arthur Hill. WPIX: Part II: Jan. 9.

BROKEN DREAMS ●● (1933) The repair bills are not to be taken lying down. Doctor's second wife becomes jealous of her stepson. With Randolph Scott and the appropriately named Martha Sleeper. SPN: Jan. 14.

THE BROTHER FROM ANOTHER PLANET ● ● ● ● (1984) A mute black alien escapes from an extraterrestrial slave colony and winds up in Harlem. Hilarious and touching, this fast-moving satire is rife with well-aimed zingers about the current state of race relations in American society. Well-acted by everyone, particularly soap opera vet Morton in the lead role and the director himself as a slave hunter, who looks and acts as if he stepped out of the pages of an R. Crumb comic. Written and directed by John Sayles (Return of the Secaucus Seven, Lianna, Baby It's You.) With Joe Morton, Rosanna Carter, Ray Ramirez, Dee Dee Bridgewater, John Sayles. (C-110 min) (NR) SELEC TV: Jan. 15, 20, 31.

BUGS BUNNY'S THIRD MOVIE: 1001 RABBIT TALES ● ● Bugs plays Scheherazade to Yosemite Sam's Sultan in this animated "Arabian Nights" spoof. One of the tales showcases the marvelous Daffy Duck. With Bugs, Daffy, Yosemite Sam, Tweety Bird, Sylvester the Cat. (G) HBO: Jan. 12.

BURNT OFFERINGS ● ● (1976) Great cast, but an interminably drawn-out piece of scare'em. Couple Reed and Black with their twelve-year-old son and Aunt Bette rent a summer house for the season that turns out to be possessed and ready to eat them alive. Only a couple good jolts along the way to a ridiculous ending. With Oliver Reed, Karen Black, Bette Davis, Lee Montgomery, Burgess Meredith, Eileen Heckart, Dub Taylor. (Thriller) WPIX: Jan. 19.

BURROUGHS ● ● ● (1984) Filmed during a four-year period, this documentary paints an intimate portrait of one of the leading figures in modern American literature, William Burroughs. Footage includes readings from his works, and interviews with family and contemporaries, such as Allen Ginsberg, Terry Southern, Pattie Smith and Lauren Hutton. (BW-86 min) (Documentary) (NR) BRAVO: Jan. 15, 28.

BUT NOT FOR ME ● ● (1959) Pleasant remake of Accent on Youth as Gable plays a Broadway producer forced to choose between a persistent young secretary and a woman closer to his own age. Directed by Walter Lang. With Clark Gable, Carroll Baker, Lilli Palmer. (Comedy) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 21.

Inventive, rambling, but always-entertaining seriocomedy as Black and Emil attempt to have a relationship in present-day New York. Written, edited and directed by Henry Jaglom (A Safe Place, Tracks, Sitting Ducks.) With Karen Black, Michael Emil, Michael Margotta, Frances Fisher, Carol Kane, Paul Williams. (C-92 min) (R) BRAVO: Jan. 16, 29.

CAPTAIN LIGHTFOOT ●●● (1955) Beautifully-filmed account of a dashing Irish hero leading a rebellion in the nineteenth century. Directed by Douglas Sirk. With Rock Hudson, Barbara Rush, Jeff Morrow, Kathleen Ryan. (C-92 min) (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 22.

CATHERINE THE GREAT ●● (1934) The mercurial German actress Elisabeth Bergner stars as the Russian czarina, who, in this slow-moving British costumer, is compelled to marry against her wishes. Also known as The Rise of Catherine the Great. Directed by Bergner's husband, Paul Czinner. With Elisabeth Bergner, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Flora Robson. (BW-88 min) (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 20.

THE CAVERN ●● (1966) Six soldiers are trapped for five months beneath a German munitions dump with luscious Italian temptress Rosanna Schiaffino. And they say war is hell. Directed by Edgar G. Ulmer (Detour.) With Rosanna Schiaffion. John Saxon, Brian Aherne, Larry Hagman. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 22.

CENTENNIAL ●● (1985) Multi-part, epic saga based on James Michener's massive novel. Beginning in the 1790s, the drama follows the lives of those first settling in Colorado's Platte River valley and the fortunes of successive generations into the present day. With Robert Conrad, Richard Chamberlain, Barbara Carrera, Clint Walker, Raymond Burr, Andy Griffith. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Part 2: Jan. 12; Part 3: Jan. 19; Part 4: Feb. 2.

CHAINED HEAT ●● (1983) Blair's back, and this time it's not the devil who has her, but prison warden Vernon. A witless, thoroughly-predictable "women behind bars" flick for those who get their kicks eyeballing the dirty photos in those newsstand detective magazines. Directed by Paul Nicholas. With Linda Blair, John Vernon, Sybil Danning, Stella Stevens, Tamara Dobson, Sharon Hughes, Henry Silva, Nita Talbot, Michael Callan, Edy Wil-

CHANGE OF HABIT ●● (1969) Before taking their vows, three young nuns-to-be want to learn about the world by working in a ghetto clinic. Enter Elvis who gets to play doctor with Moore. Cute and insubstantial comedy-drama. With Elvis Presley, Mary Tyler Moore. (Comedy) (NR) WGN: Jan. 11.

CHARLIE CHAN AND THE CURSE OF THE DRAGON QUEEN ●● (1981) Boring, unfunny spoof of the Charlie Chan mysteries with Ustinov badly miscast as the Oriental sleuth. With Peter Ustinov, Lee Grant, Angie Dickinson, Richard Hatch, Brian Keith, Michele Pfeiffer, Roddy McDowell, Rachel Roberts. (PG) HBO: Jan. 10, 15, 18, 21.

CHARLIE CHAN IN MURDER OVER NEW YORK ●● (1940) Charlie gets wrapped up in a mid-air mystery when a murder takes place on a plane trip to New York. With Sidney Toler, Marjorie Weaver, Sen Yung, Robert Lowery, Ricardo Cortez. (BW-65 min) (Mystery) WGN: Jan. 12.

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN ●●● (1950) Charming family comedy, set at the turn of the century, recounts the story of the twelve Gilbreth children and their efficiency expert father who ruled the roost with mathematical precision. Corny, nostalgic, and totally enjoyable with endearing performances from Webb and Loy. Based on the best-selling recollections by two of the brood. With Clifton Webb, Myrna Loy, Edgar Buchanan, Barbara Bates, Betty Lynn. (Comedy) WPIX: Jan. 20.

CHEERS FOR MISS BISHOP ●●● (1941) Fine cast and acting in a sentimental recounting of the joys and sorrows of a devoted schoolteacher in a small Midwestern town. CHILDREN OF THE CORN ● (1984) Adolescents sacrifice their parents and other hopelessly-naive adults to a vegetation deity, but the truth of the matter is you'll sacrifice all self-respect if you watch this vacuous garbage concocted by American Express Card-carrying horrormeister Stephen King. With Peter Horton, Linda Hamilton. (C-92 min) (R) HBO: Jan. 11, 16, 19.

CHOOSE ME ● ● ● ● (1984) At long last, after what seems to be an endless parade of slob comedies geared to the teenage crowd, an intelligent, sly, offbeat comedy for adults. The story, which interweaves plots and characters as deftly as Walter Payton runs through would-be tacklers, focuses primarily on the lives of three people: A repressed Dr. Ruth-like radio sex counselor (Bujold), an ex-hooker-turned-bar owner (Warren) and a looney-bin graduate (Carradine) given to telling far-fetched stories about himself which may or may not be true. What these three go through on the road to happiness will raise a wry smile of embarrassed recognition on the face of anyone who ever has risked romance with a stranger. For my money, the best movie of 1984. Directed by Alan Rudolph (Welcome to L.A., Remember My Name.) With Genevieve Bujold, Keith Carradine, Lesley Ann Warren, Rae Dawn Chong. (C) (Drama) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 13, 23.

CHRISTINA ● (1984) The life of a rich, pleasure-loving woman turns topsy-turvy when she is kidnapped by an all-female terrorist group. Silly softcore slop. With Jewle Shepard. CINEMAX: Jan. 10, 14.

CITIZEN KANE ● ● ● ● (1941) When world-famous publishing tycoon Charles Foster Kane dies, a journalist decides to interview those who knew him to discover the man behind the name. The result is "the greatest film of all time," according to a survey of 122 international film critics published in the prestigious British journal SIGHT & SOUND. Music by Bernard Herrmann. Photography by Gregg Toland. Written by Herman J. Mankiewicz and Orson Welles. Directed by Orson Welles. With Orson Welles, Joseph Cotten, Dorothy Comingore, Everett Sloane, Paul Stewart, Ruth Warrick, Erskine Sanford, Agnes Moorehead, George Coulouris. (BW-119 min) (Drama) (NR)

With Claude Rains, Fay Wray, Jane Baxter, Mary Clare, Athole Stewart, Felix Aylmer. (BW-80 min) (Drama) HBO: Jan. 17, 22.

THE CLANCY STREET BOYS (1943) Inside sources have it that this is a favorite at the White House. The East Side Kids pose as the children of an impoverished childless couple so they can collect relief benefits. Social realism with a humorous touch. With The East Side Kids. (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 11, 17, 21.

CLOAK AND DAGGER ●●● (1984) Pleasant children's adventure with Thomas a withdrawn child given to fantasy, who suddenly finds himself involved with some real and decidedly-dangerous spies. Updated remake of the 1949 thriller The Window, which starred Bobby Driscoll. Directed by Richard Franklin. With Henry Thomas, Dabney Coleman, Michael Murphy, Jeanette Nolan, John McIntire, Christine Nigra. (C-102 min) (Adventure) (PG) HTN: Jan 9, 15, 24, 29; SELEC TV: Jan. 13, 26; SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 28.

A CLOCKWORK ORANGE ●●●● (1971) Kubrick's visually-dazzling adaptation of Anthony Burgess' novel stars McDowell as a futuristic "rebel without a cause," who, along with his buddies, wanders around committing murder and rape for kicks. Caught by the state, he is forced to undergo punitive therapy so brutal that it might make one long for the simpler tortures inflicted upon Winston Smith in 1984. Caution: Once you see this film, you'll never listen to "Singin' in the Rain" in quite the same way again. Music by Walter (now Wendy) Carlos. Written and directed by Stanley Kubrick. With Malcolm McDowell, Michael Bates, Adrienne Corri, Patrick Magee, Warren Clarke, Aubrey Morris, James Marcus. (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 14,

THE CLOWN 🏈🏈 (1953) Fairly-engrossing remake of The Champ with Skelton a down-and-out comic, as opposed to a boxer, and Considine the son who still believes in him. Directed by Robert Z. Leonard. With Red Skelton, Tim Considine, Jane Greer, Loring Smith, Philip Ober. (BW-91 min) (Drama) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 20, 24.

COMFORT AND JOY 🏈🏈🏈 (1984) Mild-mannered, but engaging comedy as a disk jockey finds himself in the middle of a war between two Italian families over who is to control the Glasgow, Scotland, ice cream business. Written and directed by Bill Forsyth (Gregory's Girl, Local Hero.) With Bill Peterson, Eleanor David, C.P. Grogan. (C-105 min) (PG-Mature dialogue) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 10, 15; CINEMAX: Jan. 10, 16.

CONAN THE DESTROYER 🏈🏈 (1984) Check your brain at the door, and you'll love this action-filled follow-up to Conan the Barbarian. Scwarzenegger once again plays the invincible, Cimmerian swordsman whose pectorals are considerably larger than the nation of Yugoslavia. This time out, he leads a band of misfits on a quest for a mysterious, jeweled, unicorn-like horn that he thinks will help restore his dead lover Valeria to life. Foolish hope? Maybe. But with Conan involved you never can be sure. Written by Stanley Mann. Directed by Richard Fleischer. With Arnold Schwarzenegger, Grace Jones, Wilt Chaberlain, Tracey Walter, Sarah Douglas, Olivia D'Abo, Jeff Corey, Sven Ole Thorsen. (C-101 min) (Adventure) (PG-Violence) SHOWTIME: Jan. 25, 30.

CONGO CROSSING 🏈🏈 (1956) Civilization comes to the Congo in the person of he-man Nader. A yawner. With Virginia Mayo, George Nader, Peter Lorre, Michael Pate, Rex Ingram. (Drama) WOR: Jan. 11.

CONSOLATION MARRIAGE 🏈🏈 (1931) Dunne and O'Brien fall in love in this sometimes-sappy romantic melodrama. Directed by Paul Sloane. With Irene Dunne, Pat O'Brien. (BW-81 min) AMC: Jan. 22.

COP-OUT 🏈🏈 (1968) Satisfying mystery with retired lawyer Mason defending his daughter's boyfriend who is being framed for murder. With James Mason, Dimitri DeGrunwald, Geraldine Chaplin, Bobby Darin. (C-92 min) (Mystery) (NR) WOR: Jan.

COSMOS: WAR OF THE PLANETS ● Shoddy sci-fi shootout. With John Richardson, Wanti Somer. (C-93 min) (Sci-fi) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 11.

THE COTTON CLUB ●●● (1984) Francis Ford Coppola's glittery and grandly-mounted musical-drama of gangsters and prohibition, jazz and racial prejudice set against the backdrop of Harlem in the 1920s. Although loosely-plotted, with less-than-inspired acting from Gere, technical brilliance, an outstanding performance from Bob Hoskins as nightclub impressario Ownie Madden and the high-flying tap dancing of Gregory Hines (not to mention the immortal melodies of Duke Ellington) make for great entertainment. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola, who was assisted on the script-writing by Pulitzer Prize-winning author William Kennedy (Ironweed.) With Richard Gere, Gregory Hines, Diane Lane, Bob Hoskins, Lonette McKee, Nicolas Cage, James Remar, Fred Gwynne, Gwen Verdon. (C-127 min) (Drama) (R-Violence, language, adult themes) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 14, 20, 23; SHOWTIME: Jan. 16, 19, 25; HBO: Jan. 10, 19, 22.

COUNT FIVE AND DIE ●● (1958) Adequate World War II espionage thriller as Hunter plays an American agent who attempts to convince the Nazis that the Allied landing will be in Holland. With Jeffery Hunter, Nigel Patrick, Ann-Marie Duringer, David Kossoff. (Drama) (NR) USA: Jan. 15, 16.

COUNTRY FAIR ●● (1937) Dated racetrack romance. Remade in 1950. With John Arledge, Mary Lou Lender. (Romance) (NR) SPN: Jan. 11.

CRACKERS ●● (1984) Disappointing remake of the 1956 Italian caper comedy, Big Deal on Madonna Street. Director Louis Malle has transplanted the bumbling crooks that made the original so funny to San Francisco's Mission District where they try to steal a pawnshop safe that they've been trusted to guard. Directed by Louis Malle. With Donald Sutherland, Jack Warden, Sean Penn. (C-92 min) (Comedy) (PG) HBO: Jan. 13, 17.

CRAZY MAMA ●●● (1975) Camped-up Roger Corman-produced cheapie as Leachman plays a 1950s widow who leads an assortment of weirdos, including her pregnant daughter, on a cross-country crime spree. Wonderful fun. Also includes a great soundtrack full of obscure, and not-so-obscure fifties tunes. Written by Robert Thom. Directed by Jonathan Demme (Melvin and Howard, Stop Making Sense.) With Cloris Leachman, Ann Sothern, Linda Purl, Donny Most, Stuart Whitman, Jim Backus, Bryan Englund. (C-82 min) (Comedy) (R) LIFETIME: Jan. 9, 16, 18.

CRAZY OVER HORSES (1951) The Bowery Boys take an interest in racing. With The Bowery Boys, Huntz Hall, Leo Gorcey. (C-65 min) (Comedy) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 12.

CRIMES OF PASSION ● ● ● (1984) As a fashion designer by day, and a street hooker named China Blue by night, Kathleen Turner gives one red hot performance in this typically-bizarre, flamboyant and controversial film by Ken Russell. Her dual worlds collide when company spy Laughlin and religiously-fanatic and deranged "Reverend" Perkins (one of her johns) become interested in what she does in her off time. Definitely not for the kids or the prudish. Directed by Ken Russell. With Kathleen Turner, Anthony Perkins, John Laughlin. (C-101 min) (Drama) (R-Adult themes, nudity, language) SELEC TV: Jan. 17.

THE CRIMSON PIRATE ● ● ● (1952) Colorful and spirited swashbuckler with more than a touch of the spoof as an eighteenth-century pirate and an odd-ball inventor lead a rebellion against a tyrannical king. Rascally-grinning Lancaster and the acrobatic Cravat are both in splendid form in this cult fave. Directed by Robert Siodmak. With Burt Lancaster, Nick Cravat, Eva Bartok, Toring Thatcher, James Hayter, Christopher Lee. (C-104 min) (Adventure) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 20.

CRISS CROSS ● ● ● ● (1948) "From the start, it all went one way. It was in the cards or it was fate or a jinx or whatever you want to call it." Fatality and film noir hand-in-hand with Lancaster an armored car guard whose obsession with his ex-wife draws him into a robbery and a morass of double-crossing betrayal. Stylish, intense, compelling. Directed by Robert Siodmak. With Burt Lancaster, Yvonne De Carlo, Dan Duryea, Stephen McNally, Richard Long, Tony Curtis (bit part in his film debut.) (BW-87 min) (Mystery) (NR) WOR: Jan. 21.

CRY DANGER ● ● ● (1951) After doing a five-year stretch on a robbery charge, ex-con Powell is determined to prove he was innocent. A convincing, fast-paced yarn. With Dick Powell, Rhonda

Fleming, Richard Erdman, William Conrad. (Drama) CBN: Jan. 20.

CURLEY ●● (1947) Silly comic short as some school kids make mincemeat of their teacher. Directed by Bernard Carr. With Larry Olsen, Frances Rafferty, Eilene Janssen, Walter Abel. (C-53 min) (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 19.

CUSTER OF THE WEST ●● (1968) Sprawling, grand-scale bio of the man who made arrow shirts fashionable after the battle at Little Big Horn only is partially saved by Shaw's florid, offbeat portrayal. Directed by Robert Siodmak. With Robert Shaw, Robert Ryan, Jeffrey Hunter, Mary Ure, Ty Hardin, Kieron Moore. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 21.

D.C. CAB ●● (1983) Police Academy for people who don't want to take the subway. A group of crazies work for the world's worst cab company, with Mr. T at the center of the mayhem and low-brow humor. Also with Irene Cara, Gary Busey, Adam Baldwin. (C-99 min) (R) HBO: Jan. 11, 21; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 19, 24, 28.

D.O.A. ●●●● (1949) "I don't think you understand. You've been murdered!" Great little film noir: A small-town businessman on vacation in San Francisco doped with slow-acting poison tries to track down his killer in the few hours he has left. Stars that paunchy noir stalwart Edmund O'Brien. Directed by Rudolph Mate. (BW-84 min) (Mystery) (NR) NICKELODEON: Jan. 14, 19.

DAISY KENYON ●● (1947) Nice looking, but snoozeville story of a fashion designer in love with one man and married to another. Directed by Otto Preminger. With Joan Crawford, Henry Fonda, Dana Andrews, Ruth Warrick. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 14.

DAISY MILLER ●● (1974) Thoughtful, but inconsistent adaptation of the Henry Miller story about a young nineteenth-century American girl trying to enter European society. DANGER ON WHEELS ● ● (1939) Racecar driver Arlen risks life and limb for the right to use what he thinks is a faster, better-designed motor. With Richard Arlen. (BW-61 min) SPN: Jan. 22.

DANIEL ● ● ● (1983) Sidney Lumet's provocative, thinly-fictionalized rendering of the trial and execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. Hutton is extraordinary as a young man who attempts to discover the real truth behind his parents' convictions. Adapted from E.L. Doctorow's "The Book of Daniel." Directed by Sidney Lumet. With Timothy Hutton, Amanda Plummer, Lindsay Crouse, Mandy Patinkin. (R) HBO: Jan. 12.

DANIEL BOONE ● ● (1936) The story of the life of the famous frontiersman who discovered Kentucky and made buckskin fashionable. With George O'Brien, Heather Angel. (Adventure) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 11, 18, 22.

DANNY BOY ● ● ● (1982) An Irish saxophonist, known as "the Stan Getz of Northern Ireland," witnesses a murder outside a Northern Ireland club, then tracks down the killers himself. A chilling, thought-provoking, independently-produced drama. Photography by Chris Menges (The Killing Fields.) Executive producer: John Boorman. Written and directed by Neil Jordan. With Stephen Rea, Ray McAnally, Marie Kean. (C-92 min) (Drama) (R-Mature dialogue, action) SPN: Jan. 16.

DARK JOURNEY ● ● ● (1937) Leigh, in her pre-Scarlett days, shines as a World War I counterspy who falls for her German contact. Directed by Victor Saville. With Conrad Veidt, Vivien Leigh, Joan Gardner. (BW-82 min) (Adventure) (NR) CBN: Jan. 9.

DARK PASSAGE ● ● (1947) Escaped convict Bogart undergoes plastic surgery so that he can prove himself innocent of his wife's murder. OK melodrama uplifted by the chemistry between the stars. Directed by Delmer Daves. With Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Agnes Moorehead, Bruce Bennett. (Mystery) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 13.

THE DARWIN ADVENTURE ● ● (1972) Occasionally-rewarding biopic follows Charles Darwin's early musings about the theory of evolution. Focuses primarily on his trip to South America aboard the Beagle. Written by William Fairchild. Directed by Jack Couffer. With Nicholas Clay, Susan Macready, Ian Richardson, Christopher Martin, Robert Flemyng, Aubrey Woods, Hugh Morton. (C-91 min) (Drama) LIFETIME: Jan. 13, 20.

DAS BOOT ●●●● (1981) Hope and fear wax and wane at depth charge level in this soberingly-realistic, humanizing World War II drama. No contrived heroics here, only tense, riveting action in suffocatingly-close quarters as a German submarine works the cold waters of the North Atlantic. Jurgen Prochnow is excellent as the compassionate, though duty-bound commander. The most expensive German movie ever made, it is meticulously crafted from cinematography to soundtrack. Directed by Wolfgang Petersen. With Jurgen Prochnnow, Herbert Gronemeyer, Klaus Wennemann, Hubertas Bengsch. (C-149 min) (Drama) (R) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 15, 21.

DAUGHTER OF THE TONG ●● (1939) Atmospheric thriller set in the Chinese underworld. With Evelyn Brent, Grant Withers. (Thriller) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 17.

DAY OF THE EVIL GUN ●●● (1968) With echoes of The Searchers, a solid western with sturdy performances from Ford and Kennedy. Returning home after three years, an ex-gunman teams up with a rival to find his wife and two children who have been stolen by Apaches. Reprising the Hank Worden role in the John Ford film, Jagger does a good bit as the Indian trader touched by the Great Spirit. Directed by Jerry Thorpe. With Glenn Ford, Arthur Kennedy, Dean Jagger, Paul Fix, John Anderson, Nico Minardos. (C-94 min) (Western) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 21.

THE DEAD ZONE ●●● (1983) Stephen King's supernatural thriller starring Christopher Walken as a schoolteacher who awakens from a five-year coma with an uncontrollable gift of foresight that pulls him into a nightmare. With Christopher Walken, Brooke Adams, Martin Sheen, Colleen Dewhurst, Tom Skerritt, Herbert Lom. (C-102 min) (R) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 13, 23, 31.

DEATHSTALKER ● (1983) A "hee haw" of a sword-and-sorcery thriller as Hef's ex gets captured by an evil medieval wizard, then saved by a handsome young warrior. Script by Howard Cohen. Directed by John Watson. With Barbi Benton, Richard Hill, Richard Brooker, Lana Clarkson, Victor Bo, Bernard Erhard. (C-80 min) (Horror) (R)

Edwards, Scatman Crothers. (C-106 min) (Drama) USA: Jan. 15.

DEVIL DOG: THE HOUND OF HELL ● ● (1978) Tired of human bodies (their hearing is limited), Satan decides to possess man's best friend and terrorize a typical American family. A silly horror flick whose bark emphatically is worse than its bite. With Richard Crenna, Yvette Mimieux, Kim Richards, Victor Jory. (C-95 min) (NR) WOR: Jan. 18.

THE DEVILS ● ● (1971) Flamboyant, but empty-headed succession of sights and sounds about a sexually-repressed nun's attempt to brand a priest as a devil. Set in seventeenth-century France, this sacrilegious nightmare contains scenes that are sure to offend even the most jaded of movie watchers. A genuine cinematic gross-out that's inspired an intellectually-suspect cult following. Based on Aldous Huxley's "The Devils of Loudon" and John Whiting's play The Devils. Written and directed by Ken Russell (Tommy, Crimes of Passion.) With Oliver Reed, Vanessa Redgrave, Dudley Sutton, Max Adrian, Gemma Jones, Murray Melvin, Michael Gothard, Graham Armitage. (C-111 min) (Drama) (R) BRAVO: Jan. 10, 25, 30.

DIABOLIQUE ● ● ● (1955) French chiller that mounts toward a shattering climax. Directed by Henri-Georges Clouzot (The Wages of Fear.) With Simone Signoret, Michel Serrault. SPN: Jan. 13.

DIE LAUGHING ● (1979) If you watch this movie, you'll die, but it won't be from laughing. More than likely it will be from the embarrassment you'll feel seeing Benson ham it up as a cabbie involved in the slaying of a nuclear scientist. Written, produced, and scored by Robby Benson. Directed by Jeff Werner. With Robby Benson, Bud Cort, Charles Durning, Elsa Lanchester, Linda Grovenor. (C-108 min) (Comedy) HTN: Jan. 10, 20, 25, 30.

DIXIE DYNAMITE ● (1976) Step aside you good old boys, it's the ladies' turn to be boisterous and idiotic. When sisters lose their farm and their moonshine- making pappy, trouble ensues for the local yokels. With Jane Anne Johnstone, Kathy McHaley, Christopher George, Warren Oates. (C-89 min) (Drama) (NR) WOR: Jan. 11.

DOC SAVAGE: MAN OF BRONZE ● (1975) Before Arnold Schwarzenegger there was Doc Savage. It may sound like he's busting up an illegal tanning studio operation, but actually he and his fabulous five match wits with the nefarious Capt. Seas in this witless adventure spoof. With Paul Wexler, Bill Lucking, Paul Gleason. (C-96 min) (Adventure) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 19.

DOCTOR EHRLICH'S MAGIC BULLET ●●●● (1940) Superb biographical drama with an earnestly-convincing performance by Robinson as the German doctor who fought against the medical community to develop a cure for venereal disease. John Huston had his hand in on the scriptwriting. Directed by William Dieterle. With Edward G. Robinson, Ruth Gordon, Donald Crisp, Otto Krueger, Maria Ouspenskaya, Sig Roman. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 20.

THE DOCTOR TAKES A WIFE ●●● (1940) Lively comedy as Milland is mistaken for Young's husband, then must pretend he really is. With Ray Milland, Loretta Young, Reginald Gardiner, Gail Patrick. (BW-89 min) (Comedy) (NR) AMC: Jan. 14, 26.

DODSWORTH ●●●● (1936) First-class adaptation of the Sinclair Lewis novel about a middle-aged American industrialist who takes his wife on an extended tour of Europe where their lives are changed by the people they meet. Huston is magnetic in the title role, and he's ably supported by the rest of the cast. Excellent script by Sidney Howard. Directed by William Wyler. With Walter Huston, Ruth Chatterton, Paul Lukas, Mary Astor, David Niven, John Payne, Maria Ouspenskaya, Spring Byington. (BW-101 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 9, 18; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 18, 22, 27, 31.

THE DOUBLE MAN ●● (1967) Humdrum thriller with Brynner in a dual role as a C.I.A. agent and a Communist look-alike. Directed by Franklin Schaffner. With Yul Brynner, Britt Ekland, Clive Revill, Anton Diffring, Moira Lister, Lloyd Nolan. (C-105 min) (NR) CINEMAX: Jan. 13, 18.

DREAMSCAPE ●●● (1984) Entertaining fantasy-thriller as research scientists persuade the psychic Quaid to use his powers to enter other people's dreams. Spectacular special effects. Mike Shayne investigates a murder in this private-eye adventure. With Lloyd Nolan, Mary Beth Hughes. SPN: Jan. 10.

THE DRESSER ◆◆◆ (1983) Stagey, atmospheric and ultimately-depressing adaptation of Ronald Harwood's autobiographical play about a sado-masochistic relationship between an aging, senile Shakespearean actor (Finney) and his mincing valet (Courtenay.) Both leads deservedly-received Oscar nominations, and they're ably supported—particularly by Fox as Finney's pompous rival. Directed by Peter Yates. With Albert Finney, Tom Courtenay, Edward Fox, Eileen Atkins, Zena Walker, Michael Gough, Cathryn Harrison. (C-99 min) (PG) BRAVO: Jan. 9, 15.

DRUMS ◆◆◆ (1938) Sabu saves the British Army in India. Colorful and rewarding. Original title: The Drum. Directed by Zoltan Korda. With Sabu, Roger Livesy, Raymond Massey, Valerie Hobson. (Adventure) (NR) CBN: Jan. 11.

DRUMS IN THE DEEP SOUTH ◆◆ (1951) Occasionally-interesting historical adventure as West Pointers find themselves on opposite sides of the conflict when the Civil War breaks out. With James Craig, Guy Madison, Barbara Payton, Craig Stevens. (C-87 min) (Adventure) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 12, 13.

THE DUDE RANGER ◆ City slicker tames the west. (Western) (NR) SPN: Jan. 17.

DUSTY Shepherd's dog. (C-88 min) (Family-feature) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 9, 13, 17, 19, 24, 27, 30.

DYNASTY OF BLOOD ◆ No Alexis here, just straightforward chopsocky action. (Kung-fu) USA: Jan. 19.

EASY RIDER ◆◆◆◆ (1969) "Yeah darling, go and make it happen/ Take the world in a love embrace/ Fire all of your guns at once and/ Explode into space." Low-budget, counterculture classic about a couple of drug-dealing hippies (Hopper and Fonda) who travel across country on motorcycles as the soundtrack blares a series of everybody's favorite sixties' tunes. In its time, it was considered a breakthrough film and spawned a host of imitators. It's dated a bit since then, but if you ever want to remind yourself of what it was really like to live through that era—the boredom as well as the highs—then this is the picture to see. One imperishable plus: Jack Nicholson's performance as an alcoholic civil rights lawyer. It made him a star, and rightfully so. (C-96 min) (Drama) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 14, 22.

EL NORTE ●●●● (1983) A Guatemalan brother and sister flee their country's political repression for the wealth and glamor of the United States. Unfortunately for them, all is not rosy in the land of The North (El Norte.) Harrowing, provocative, epic in sweep, this independently-produced film will chill you to the bone. Academy Award nominee for Best Screenplay. Written by Gregory Nava and Anna Thomas. Directed by Gregory Nava. With Aide Silvia Gutierrez, David Villalpando, Ernesto Gomez Cruz, Alicia del Lago, Aracio Zepeda, Stella Quan, Lupe Ontiveros. (C-141 min) (R) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 21, 27, 30.

ELEANOR AND FRANKLIN ●●●● (1976) From Joesph P. Lash's Pulitzer Prize-winning best-seller, a splendidly-acted, Emmy-winning portrait intimately detailing the relationship of Frankiln D. Roosevelt and his wife Eleanor, from her lonely childhood, to his death in 1945. Alexander and Herrmann give sensitive and totally-believable performances in the lead roles of this first-rate historical biography. Directed by Daniel Petrie. With Jane Alexander, Edward Herrmann, Rosemary Murphy, Pamela Franklin, David Huffman, Lilia Skala, MacKenzie Phillips, Ed Flanders. (C-200 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 11, 18.

ELEANOR AND FRANKLIN: THE WHITE HOUSE YEARS ●●●● (1977) Alexander and Herrmann match the superb performances they gave in the earlier Emmy-winning special Eleanor and Franklin in this excellent follow-up. Based again on Joseph Lash's Pulitzer Prize-winning book, the drama now focuses on the presidential years of FDR and Eleanor. Most of the original cast and crew returned to garner another basketful of Emmys, including a second for Director Daniel Petrie. With Jane Alexander, Edward Herrmann, Rosemary Murphy, Walter McGinn, Blair Brown, Donald Moffat, David Healy, Mark Harmon, Anna Lee. (C-152 min) (Docudrama) KTVT: Jan. 18.

ELIZABETH THE QUEEN ●●● (1939) Dashing, historically-inaccurate costumer of Elizabeth's thwarted love for the irrepressible Essex. Alternate title: The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex. Based

THE ENCHANTED COTTAGE ●● (1945) Charming romantic fantasy as a homely girl and a disfigured war vet find love. Directed by John Cromwell. With Dorothy McGuire, Robert Young, Mildred Natwick, Spring Byington, Herbert Marshall, Hillary Brooke. (BW-91 min) (Romance) (NR) AMC: Jan. 11.

ENDANGERED SPECIES ●● (1982) Why in tarnation would anyone want to mutilate cattle, drain their blood and clip out their internal organs? Seems like a mystery for ex-detective Robert Urich, who's poking round the ranges—and finding carcasses. This weird, half-botched thriller is based on actual (and unexplained) cattle-slashings out Wyoming way, where the nights are spooky and still. (Thriller) (R) WPIX: Jan. 19; WGN: Jan. 10.

ENDGAME ● (1983) Post-apocalyptic fantasy as a telepath and a gladiator come to the aid of some mutants embroiled in a battle with the fascist dictators who rule New York. Standard drive-in fodder. With Moira Chen, Al Cliver. (C-99 min) (Fantasy) (PG) CINEMAX: Jan. 11.

ENOLA GAY: THE MEN, THE MISSION, THE ATOM BOMB ●● (1980) Moving, made-for-TV account of the crew members of the plane that dropped the atom bomb on Hiroshima. Directed by David Lowell Rich. With Billy Crystal, Kim Darby, Patrick Duffy, Gary Frank, Gregory Harrison, Stephen Macht, Walter Olkewicz, Robert Pine, Ed Nelson, James Shigeta, Robert Walden, Henry Wilcoxon. (C-150 min) (Drama) HBO: Jan. 19.

ENTRE NOUS ●●●● (1983) Director Kurys' remembrance of her mother's long-lasting friendship with another French woman, a relationship that survives the counter-pull of World War II, husbands, lovers and even children. A compelling blend of feminism and nostalgia with first-class performances by Huppert and Miou-Miou as the principals. Original French title: Coup De Foudre. Written and directed by Diane Kurys (Peppermint Soda, Cocktail Molotov.) With Isabelle Huppert, Miou-Miou, Guy Marchand, Jean-Pierre Bacri, Robin Renucci, Patrick Bachau. (C-113 min) (PG) BRAVO: Jan. 24 (subtitled.)

ERENDIRA ●●● (1983) When a ten year old accidentally burns down her tyrannical grandmother's house, she is forced to make amends by becoming the star attraction in an itinerant brothel. A haunting fairy tale adapted from a story by Nobel Prize-winner Gabriel Garcia-Marquez. Directed by Roy Guerra. With Irene Papas, Claudia Ohana, Oliver Wehe. (C-103 min) (Drama) (R) BRAVO: Jan. 19; SELEC TV: Jan. 14; 30 (subtitled.)

THE ESCAPE ARTIST ●● (1984) Teenaged "Houdini" has problems with his manipulative family. Should please those who made the Hardy Boys such a successful television program. With Griffin O'Neal, Teri Garr, Raul Julia, Desi Arnaz, Joan Hackett. (C-94 min) (Drama) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 15, 21.

ESCAPE FROM EL DIABLO ●● Harder to break out of than Alcatraz once was. No-nonsense adventure. (C-90 min) (Adventure) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 16, 24.

EVERGREEN ●●● (1934) Early film musical that is a lot of fun. The crazy plot has Matthews becoming a star pretending to be her mother, who long ago retired when she was a top theatrical draw, and simultaneously falling for the man who's masquerading as her son. Script by Emlyn Williams and Victor Saville. With Jessie Matthews also known as "The Dancing Divinity." (BW-94 min) (Musical) (NR) SPN: Jan. 20.

EVERYBODY DOES IT ●●● (1949) Funny comedy with Douglas a businessman who discovers he can sing. Remake of 1939's Wife, Husband and Friend. Directed by Edmond Goulding. With Paul Douglas, Celeste Holm, Linda Darnell. (Comedy) (NR) USA: Jan. 16, 17.

EVIL UNDER THE SUN (1982) An Agatha Christie mystery. With Peter Ustinov, James Mason, Diana Rigg. (C-102 min) (PG) HBO: Jan. 12, 17.

THE EXECUTION OF PRIVATE SLOVICK ●●●● (1974) Emotionally-pulverizing performance by Sheen as Eddie Slovick, the only American soldier executed for desertion since the Civil War. Completely unsuited for the rigors of battle, Slovick becomes the helpless victim of an indifferent military bureaucracy. Poignant and incisive adaptation of William Bradford Huie's non-fiction account. With Martin Sheen, Mariclare Costello, Ned Beatty, Gary Busey. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 21.

F.I.S.T. ●● (1978) Uneven account of the rise and fall of a union boss. Directed by Norman Jewison. With Sylvester Stallone, Rod Steiger, Peter Boyle, Melinda Dillon, David Huffman, Tony Lo Bianco. (C-145 min) (Drama) CINEMAX: Jan. 13, 14, 21.

A FACE IN THE CROWD ●●●● (1957) Reporter Neal helps turn a guitar-playing hick into a national celebrity only to see him end up as an arrogant heel. Excellent acting in a thoughtful, provocative drama from the one-two punch that put together On the Waterfront. Written by Budd Schulberg. Directed by Elia Kazan. With Andy Griffith, Patricia Neal, Lee Remick, Walter Matthau, Anthony Franciosa. (C-126 min) (Drama) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 12, 16, 18, 21, 31.

THE FALLEN IDOL ●●●● (1948) First-class adaptation of a Graham Greene story told chiefly from a child's point of view. An ambassador's son worships a servant superbly played by the late, great Ralph Richardson. When the servant's wife dies, the boy unwarily implicates his idol. Directed by Carol Reed, With Ralph Richardson, Michele Morgan, Bobby Henry, Jack Hawkins. (BW-94 min) (Drama) (NR) A&E NETWORK: Jan. 11, 12; NICKELODEON: Jan. 9, 12.

FANDANGO ●● In 1971, with the draft hanging over their heads, five young Texas buddies embark on a search for the meaning of life. Produced by Steven Spielberg. With Kevin Costner, Judd Nelson, Sam Robards. (C-91 min) (Drama) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 12, 17, 21, 27; HBO: Jan. 22.

souls with a weight problem meeting and falling in love. With Farnum Scott, January Stevens. (C-97 min) (Romance-drama) (NR) HTN: Jan. 16, 22, 28.

FATSO ●● (1980) Pathetic comedy written and directed by Anne Bancroft. DeLuise tries to reduce after a corpulent cousin expires. About as funny as The Richard Simmons Show. With Dom DeLuise, Anne Bancroft. (Comedy) (PG) WGN: Jan. 19.

FEMALE ON THE BEACH ●● (1955) Crawford's performance makes this contrived melodrama better than it actually is. A rich widow falls in love with a stranger who lives next to her beach house, but soon suspects he has her money and murder in mind. With Joan Crawford, Jeff Chandler, Jan Sterling, Judith Evelyn. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 13.

FIESTA ●● (1941) Not to be confused with the 1947 Esther Williams bullring musical, this flick is a forty-three minute Hal Roach Mexican musical comedy about a gay caballero's macho attempts to recapture his senorita's affections. Features such songs as "I'll Never Forget Fiesta" and "Never Trust a Jumping Bean." Directed by LeRoy Prinz. With Anne Ayers, George Negrette, George Givot. (C-43 min) (Comedy) (NR) ACTS: Jan. 17.

FIFTH AVENUE GIRL ●● (1939) Tedious comedy as a millionaire's son romances a poor girl. Even Rogers looks bored in this one. Directed by Gregory La Cava. With Ginger Rogers, Walter Connolly, James Ellison. (BW-83 min) (Comedy) (NR) AMC: Jan. 12.

FIGHTER ATTACK ●● (1953) Major returns to Italy and recalls his last World War II mission. Lazy actioner. With Sterling Hayden, Joy Page, J. Carrol Naish. (Drama) (NR) CBN: Jan. 13.

FINIAN'S RAINBOW ●●● (1968) Racism and leprechauns seem like a strange combination, but they made for the elements of success in the 1947 Broadway play; and young Director Francis Ford Coppola manages to preserve some of its charm in this belated screen version. As an Irish immigrant transplanted to Missitucky, somewhere near Fort Knox, Astaire plans to reap some riches of his own by planting a crock of gold stolen from a "wee one." A whimsical, if overdone, musical that benefits primarily from Astaire's presence and the witty charm of the E.Y. Hapburg-Burton Lane musical numbers including, "Something Sort of Grandish," How Are Things in Glocca Morra" and

"When the Idle Poor Become the Idle Rich." Directed by Francis Ford Coppola. With Fred Astaire, Petula Clark, Tommy Steele, Keenan Wynn, Al Freeman, Barbara Hancock. (C-145 min) (Musical) (G) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 9, 13, 17; SELEC TV: Jan. 19; AMC: Jan. 11, 19.

FINNEGAN BEGIN AGAIN ●●● (1985) HBO Premiere Film with Moore as a schoolteacher who falls for an older married man, played by Preston. Directed by Joan Micklin Silver (Hester Street, Chilly Scenes of Winter.) With Mary Tyler Moore, Robert Preston, Sylvia Sydney, Sam Waterston. (Drama) (NR) HBO: Jan. 9.

FIRE ON THE MOUNTAIN ●● (1981) Speculator Howard changes his greedy ways when Ebsen convinces him that a certain parcel of land would be better off if the government didn't build a missile base there. Adapted by John Sacret Young from the novel by Edward Abbey ("The Monkey Wrench Gang.") Directed by Donald Wrye. With Ron Howard, Buddy Ebsen, Julie Carmen, Michael Conrad, Rossie Harris, Will Hare, Ed Brodow, Gary Graham. (C-110 min) (Drama) HBO: Jan. 11, 14, 22.

FIRE OVER ENGLAND ●●● (1937) Though quite good as a costume drama about British-Spanish hostility during Elizabeth's reign, this film is more notable as the event which marked the beginning of the famous Olivier/Leigh romance. With Laurence Olivier, Flora Robson, Vivien Leigh, Raymond Massey. (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 20.

FIRECREEK ●● (1968) Should have been better given the personnel involved. Stewart is a part-time sheriff who attempts to stop Fonda and gang from terrorizing his town. With James Stewart, Henry Fonda, Inger Stevens, Dean Jagger, Gary Lockwood, Ed Begley, J.C. Flippen, Jack Elam. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 20.

FITZCARRALDO ●●● (1982) Werner Herzog's overpowering, but uneven Jungian epic about a Napoleonic Irishman who dreams of building an opera house in the Peruvian jungle so that he can hear Caruso in person. You'll never forget the scene where Kinski as Fitzcarraldo, faced with the impending rainy season and the subsequent drowning of his hopes, supervises the near-impossible task of transporting a 320-ton steamship over a mountain in order to finish his beloved building. SPECIALTY VARIETY / RELIGIOUS VARIETY / RELIGIOUS SPANISH stein turns a girl, (brace yourself for this) into a monster with a wicked overbite. Sorry, female equalitarians, the monster is played by a man. Directed by Dick Cunha. With Donald Murphy, Sally Todd, John Ashley, Sandra Knight, Harold Lloyd, Jr. (C-84 min) (Horror) (NR) SPN: Jan. 18.

FREEBIE AND THE BEAN ●● (1974) Inept buddy-buddy flick starring Arkin and Caan as incompetent cops out to nail racketeer Kruschen. The comedy doesn't mix too well with the high body count. With Alan Arkin, James Caan, Loretta Swit, Jack Kruschen, Mike Kellin. (C-99 min) (Comedy) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 12.

FREEDOM TO DIE ●◖ Message drama. With Paul Maxwell, Felicity Young. (Drama) WPIX: Jan. 19.

FRIDAY THE 13TH: A NEW BEGINNING ● (1985) We don't need "A New Beginning"; we need a real "Final Chapter" to this interminable slasher series. At least, Jason seems to have gone to that Great Camp Blood in the Sky, but unfortunately, his hatchet has been passed on to another psychopath with the same fondness for performing impromptu surgical operations on dodo-brained teenagers. Directed by Danny Steinmann. With John Shepherd, Shavar Ross, Melanie Kinnaman, Richard Young. (C-92 min) (Horror) (R-Nudity, adult themes, language, violence) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 17, 21, 26, 30.

GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES ●●●● (1953) Howard Hawks' dizzy musical comedy version of the Anita Loos story of two gold digging showgirls in Paris. Features the hit tune "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend." Directed by Howard Hawks. With Marilyn Monroe, Jane Russell. WPIX: Jan. 20.

GHIDRAH, THE THREE-HEADED MONSTER ●● (1965) Godzilla, Rodan, and Mothra team up to save the world from a three-headed, fire-breathing dragon. Weird and watchable. Also with the twin Alilenas. PPV: Jan. 10.

GHOST CHASERS (1951) The Bowery Boys, out to expose a phony spiritualist, run into some ghostly complications. Medium laughs for room-temperature IQs. With The Bowery Boys, Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall. (BW-69 min) (Comedy) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 19.

The spirits of the founders of Buxley Military Academy return when their institution is about to go bankrupt. Passable comic fantasy. With Dick O'Neill, Victor French, Louise Latham. (C-93 min) (Fantasy) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 11, 14, 17, 20, 26, 30.

GHOSTS ON THE LOOSE ●● (1943) The Bowery Boys in an earlier incarnation as the East Side Kids. More embarrassing than Cheech and Chong, but at least Lugosi and a very young Ava Gardner are on hand. With Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Bela Lugosi, Ava Gardner. (64 min) (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 11, 12, 14, 16.

GIANT ●●● (1956) George Steven's epic soaper about the loves of two generations of Texans won him an Oscar as best director. The film's ultimately a bit disjointed, but it does contain several memorable scenes—among them, Dean stepping off his land and Hudson slugging it out with a beefy roadside cafe owner in defense of a Chicano family. This was Dean's last picture. With Elizabeth Taylor, Rock Hudson, James Dean, Carroll Baker. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Part I: Jan. 21; Part II Jan. 22.

THE GILDED CAGE ●● (1956) All that glitters isn't gold. Run-of-the-mill melodrama. With Alex Nicol, Veronica Hurst. (Drama) (NR) CBN: Jan. 17.

GIRLS OF THE WHITE ORCHID ● (1983) A young and innocent girl (of course) becomes a victim in the sinister Oriental white slave trade in this low-rent melodrama that doesn't even have the saving grace of camping it up. With Jennifer Jason Leigh, Ann Jillian, Mako, Thomas Byrd, Carolyn Deymour, Richard Narita, Soon-Teck Oh. (C-100 min) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 10, 14, 20, 23, 29.

GIVE US BARABBAS! ●●● The gripping account of what happened to Barabbas, a convicted thief and murderer, after a mob chose Jesus to replace him on the cross. With James Daly. (C-76 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 15.

THE GLADIATOR ●●● (1938) Enjoyable comedy as shy, uncoordinated Brown imbibes a magic serum and becomes a college hero. Directed by Edward Sedgwick. With Joe E. Brown, Man Mountain Dean, June Travis, Dickie Moore, Lucien Littlefield. (BW-70 min) (Comedy) WPIX: Jan. 13.

SPORTS / VARIETY CANADIAN THE NETWORKS THE NETWORKS

health improves. Directed by W. Lee Wilder. With Paul Kelly, Douglas Fowler, Anne Gwynne, Maris Wrixon, Jack Conrad. (BW-70 min) (Drama) (NR) CBN: Jan. 9.

GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN GIRL ●● (1929) Dated American musical of "the show must go on" variety still is interesting because of numerous guest appearances. With Mary Eaton, Edward Crandall, Eddie Cantor, Helen Morgan, Rudy Vallee, Florenz Ziegfield, Mayor Jimmy Walker, Ring Lardner, Johnny Weissmuller. (BW-95 min) (Musical) (NR) SPN: Jan. 13.

GO FOR BROKE ●●● (1951) The exploits of a Japanese-American combat unit fighting their way through Italy and France during World War II. Routine action, but better-than-average production. With Van Johnson, George Miki, Lane Nakano, Akira Fukunaga, Warner Anderson, Don Haggerty. (BW-92 min) (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 12, 16.

THE GOLD RUSH ●●●● (1925) Gentleman Tramp visits the Yukon, and the result is a silent screen classic. The scene in which a cabin seesaws over the abyss is a comic cliffhanger if there ever was one. Directed by Charlie Chaplin. With Charlie Chaplin, Mack Swain, Georgia Hale. (BW) (Comedy) (NR) SPN: Jan. 21.

THE GOLDEN ARROW ●● (1936) Heiress Davis wiles newspaper reporter Brent into a marriage of convenience in this amiable, but thin comedy. With Bette Davis, George Brent, Eugene Pallette, Dick Foran. (BW-68 min) SHOWTIME: Jan. 13, 18, 24, 29.

GOODBYE EMANUELLE ●● Parting is such a sweet sorrow. Hot n' heavy turn-on Kristel once again poses as "our lady of sex." In this entry in the series, she forges new paths of erotic excitement while vacationing on the Seychelles Islands. With Sylvia Kristel. (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 13.

THE GOODBYE GIRL ●●● (1977) Neil Simon's warm and witty romantic comedy brightly-acted by Dreyfuss and Mason. He's a struggling actor and she's a young divorced mother and aspiring dancer; due to misunderstandings reagarding an apartment lease, the two become reluncant roommates. One of Simon's most successful adaptations to the screen, with Dreyfuss walking off with the Oscar as Best Actor for his performance. Directed

8:00E 7:00C 6:00M 5:00P
MOVIE: THE COTTON CLUB
(1984) Francis Ford Coppola's glittery and grandly-mounted musical drama of gangsters and prohibition, jazz and racial prejudice set against the backdrop of Harlem in the 1920s. Although loosely-plotted, with less-than-inspired acting from Gere, the film's technical brilliance, an outstanding performance from Bob Hoskins as nightclub impressario Ownie Madden and the high-flying tap dancing of Gregory Hines (not to mention the immortal melodies of Duke Ellington) make for great entertainment. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola, who was assisted on the scriptwriting by Pulitzer Prize-winning author William Kennedy (''Ironweed''.) With Richard Gere, Gregory Hines, Diane Lane, Bob Hoskins, Lonette McKee, Nicolas Cage, James Remar, Fred Gwynne, Gwen Verdon. (R) SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 2 hours 15 minutes.

MOVIE: SWANN IN LOVE
(1984) Erotic, languorous adaptation of Marcel Proust's classic novel ''Swann's Way'' with Irons as the young aristocrat who finds his social standing destroyed when he becomes romantically obsessed with a gold-digging courtesan. Well-acted by all involved. Directed by Volker Schlondorff (The Tin Drum.) With Jeremy Irons, Ornella Muti, Fanny Ardant, Marie-Christine Barrault. (R) BRAVO (F4,2) length: 2 hours.

DIRE STRAITS—BROTHERS IN ARMS
Dire Straits bring their own unique brand of pure magic to SHOWTIME with a live concert special taped before a sell-out crowd at London's Wembley Arena. Led by guitarist Mark Knopler, the band, which has once again jumped to the forefront of the music scene with their hit single ''Money For Nothing,'' performs songs from their five albums, including the chart-topping ''Brothers In Arms'' and ''Alchemy.'' SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 1 hour.

MOVIE: PASSAGE TO INDIA
(1984) After a fourteen-year absence from the screen, director David Lean returns with this lavish adaptation of the E.M. Forster novel. Mounted in Lean's typically-epic style, the story of a young British girl (Davis) who oversteps the traditional bounds separating the cultures when she comes to India in the 1920s, resulting in a tragic accusation of attempted rape leveled at a young local doctor. Fine performances abound, but it's Peggy Ashcroft, as the understanding and compassionate Mrs. Moore, who walks with the honors and the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress. Nominated for eleven Oscars in all, the Maurice Jarre score garnered another. Directed by David Lean. With Judy Davis, Peggy Ashcroft, Victor Banerjee, Alec Guinness. (PG) HTN (F3,16) length: 2 hours 45 minutes.

GEORGE BURNS' 90TH BIRTHDAY
CBS celebrates the ninetieth birthday of one of America's favorite comedians. From Burns and Allen to Oh, God! You Devil to television commercials, Burns has delighted generations of audiences. He is joined by special guests for this birthday celebration special. CBS (T1,2) length: 1 hour.

11:00E 10:00C 9:00M 8:00P
I AM THE BLUES
A performance documentary starring the legendary blues singer-guitarist Willie Dixon, whose ''pure blues'' influenced the Rolling Stones, Muddy Waters and the Yardbirds. ''Baby Doo'' Caston and his Chicago All-Stars also appear. A & E NETWORK (F3,24) length: 1 hour.

MOVIE: THE RIVER
(1984) The third and least successful member of 1984's ''Dust Bowl Trilogy,'' which also included Country and Places in the Heart. Spacek is wonderful as a strong-willed Tennessee Valley farmer struggling to survive against both nature and capitalistic greed, and Glenn is just as good as the villain out to get her, but the picture itself is a bit too sappy and predictable. Beautifully photographed by Vilmos Zsigmond. Irritating musical score by John (Star Wars) Williams. Screenplay by Robert Dillon and Julian Barry. Directed by Mark Rydell (On Golden Pond.) With Sissy Spacek, Mel Gibson, Scott Glenn, Shane Bailey, Becky Jo Lynch, Barry Primus, Charlie Robinson, Billy Green Bush. (PG) HTN (F3,16) length: 2 hours 5 minutes.

ON LOCATION: STEVEN WRIGHT
Up-and-coming young comedian Steven Wright demonstrates his unique stand-up style in this exclusive hour-long special taped before an audience at Wolfgang's in San Francisco. The uncensored performance includes material intended for adult audiences. HBO EAST (G1,23) length: 1 hour.

11:00E 10:00C 9:00M 8:00P
MOVIE: 2010: THE YEAR WE MAKE CONTACT
(1984) A touching, occasionally-powerful sequel to Stanley Kubrick's 2001: A Space Odyssey. A Russo-American mission reactivates H.A.L., the treacherous computer from the previous movie, in order to find out what went wrong with the earlier voyage. What they discover is a peacenik's dream. Well-acted, particularly by Scheider and the underrated Mirren. Directed by Peter Hyams. With Roy Scheider, Helen Mirren, Bob Balaban, John Lithgow, Elya Baskink, Madolyn Smith, the voice of Donald Rains as H.A.L. and a special appearance by Keir Dullea, the star of 2001. (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL EAST (G1,10) length: 2 hours.

MOVIE: MURROW
Daniel J. Travanti (Hill Street Blues) portrays legendary newscaster Edward R. Murrow in this HBO premiere film that follows Murrow from his days as a radio correspondent during World War II through to his death in 1965. Murrow became the cornerstone of CBS television news and never dodged controversial issues. His frank and truthful reporting on Senator Joseph McCarthy led to his downfall at CBS. With Dabney Coleman as CBS founder William S. Paley. HBO EAST (G1,23) length: 2 hours.

MOVIE: SWANN IN LOVE
(1984) Erotic, languorous adaptation of Marcel Proust's classic novel "Swann's Way" with Irons as the young aristocrat who finds his social standing destroyed when he becomes romantically obsessed with a gold-digging courtesan. FAERIE TALE THEATRE: BEAUTY AND THE BEAST
Susan Sarandon stars as the beauty whose love transforms the hideous Beast (Klaus Kinski) into a handsome Prince in this enchanting adaptation of the classic tale. SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 1 hour.

MOVIE: A NIGHT IN CASABLANCA
(1946) Not as lively as the evening they spent at the opera, but still full of enough hilariously-anarchic routines to raise a smile on the face of the soberest of judges. In their next-to-last film as a team, Groucho, Chico and Harpo make life rough for some Nazi war criminals at a North African hotel. Directed by Archie Mayo. With The Marx Brothers, Lisette Verea, Charles Drake, Sig Ruman. (NR) DISNEY EAST (G1,4) length: 1 hour 30 minutes.

10:00E 9:00C 8:00M 7:00P
GALWAY PLAYS MANCINI
James Galway and his magic flute perform Henry Mancini's most memorable compositions. Featuring the National Philharmonic Orchestra, led by Mancini himself, this superb concert features orchestral renditions of "Pink Panther," "Days of Wine and Roses" and "Moon River." BRAVO (F4,2) length: 1 hour.

MISS TEEN U.S.A.
Fifty of the most beautiful young women in the United States compete for the coveted title in this annual pageant. CBS (T1,2) length: 2 hours.

MOVIE: DAS BOOT
(1981) Hope and fear wax and wane at depth charge level in this soberingly-realistic, humanizing World War II drama. No contrived heroics here, only tense, riveting action in suffocatingly-close quarters as a German submarine works the cold waters of the North Atlantic. Jurgen Prochnow is excellent as the compassionate though duty-bound commander. The most expensive German movie ever made, it is meticulously crafted from cinematography to soundtrack. Directed by Wolfgang Petersen. With Jurgen Prochnow, Herbert Gronemeyer, Klaus Wennemann, Hubertas Bengsch. (R) THE MOVIE CHANNEL EAST (G1,10) length: 2 hours 35 minutes.

WEDNESDAY

MOVIE: I KNOW WHERE I'M GOING
(1945) Hiller is dazzling as a young lady who intends to marry for money, but winds up changing her mind when she is stranded in the Hebrides with a handsome naval officer. Charming folk tale-like amalgamation of romance, comedy and thrills. Written and directed by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger (Black Narcissus, The Red Shoes.) With Wendy Hiller, Roger Livesey, Pamela Brown, Nancy Price, Finlay Currie, John Laurie, George Carney, Walter Hudd, Petula Clark. BRAVO (F4,2) length: 1 hour 30 minutes.

MOVIE: THE SHINING
(1980) "Heeeeere's Johnny!" All work and no play makes Jack a maniacally-mischievous boy in this chilling adaptation of the Stephen King novel. Writer Nicholson, wife Duvall and their telepathic young son become caretakers during the off-season for a palatial mountain resort where evil oozes from every room and where daddy goes slowly berserk. Nicholson gives one of his great crazed performances, getting off lines that will have you howling and cringing at the same time; and more than a few of Kubrick's meticulously and eerily-staged scenes will haunt you long afterwards. Much better than the critical reception it received when first released. Directed by Stanley Kubrick. With Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall, Danny Lloyd, Scatman Crothers, Barry Nelson, Philip Stone. Some versions may be edited for television. (R) SHOWTIME EAST (G1,5) length: 2 hours 30 minutes.

by Herbert Ross. With Richard Dreyfuss, Marsha Mason, Quinn Cummings, Paul Benedict, Barbara Rhoades. (C-110 min) (Comedy-drama) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 9, 17; HTN: Jan. 15.

GOODBYE, MY FANCY ●● (1951) Congresswoman Crawford returns to her alma mater to receive an honorary degree. She rekindles her old romance with Young, but trouble's in the offing when her risque past is dredged up—including being expelled. Romantic fluff with a few comic touches provided mainly by Arden. With Joan Crawford, Robert Young, Frank Lovejoy, Eve Arden. (Comedy) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 22.

GRAY EAGLE ●● Red-and-White drama. With Ben Johnson, Iron Eyes Cody, Lana Wood, Jack Elam. (C-104 min) WOR: Jan. 14.

THE GREAT DAN PATCH ●● (1949) Horse racing yarn about the greatest trotter of all times, and the family who raised and raced him. With Dennis O'Keefe, Gail Russell. (BW-94 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 12, 15, 19.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS ●● (1974) Originally made as a musical adaptation of the Dickens classic, only to have the tunes taken out. The story of an orphan boy's adventurous encounter with an escape convict benefits from the fine British cast, but lacks the charm of either Oliver! or David Lean's 1946 version. With Michael York, Sarah Miles, James Mason, Robert Morley, Margaret Leighton, Anthony Quayle, Rachel Roberts, Joss Ackland, Heather Sears. (C-103 min) (Drama) (NR) DISNEY: Jan. 9.

THE GREEN GLOVE ●● Ford returns to Europe to look for some jewels he stashed away during World War II and becomes embroiled in a deadly game of murder. Fairly-absorbing thriller. Directed by Rudolph Mate. With Glenn Ford, Geraldine Brooks, Cedric Hardwicke, George Macready. (BW-88 min) (Thriller) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 13, 15, 16.

GULLIVER'S TRAVELS ●● (1939) Feature-length animated version of Jonathon Swift's classic by Disney rivals Dave and Max Fleischer of Betty Boop and Popeye fame. Weak script, but great animation. (BW-71 min) (Adventure) (NR) SPN: Jan. 17; NOSTALGIA: Jan. 11, 13.

VARIETY / MOVIE CHANNELS SUPERSTATIONS SUPERSTATIONS

some sophisticated sleuthing techniques to unmask the leader of an outlaw band. With Audie Murphy, Ben Cooper, De Forrest Kelly, Coleen Miller, John Hubbard. (Western) (NR) WGN: Jan. 10.

GUNFIGHT AT THE O.K. CORRAL ●●● (1957) Wyatt Earp (Lancaster) and consumptive Doc Holliday (Douglas) team up to buy the Clanton gang tickets to Boot Hill. Good characterizations in a big-budget, ambitiously-mounted shoot-out. Title song by Frankie Laine. Directed by John Sturges. With Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas, Jo Van Fleet, Rhonda Fleming, John Ireland, Earl Holliman, Martin Milner. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 12.

GUNG HO! ●● (1943) World War II Marines attack a Japanese-occupied Pacific island and trick the enemy into bombing their own stations (very clever.) Not a great war movie, but it has immediacy—it reflects its period, like a newspaper rushed to press. With Randolph Scott as the troop commander, and the easy, unforced Noah Beery, Jr., as a good-humored Marine. CBN: Jan. 13; SPN: Jan. 14.

GUNSMOKE ●● (1953) Gunslinger changes his ways, and goes to work for a law-abiding rancher. Typical Murphy vehicle, not to be confused with the long-running television series. With Audie Murphy, Susan Cabot, Paul Kelly, Jack Kelly. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 17.

GUYS AND DOLLS ●●● (1955) Brando can't sing and is miscast (as the critics were quick to point out), but this musical comedy inspired by Damon Runyon still has a lot of panache. A gambler gets involved with a Salvation Army girl while a floating crap game looks for temporary quarters. A colorful cast does a fine job with the Frank Loesser score including "Luck Be A Lady" and Kaye's great rendition of "Sit Down, You're Rocking The Boat." Directed by Joseph Mankiewicz. With Frank Sinatra, Marlon Brando, Jean Simmons, Stubby Kaye. (C-105 min) (Musical) (NR) CBN: Jan. 18.

HANOVER STREET ●● (1979) Conventional World War II romance between Ford, as a daring American soldier, and the lovely Down, as a married Britisher. Written and directed by Peter Hyams. With Harrison Ford, Lesley-Anne Down. (C-108 min) (Drama) (PG) KTVT: Jan. 20.

BUSINESS / NEWS SPECIALTY CHANNELS SPECIALTY CHANNELS

HANS BRINKER OR THE SILVER SKATES ●● (1962) Kid-pleasing drama as Dutch boy Brinker braves the ice to save his family from disaster. With Rony Seander, Carin Rossby, Erik Strandmark. (C-89 min) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 12, 15.

HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN ●●● (1952) Probably too sugary for mom and dad, but young ones still will enjoy this story of a cobbler and teller of fairy tales who falls in love with a prima ballerina. The Frank Loesser score includes "Thumbelina," "Inchworm" and "Ugly Duckling." With Danny Kaye, Farley Granger, Jeanmarie, Roland Petie, John Qualen. (C-120 min) (Family feature) (NR) AMC: Jan. 19.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ME ● (1981) Several preppies at a New England college are found murdered and Anderson, who recently had brain surgery, suspects that she may be the killer. A plethora of plot twists, but unfortunately they're all foreseeable. With Melissa Sue Anderson of Little House on the Prairie fame, Glenn Ford, Tracy Bregman, Sharon Acker. (R) HBO: Jan. 13, 18.

HARRY & SON ●● (1984) Newman and Benson compete to see who is the worst actor in this ill-conceived drama about the relationship between a widower who has just lost his job and his non-conformist, live it "one day at a time" son. Benson wins, but not by much. Co-written and directed by Paul Newman. With Paul Newman, Robby Benson, Joanne Woodward, Ellen Barkin, Wilford Brimley, Judith Ivey, Ossie Davis. (C-117 min) (Drama) (NR) SELEC TV: Jan. 18, 22.

HE COULDN'T TAKE IT ●● (1934) When the going got tough, this guy got up and went. Ho-hum comedy. With Ray Walker, Virginia Cherrill. ACTS: Jan. 9, 10.

HEADING FOR THE RIO GRANDE ● (1936) Sometimes a well-aimed bullet or two is the best solution to a particularly-difficult extradition problem. A western with Tex Ritter. (Western) (NR) THE NASHVILLE NETWORK: Jan. 16.

HERITAGE OF THE DESERT ●● (1939) Well-paced adaptation of the Zane Grey novel, as Woods plays an Eastern lawyer who owns a mine out West. When he decides to check on his property, he discovers that his manager is a crook. Rip-roaring climax. Directed by Lesley Selander. With Donald Woods, C. Henry Gordon, Sidney Toler,

SPECIALTY — VARIETY / RELIGIOUS — VARIETY / RELIGIOUS — SPANISH

Robert Barrat, Evelyn Venable, Russell Hayden. (BW-74 min) (Western) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 12, 16.

THE HIDEOUT ◆◆◆ (1948) A non-singing Howard Keel is pretty good in this British thriller about a young couple forced to conceal a "dangerous" escaped convict. Alternate title: The Small Voice. With Howard Keel, Valerie Hobson. CBN: Jan. 10.

HISTORY OF THE WORLD, PART 1 ◆ (1981) Comic genius Mel Brooks turns halfwit long enough to produce, direct, write and star in this MAD MAGAZINE-like a sage of humankind's evolution. On a laugh scale somewhere between Will Durant and Arnold Toynbee. Deliver us from the sequel. With Brooks, Dom DeLuise, Harvey Korman, Madeline Kahn, Cloris Leachman, Sid Caesar. (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 12, 17.

HOLLOW TRIUMPH ◆◆◆ (1948) Compelling suspenser as a killer poses as a doctor who looks just like him. Also known as The Scar. With Paul Henreid, Joan Bennett. (BW-83 min) (Mystery) (NR) A&E NETWORK: Jan. 11, 12.

HONEYSUCKLE ROSE ◆◆◆ (1980) Engaging, bittersweet film starring Nelson as a married country music singer who begins to stray when he takes to the road and becomes involved with a young member of his band. With art imitating life so closely, Willie slips into his role with amiable ease, and the music and Texas setting lend appealing atmosphere. With Willie Nelson, Dyan Cannon, Amy Irving, Slim Pickens, Charles Levin, Joey Floyd, Emmylou Harris. (C-119 min) (Drama) (PG) (Adult themes, language) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 18, 22, 26, 31.

THE HOODLUM PRIEST ◆◆◆ (1961) Powerhouse drama as Murray plays a Jesuit priest who befriends a young criminal and tries to help him go straight. Based on the true story of Father Charles Dismas Clark. Directed by Irvin Kershner. With Don Murray, Keir Dullea, Larry Gates, Cindi Wood. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 9.

THE HOOSIER SCHOOLBOY ◆◆ (1937) Diminutive kid gets an education Indiana-style. With Mickey Rooney, Anne Nagel. (BW-63 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 21.

HORROR HOTEL ◆◆ (1960) Fairly-intriguing horror thriller about a modern-day witches coven in Massachusetts. Also known as The City of the Dead. Directed by John Moxey. With Christopher Lee, Patricia Jessel, Dennis Lotis, Betta St. John, Venetia Stevenson. (BW-76 min) (Horror) (R) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 11, 16.

HOT DOG: THE MOVIE ● (1984) Promoted as "Porky's on skis." Need we say more? Directed by Peter Markle. With David Naughton, Shannon Tweed, Patrick Houser, Tracy N. Smith. (C-96 min) (Comedy) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 16, 21.

HOT MILLIONS ● ● ● (1968) While hubby Ustinov is swindling a fortune through a computer and phony companies, wife Maggie Smith is busy making a bundle on the stock market with his pocket change in this amusing wry British comedy. The supporting cast of jokesters also add their bit to the chuckles. With Peter Ustinov, Maggie Smith, Karl Malden, Bob Newhart, Robert Morley, Cesar Romero. (C-105 min) (Comedy) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 14.

HOT RESORT ● (1983 Porky's takes to the beach as a group of teenage boys with overcharged libidos pursue some sexy young ladies while working at an island hideaway. With Bronson Pinchot. (C-91 min) (Comedy) (R-Nudity, language, sexual situations) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 17, 25, 29.

HOTEL ● ● (1967) There's nothing "Grand" about this multi-but-shallow-layered account of the exploits of various characters at a New Orleans hotel. Should please the soap opera crowd, but no one else. Adapted by Wendell Mayes from the best-seller by Arthur Hailey. Directed by Richard Quine. With Rod Taylor, Catherine Spaak, Karl Malden, Melvyn Douglas, Richard Conte, Michael Rennie, Merle Oberon, Kevin McCarthy. (C-124 min) (PG-Adult themes) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 10.

HOW TO BEAT THE COST OF LIVING ● (1980) Greedy housewives turn hoodlums in this slow-witted comedy. With Susan Saint-James, Jessica Lange, Jane Curtin. (C-110 min) (Comedy) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 16.

HOW TO MARRY A MILLIONIARE ● ● ● (1953) Three golddigging models pool their resources to rent a lavish New York apartment and set out to trap millioniare bachelors. Though the plot is a tired one, the stars still sparkle. The first comedy done in CinemaScope. Directed by Jean Negulesco. With Marilyn Monroe, Lauren Bacall, Betty Grable, William Powell. (Comedy) (NR) WPIX: Jan. 22.

HUMAN GORILLA ● (1938) Missing link. With Richard Carlson. (BW-60 min) (Sci-fi) (NR) SPN: Jan. 15.

HURRICANE AT PILGRIM HILL ●● (1947) Amusing comedy-drama. With Cecil Kellaway, Clem Bevans. (Comedy-drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 14.

I DIED A THOUSAND TIMES ●● (1955) Overplayed remake of High Sierra with little of the mythic dimension or poetry of the original. Palance reprises Bogart's role as a gangster who goes soft for a young, club-footed girl and winds up rejected and cornered by police on a lonely mountain top. With Jack Palance, Shelley Winters, Lori Nelson, Lee Marvin, Lon Chaney Jr., Gonzales Gonzales, Earl Holliman. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 21.

I DREAM OF JEANNIE ●● (1952) With the light brown hair. Low-budget bio of nineteenth-century American composer Stephen Foster. Chock full of his tunes. With Ray Middleton, Bill Shirley. (C-90 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 17.

I KNOW WHERE I'M GOING ●●●● (1945) Hiller is dazzling as a young lady who intends to marry for money, but winds up changing her mind when she is stranded in the Hebrides with a handsome Naval officer. Charming folk tale amalgam of romance, comedy and thrills. Written and directed by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger (The Red Shoes, Black Narcissus.) With Wendy Hiller, Roger Livesey, Pamela Brown, Nancy Price, Finlay Currie, John Laurie, George Carney, Walter Hudd, Petule Clark. (BW-91 min) (Drama) BRAVO: Jan. 12, 22, 27.

I KNOW WHY THE CAGED BIRD SINGS ●●● (1979) Touching and well-acted drama based on Maya Angelou's novel about her childhood experiences growing up black in the South during the Depression. Good, as the young Maya, and Rolle, as the grandmother who raises her, give fine performances among the talented cast. With Diahann Carroll, Ruby Dee, Esther Rolle, Paul Benjamin, Constance Good, Madge Sinclair. (C-96 min) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 14, 20, 24, 29.

thmatic, Jewish-mother-dominated Los Angeles lawyer who turns on and drops into the "Love Generation"—leaving his overbearing fiancee standing at the altar, twice—when he falls for flower child Taylor-Grant. Great characterizations, and a genuinely-funny, satirical time capsule from the sixties. Written by Paul Mazursky. Directed by Hy Averback. With Peter Sellers, Leigh Taylor-Grant, Jo Va n Fleet, Joyce Van Patten, David Arkin, Herb Edelman. (C-93 min) (Comedy) (NR) AMC: Jan. 21.

I SAW WHAT YOU DID ●●● (1965) Two teenage babysitters wile away the time making crank calls. Unfortunately for their health, they happen to ring up John Ireland and recite the movie's title to him, just after the maniac has killed his wife. A scary little shocker directed by William Castle. With Joan Crawford, John Ireland, Leif Erickson, Sara Lane, Andi Garrett. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 17.

I WALK THE LINE ●●● (1970) Weld delivers her usual first-rate performance as a moonshiner's daughter who leads sheriff Peck to ruin. Some great Johnny Cash songs, including the title tune. Directed by John Frankenheimer. With Gregory Peck, Tuesday Weld, Estelle Parsons, Ralph Meeker. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 15.

I'VE LIVED BEFORE ●● (1956) Low-budget film that plays around with the idea of reincarnation. The screen's thirteenth Tarzan (Mahoney) plays an aviator who has the funny feeling he's been in a cockpit before. Or was that on a vine? With Jock Mahoney, Ann Harding, John McIntire. (BW-82 min) (Drama) (NR) WOR: Jan. 11.

THE ICE PIRATES ● (1984) A comic Dune for doofus-heads as Urich, Crosby and a band of thirsty swashbucklers attempt to overthrow an evil, Arctic-like empire, which possesses the last known source of fresh water in the universe. Directed by Stuart Raffill. With Robert Urich, Mary Crosby, Anjelica Huston, John Matuszak, John Carradine, Ron Perlman. (C-94 min) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 26; CINEMAX: Jan. 9, 14, 20.

IDAHO (1942) Guns and guitars. With Roy Rogers. (Western) (NR) SPN: Jan. 10.

IF YOU KNEW SUSIE ●●(1948) Pop-eyed Eddie Cantor and Joan Davis team up again as a vaudeville couple who jaunt off to New England to retire on the seven billion dollars they're going to collect from the government. Harmless song and dance comedy. With Eddie Cantor, Joan Davis, Allyn Joslyn, Bobby Driscoll, Charles Dingle. (BW-90 min) (Comedy) (NR) AMC: Jan. 15.

THE ILLUSTRATED MAN ●●● (1969) Moody, atmospheric fantasy splicing together three Ray Bradbury stories that come to life through the tatoos covering a drifter from head to toe. Well-acted by husband-wife team Steiger and Bloom, who were divorced shortly after, and much better than the poor critical response it received when first released. With Rod Steiger, Claire Bloom, Robert Drivas, Jason Evers, Don Dubbins, Tom Weldon. (C-103 min) (Fantasy) WGN: Jan. 15.

IMITATION OF LIFE ●●●● (1959) The last film from the master of melodrama, Douglas Sirk. A three-hanky remake of Fanny Hurst's story, with Turner a young widowed actress and mother who shares her life with her black housekeeper, whose daughter passes for white with tragic consequences. What minor problems the acting and plot present are transcended by the lavishness and fluid movement of Sirkian style. Directed by Douglas Sirk. With Lana Turner, Juanita Moore, John Gavin, Susan Kohner, Sandra Dee, Dan O'Herlihy, Robert Alda. (Romance-drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 12.

IN OLD CALIENTE ●● (1939) The temperature rises as Roy romances Cecil B. De Mille's real-life daughter during his pre-Dale days. With Roy Rogers, Katherine De Mille, Gabby Hayes, Frank Puglia. (Western) (NR) NASHVILLE: Jan. 18.

IN OLD MONTANA ●● (1939) Dated western featuring "The Silvery-Voiced Buckaroo." With Fred Scott. (Western) (NR) NASHVILLE: Jan. 17.

IN OLD SACRAMENTO ●● (1946) Action-packed western with Elliott playing Spanish Jack, a mask-wearing casanova who just happens to be mighty quick on the draw. Also known as Flame of Sacramento. Directed by Joseph Kane. With Wiliam Elliott, Constance Moore, Hank Daniels, Eugene Pallette, Jack LaRue, Hal Taliaferro (Wally Wales.) (BW-89 min) (Western) (NR) CBN: Jan. 12.

THE IN-LAWS ●●● (1979) Falk and Arkin turn on the laughs in this zany comedy about a timid dentist and a shady CIA operative who meet because of their children's upcoming wedding, and then end up in a tangled predicament south of the border. Directed by Arthur Hiller. With Peter Falk, Alan Arkin, Richard Libertini, Penny Peyser, Nancy Dussault, Michael Lembeck. (C-103 min) (Comedy) (PG) HTN: Jan. 18, 23, 28; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 12, 17, 21, 25, 27, 30.

THE INCREDIBLE SHRINKING WOMAN ●● (1981) Hazardous household products and food additives are responsible for shrinking Lily down to pint-size in this mildly- funny and satiric comedy. She gets good support from Grodin as her consternated ad-man husband, and the monkeyshines of Rick Baker as the first attracts the attention of the media and then falls into the hands of mad scientists. With Lily Tomlin, Charles Grodin, Henry Gibson, Rick Baker. (C-88 min) (Comedy) (PG) HTN: Jan. 12, 20, 26.

THE INFORMER ●●●● (1935) "Now I want you to drink to him, to King Gypo, as brave as a lion and as strong as a bull. I'd go through fire and water for him—and he'd do the same for me..." Liam O'Flaherty's tragic story of deceit and betrayal during the Irish Rebellion with an Oscar-winning performance by McLaglen as the greedy, slow-witted stoolie who delivers his best friend and IRA leader into the hands of the British. A brilliant combination of character study and impressionistic mise en scene. Additional Oscars for Dudley Nichols' screenplay, Max Steiner's musical score and John Ford's direction. With Victor McLaglen, Heather Angel, Preston Foster, Wallace Ford, Margot Grahame, Una O'Connor. (BW-91 min) (Drama) (PG) AMC: Jan. 18.

INTO THE NIGHT ● (1985) A confused yawner that's more likely to drive you "into the night" and far, far away from your TV set. Pfeiffer is pretty and a good actress to boot, but she can't save this comic-thriller about an everyday guy (Goldblum) who leaves his unfaithful wife only to find himself embroiled in a deadly game of international intrigue. Directed by John Landis. With Jeff Goldblum, Michelle Pfeiffer, Dan Aykroyd, Richard Farnsworth, Irene Papas, Kathryn Harrold, Clu Gulager, David Bowie, Roger Vadim, John Landis. (C-115 min) (Comedy-thriller) (R-Violence, adult themes, language) SHOWTIME: Jan. 16, 20, 24; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 9, 13, 18, 22.

JIMINY CRICKET: STORYTELLER ●●● (1985) The famed cricket introduces a series of animated adaptations of classics ranging from Aesop to Hans Christian Andersen. Fun-filled Disney movie. (C-90 min) (Family feature) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 9, 11, 14, 18, 20, 22, 26, 29.

THE JOE LOUIS STORY ●● (1953) Unexciting biography of "The Brown Bomber." With Coley Wallace, Paul Stewart, Hilda Simms. (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 16.

JOHNNY DANGEROUSLY ● (1985) More like Johnny Dumb. A mindless gangster spoof with Keaton playing a criminal entrepreneur—sort of a cross between Scarface and Lee Iacocca—who tries to turn his gang into a smooth-running corporation. He even offers a dental plan. A good idea, but the movie plays like an extended, and, for the most part, yuckless, post-Belushi-and-Aykroyd Saturday Night Live skit. Directed by Amy Heckerling (Fast Times at Ridgemont High.) With Michael Keaton, Joe Piscopo, Marilu Henner, Maureen Stapleton, Griffin Dunne, Glynnis O'Connor, Danny DeVito. (C-90 min) (PG-13-Strong language, adult themes) SELEC TV: Jan. 18, 23.

JOHNNY ROCCO ●● (1958) Hoods try to rub out the son of a gangster because he witnessed a

JUST THE WAY YOU ARE ●● (1984) Insipid pop psychology drama as McNichol plays a handicapped flautist who learns the meaning of life from a handsome photographer. I may be ok, and you may be ok, but this movie isn't. With Kristy McNichol, Michael Ontkean. (C-95 min) (PG-Adult themes, strong language) SHOWTIME: Jan. 10.

JUSTICE OF THE WEST ●● (1955) The masked man straightens out a few lawbreakers in this Lone Ranger entry. With Clayton Moore, Jay Silverheels. (Western) CBN: Jan. 11.

KAGEMUSHA ●●●● (1980) Sentenced to die, a sixteenth-century Japanese thief is spared provided he poses as a secretly-deceased warlord. Magnificent, color-rich, action-filled spectacle directed by Akira Kurosawa (The Seven Samurai.) With Tatsuya Nakadai, Tsutomo Yamazaki, Kenichi Hagiwara, Jinpachi Nezu, Shuji Oataki. (C-161 min) (Epic) (PG) BRAVO: Jan. 10, 18, 28 (subtitled.)

KANSAS CITY CONFIDENTIAL ●●● (1952) Hard-hitting crime drama with Payne an ex-con falsely accused of a robbery, out to get the real crooks. Directed by Phil. Karlson. With John Payne, Preston Foster, Coleen Gray, Neville Brand. (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 19.

KANSAS PACIFIC ●● (1953) Hayden tries to build the railroad of the title, despite some pretty heavy resistance from Confederate sympathizers, in this solid westerner set just before the outbreak of the Civil War. Directed by Ray Nazarro. With Sterling Hayden, Eve Miller, Barton MacLane, Douglas Fowley, Myron Healey, Clayton Moore. (C-73 min) (Western) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 16, 19.

KELLY ●● (1981) An unhappy city girl runs away from her mother to live with her father in the Alaskan bush. Not too convincing. Script by Robert Wilderness Family Logan. Directed by Christopher Chapman. With Robert Logan, George Clutesi, Twyla-Dawn Vokins, Elaine Nalee, Doug Lennox. (C-94 min) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 13, 15, 19, 31.

KGOD ●● (1980) Ok satire as a near-bankrupt TV station turns its ratings around when it changes to an all-religious format. With Dabney Coleman, Paul Reubens (a.k.a. Pee-wee Herman.) (Comedy) (PG) HBO: Jan. 10, 16, 22.

violent French thriller as a pimp and his prostitute get caught in the crossfire between the cops and the mob. Baye is a knockout as the streetwalker. Winner of numerous French Cesar Awards, including Best Picture. Co-written and directed by Bob Swaim. With Philippe Leotard, Nathalie Baye, Richard Berry, Maurice Ronet, Christophe Malavoy, Jean-Paul Connart. (C-92 min) (Thriller) (R) BRAVO: Jan. 11, 20.

LA CAGE AUX FOLLES ●●●● Hilarious, incredibly-successful French comedy about a pair of homosexuals who live together. The butch half (Tognazzi) owns a cabaret poetically called "La Cage Aux Folles." His partner also is the star of his nightclub's revue—an utterly-outrageous, excessively-emotional transvestite, winningly played by Serrault. The plot revolves around the two pretending not to be gay so they won't spoil Tognazzi's son's chances to marry the daughter of a bigwig. Full of slapstick and the silliest moments this side of a Jerry Lewis movie, it's nevertheless one of those films you'll want to see again and again. Watch for Benny Luke as their black manservant Jacob. He nearly steals the show. Spawned an inferior 1980 sequel. Directed by Edouard Molinaro. With Ugo Tognazzi. (C-93 min) (Musical) (NR) BRAVO: Jan. 11, 21.

LA CAGE AUX FOLLES II ●● (1980) Tognazzi and Serrault repeat their roles in this modest sequel. This time the French nightclub owner and his female-impersonator lover get mixed up with a spy ring. With Ugo Tognazzi, Michel Serrault. (C-100 min) (Musical) (R) BRAVO: Jan. 12, 21.

LADYBUG, LADYBUG ●●● (1963) Seldom-seen paranoia film about a town that imagines itself to be under nuclear attack. Based on a true incident that occurred during the Cuban missile crisis. Written by Eleanor Perry. Directed by Frank Perry (David and Lisa, Last Summer, Diary of a Mad Housewife.) With William Daniels, Nancy Marchand. (C-122 min) (Drama) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 16, 20, 25.

LAMP AT MIDNIGHT ●●● Early TV drama starring Melvyn Douglas as the seventeenth-century astronomer Galileo. With David Wayne, Kim Hunter. (C-76 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 9.

LASSITER ●● (1984) Lightweight thriller as TV hunk Selleck portrays a jewel thief who spies for the Allied forces in World War II London. Seymour and Hutton lend lovely support, but the real standout in the cast is Hoskins. With Tom Selleck, Jane Seymour, Lauren Hutton, Bob Hoskins. (C-100 min) (Suspense-Drama) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 15, 20, 28; THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 14, 23, 26, 31; HBO: Jan. 13.

THE LAST AMERICAN VIRGIN ●● (1982) An OK film about growing up, with a soundtrack that includes hits by the Cars and the Police. (C-93 min) (Drama) (R) HBO: Jan. 13, 18.

THE LAST CONVERTIBLE ●● (1980) Five Harvard roomates fall in love with a beautiful and spirited Radcliffe student and compete for her affections until called to duty in World War II. Competent adaptation of the Anton Myrer best-seller. With Perry King, Bruce Boxleitner, Deborah Raffin, John Shea, Sharon Gless. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Part II: Jan. 9; Part III: Jan. 10.

LAST NIGHT AT THE ALAMO ●●●● (1983) Unforgettable, black-and-white independent feature about a group of Texas good ole boys who get together one night to try to prevent their favorite watering hole, suggestively named the Alamo, from being destroyed the next morning by a progress-minded wrecking crew. Both boisterously funny and genuinely moving, this character rich slice-of-life tells us more about the way we live than a thousand, big-budget Hollywood flicks. Directed by Eagle Pennell. With Sonny Carl Davis, Louis Perryman, Steven Matilla. (C-83 min) (Comedy) (NR) BRAVO: Jan. 14.

THE LAST SHOT YOU HEAR ● (1969) Marriage counselor Marlowe has difficulty accepting the fact that his wife has taken a lover in this predictable, British-made soaper. Directed by Gordon Hessler. With Hugh Marlowe, Zena Walker, Patricia Haines, William Dysart, Thorley Walters. (C-95 min) (Drama) (NR) WOR: Jan. 11.

THE LAST STARFIGHTER ●●● (1984) A fun-filled, heartwarming sci-fi adventure as Guest plays a teen video game whiz recruited by some interplanetary good guys to lead them in a last-ditch battle against a gang of villains intent on taking over the universe. Marvelous performances by Preston as the extraterrestrial huckster responsible for enlisting Guest and O'Herlihy as the young man's saurian ally. Directed by Nick Castle. With Lance

Guest, Robert Preston, Dan O'Herlihy, Barbara Bosson, Catherine Mary Stewart, Norman Snow. (C-100 min) (PG-Strong language) CINEMAX: Jan. 9.

THE LAST TIME I SAW PARIS ●● (1954) Ornate MGM adaptation of F. Scott Fitzgerald's "Babylon Revisited." Directed by Richard Brooks. With Elizabeth Taylor, Van Johnson, Donna Reed. HBO: Jan. 17, 22.

THE LAST VALLEY ●● (1971) Confused account of a band of mercenaries who, in 1641, stumble upon a peaceful valley that has somehow escaped the turmoil of the Thirty Years War. Written and directed by James Clavell (King Rat, Shogun.) With Michael Caine, Omar Sharif, Florinda Bolkan, Nigel Davenport, Per Oscarsson, Arthur O'Connell. (Adventure) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 16.

LAW OF THE JUNGLE ● (1942) A weak Darwinian drama about a jungle-based Nazi spy ring. With John King, Arline Judge. (61 min) (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 15.

LAW OF THE UNDERWORLD ●● (1938) Don't rat on nobody. A crime drama with Chester Morris, Anne Shirley. (BW-61 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 16, 22.

THE LAWLESS RANGE ●● (1935) Low-budget oater as Wayne foils the plans of a crooked banker. Written by Lindsley Parsons, Directed by Robert N. Bradbury. With John Wayne, Sheila Mannors, Earl Dwire, Frank McGlynn, Jr., Jack Curtis, Yakima Canutt. (BW-59 min) (Western) ACTS: Jan. 10.

LE BAL ●●●● (1983) An unusual, but rewarding cinematic journey. Without using a single word of spoken dialogue, Director Ettore Scola creates a fascinating allegory of contemporary French history. His method? A series of scenes that showcase the various dances that were popular during each generation. Full of wit, passion, and insight, this is definitely a movie you don't want to miss. Nominated for an Oscar as Best Foreign Film. Winner of France's Cesar Award as Best Picture of the Year. (C-104 min) (NR) BRAVO: Jan. 9, 17, 29.

SPORTS / VARIETY CANADIAN THE NETWORKS THE NETWORKS

NEL: Jan. 20, 23.

LEAVE 'EM LAUGHING ●●● (1981) Rooney excels as a terminally-ill clown who spends his last days caring for and entertaining teenaged runaways and delinquents. Heartwarming made-for-TV drama. Directed by Jackie Cooper. With Mickey Rooney, Anne Jackson, Red Buttons, Allen Goorwitz, Elish Cook, William Windom, Michael Le Clair. (C-104 min) CINEMAX: Jan. 12, 16.

THE LEGEND OF FRENCHIE KING ● (1971) Bardot and company play female outlaws in nineteenth-century New Mexico. This French-Spanish-Italian-British production argues strongly against the success of the European Common Market. With Brigitte Bardot, Claudia Cardinale, Michael J. Pollard. LIFETIME: Jan. 14, 21.

THE LEOPARD ●●●● (1963) Colorful, grandiose, highly-stylized epic as a Sicilian prince (Lancaster) and his handsome nephew (Delon) cope with the political upheaval in Italy during the mid-nineteenth century. Beautiful to look at. Based on the classic Italian novel by Guiseppe Tomasi de Lampedusa. Directed by Luchino Visconti. With Burt Lancaster, Alain Delon, Claudia Cardinale, Rina Morelli, Paolo Stoppa. (C-195 min) (Epic) (PG) BRAVO: Jan. 12, 20, 31 (subtitled.)

LET US LIVE ●● (1939) The fiancee of a man condemned to die for a murder he didn't commit tries to clear him. Well-acted, if overwrought social message drama. Directed by John Brahm. With Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry Fonda, Ralph Bellamy. (BW-68 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 9, 19.

LET'S DO IT AGAIN ●●● (1975) Hilarious sequel to Uptown Saturday Night as Poitier and Cosby again are trying to raise money for strictly-humanitarian purposes. In this one, Poitier uses hypnotism to transform a gawky boxer into a champ. Walker practically steals the show as the pug. Directed by Sidney Poitier. With Sidney Poitier, Bill Cosby, Jimmie Walker, Calvin Lockhart, Ossie Davis, John Amos, Denise Nicholas, George Foreman. WPIX: Jan. 17.

LET'S GO COLLEGIATE ● Pint-sized Darro dons a beanie. With Frankie Darro. (62 min) SPN: Jan. 17.

LET'S SPEND THE NIGHT TOGETHER ●● (1983) Concert film of the Rolling Stones' 1981 North American tour. Mind-blowing footage of the world's oldest looking rock-and-roll band. The boys have come a long way since Ed Sullivan forced them to sing "Let's Spend Some Time Together" instead of the more suggestive words that constitute the title of this Hal Ashby-directed movie. With Mick, Keith and the rest of the Stones. (PG) HBO: Jan. 16, 21.

THE LIFE AND DEATH OF COLONEL BLIMP ●●●● (1943) A warm and sentimental portrait of an old-fashion, blustery British officer who finds the Empire in decline and himself out of step with the times at the beginning of World War II. Told in flashback, the story follows his career during the course of three wars, and the affairs with three different women he loves and loses, all superbly played by Kerr. Written and directed by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger. With Roger Livesey, Anton Walbrook, Deborah Kerr, Roland Culver, James McKechine. (C-163 min, though some prints have been heavily edited) (Drama) (NR) BRAVO: Jan. 13, 22, 26.

LIFE GOES TO WAR ●● (1977) Johnny Carson narrates this documentary that looks back on how Americans, from factory workers to movie stars, kept the home fires burning during World War II. (C-100 min) (Documentary) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 17.

LIGHTNING STRIKES TWICE ●● (1951) A man wrongly accused of murdering his wife tries to clear himself with some help from a lover who begins to doubt his innocence. Familiar territory but engagingly acted. With Richard Todd, Ruth Roman, Mercedes McCambridge, Zachary Scott, Frank Conroy. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 13.

A LIKELY STORY ●● (1947) A man who thinks he's about to die turns to a life of crime in this fairly-funny comedy. Directed by H.C. Potter. With Bill Williams, Barbara Hale. (BW-89 min) (Comedy) AMC: Jan. 21.

THE LION IN WINTER ●●●● (1968) A brilliant showcase for two great talents in a rousing adaptation of James Goldman's Broadway play. As Henry II and his estranged wife, Eleanor of Aquitane, O'Toole and Hepburn spend Christmas at Chinon Castle snarling and snapping at each other while Henry decides on a successor to the English throne. Goldman's script and Kate's feisty performance won Academy Awards. (Hepburn was a co-winner, sharing the honor with Barbra Streisand for her role in Funny Girl.) Directed by Anthony Harvey. With Katharine Hepburn, Peter O'Toole, Jane Merrow, John Castle, Anthony Hopkins, Timothy Dalton, Nigel Terry. (C-134 min) (Drama) WPIX: Jan. 11.

LIONS FOR BREAKFAST ●● (1976) Two brothers and an old drifter team up to find a better life in the country. (C-97 min) (Comedy) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 10.

THE LIQUIDATOR ●● (1966) An ex-war hero, with a distaste for violence, discovers he's been recruited as an assassin for British Intelligence in this light, lively, but unimaginative spoof of the James Bond adventures. With Rod Taylor, Trevor Howard, Jill St. John, Wilfred Hyde-White, Akim Tamiroff, David Tomlinson. (C-104 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 22.

LITTLE DARLINGS ●●● (1980) Amusing, well-acted comedy as McNichol and O'Neal try to make good on a wager regarding who will lose her virginity first. Dillon is great as the young, slow-witted hunk Kristy sets her eyes on. With Kristy McNichol, Tatum O'Neal, Matt Dillon, Armand Assante. (Comedy-drama) (R) USA: Jan. 21.

THE LITTLE DRUMMER GIRL ●●● (1984) Confused, but engrossing adaptation of John Le Carre's thriller, with Keaton as an actress recruited by the Israelis to infiltrate a Palestinian terrorist group. Directed by George Roy Hill. With Diane Keaton, Klaus Kinski, Yorgo Voyagis. (C-130 min) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 13.

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY ●●● (1936) In spite of David Copperfield and Captains Courageous, probably Freddie Bartholomew's most memorable role. A rather-sissified American boy living with his widowed mother discovers he's a British lord and heir to his cantankerous grandfather's estate. A finely- casted and charming adaptation of Francis Hodgson Burnett's children's classic that will delight young and old alike. Interestingly, in the 1921 version, silent screen darling Mary Pickford played double roles as both Cedric and his mother. Directed by John Cromwell. With Freddie Batholomew, Dolores Costello, C. Aubrey Smith, Mickey Rooney. (BW-98 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 17, 19, 20; A&E NETWORK: Jan. 20, 21; NICKELODEON: Jan. 21.

authorities when he uses magic to undo a bad grade he received. Moral tale for the kiddies. (C-65 min) (Drama) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 13, 19.

LITTLE MEN ●● (1940) A grown-up, married Jo March supervises a school for boys. Based on Louisa May Alcott's sequel to her classic Little Women, this movie should please children of all ages. With Kay Francis, Jack Oakie, George Bancroft. SPN: Jan. 11.

THE LITTLE PRINCE ●● (1974) This Lerner and Loewe musical based on Antoine de Saint-Exupery's children's classic and directed by Stanley Donen should have been a delight. Unfortunately, it never really gets off the ground. Still, this tale of a tiny visitor from a faraway asteroid should please the kids; and if you want to see dancing at its best, you'll tune in during Bob Fosse's "Snake in the Grass" number. With Richard Kiley, Steven Warner, Gene Wilder, Victor Spinetti. (C-88 min) (Musical) (G) SELEC TV: Jan. 16.

THE LITTLE PRINCESS ●●● (1939) One of the best of the Shirley Temples. Shirley plays a little rich girl who loses her father in the Boer War and is forced into a home for Victorian waifs. Based on the Frances Hodgson Burnett book, this one is sentimental yes, but also at times genuinely moving. With Shirley Temple, Arthur Treacher, Ian Hunter, Cesar Romero. SPN: Jan. 9; A&E NETWORK: Jan. 20, 21.

A LITTLE SEX ● (1982) This is supposed to be a comedy, so how about a little humor, too? Television talents made this piffle about a television director who's cheerfully, insistently adulterous. The movie pussyfoots around as much as he does. With Tim Matheson, Kate Capshaw. (C-95 min) (Comedy) (NR) WPIX: Jan. 11.

THE LONELINESS OF THE LONG DISTANCE RUNNER ●●●● (1962) Courtenay is unforgettable as an "angry young man" chosen to represent his reformatory in a distance race. As he trains, he reflects upon his depressing life. Powerful indictment of Britain's class society. Adapted by Alan Sillitoe from his own story. Directed by Tony Richardson. With Tom Courtenay, Michael Redgrave. (BW-103 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 12.

THE LONELY GUY ●● (1984) Martin plays a bachelor who can't seem to make it in the singles scene until he writes a bestseller about his lack of success. Then, all of a sudden, he's beseiged by amorous offers from every woman he meets. A trivial comedy for those who find fern bars quaint. Directed by Arthur Hiller. With Steve Martin, Charles Grodin, Judith Ivey, Steve Lawrence. (C-99 min) (R) HBO: Jan. 9, 15.

THE LOONEY, LOONEY, LOONEY BUGS BUNNY MOVIE ●●●● Wild, wacky collection of cartoon shorts featuring Bugs and his pals as they make a mockery of all that Reason holds dear. With Bugs Bunny, Elmer Fudd, Daffy Duck, Yosemite Sam and others. (G) HBO: Jan. 19.

LOST AND FOUND ●● (1979) Occasionally-entertaining romantic comedy designed to capitalize on the success of A Touch of Class, which also featured the same stars. In this one, he's a widowed college prof, and she's a divorcee. With George Segal, Glenda Jackson, Paul Sorvino, Maureen Stapleton. (PG) CINEMAX: Jan. 17, 22.

LOST IN THE STRATOSPHERE ●● (1934) Up, up and away. Old-fashioned comedy-drama as two officers, both in love with the same woman, find themselves ensconced together in a high-flying experimental balloon. With William Cagney, Eddie Nugent, June Collyer. (BW-66 min) (Comedy-drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 22.

THE LOST JUNGLE ●● (1934) Spliced-together feature of a popular serial about crash survivors making their way through a wild jungle. With Clyde Beatty, Cecilia Parker. (BW-69 min) (Adventure) (NR) SPN: Jan. 21.

THE LOST SQUADRON ●●● (1932) Enjoyable, if somewhat dated, seriocomedy about some World War I flyboys who get hired by a Hollywood studio as stunt pilots. Von Stroheim, as you might expect, steals the picture as a ruthless film director who cares nothing for human safety. Written by Herman J. Mankiewicz and Wallace Smith. Directed by Goerge Archinbaud. With Richard Dix, Mary Astor, Erich Von Stroheim, Joel McCrea, Dorothy Jordan, Hugh Herbert, Robert Armstrong. (BW-72 min) (Comedy) (NR) AMC: Jan. 18.

LOVE HAPPY ●● (1950) The Marx Brothers make their last appearance as a team in this choppy comedy. Harpo carries most of the load as the brothers play a group of hard-pressed actors who find themselves in possession of the Romanov diamonds. Overall a pretty-fragmented farce, but the old magic shows up once or twice. Marilyn Monroe plays a bit part. With Groucho, Harpo, Chico, Eric Blore, Ilona Massey. (Comedy) (NR) CBN: Jan. 14.

THE LOVE LOTTERY ●● (1953) Mildly-amusing comedy as Niven plays a famous star who is offered as the top prize in a lottery. Directed by Charles Crichton. With David Niven, Peggy Cummins, Anne Vernon, Herbert Lom, Hugh McDermott, and a cameo by Humphrey Bogart. (C-89 min) (Comedy) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 12, 14, 16, 18, 23, 27, 29.

LOVELINES ●● They have trouble making connections in this garish soaper based on the popular novel. (C-92 min) (NR) CINEMAX: Jan. 18.

THE LUSTY MEN ●●● (1952) Forceful performances and gritty atmosphere make this a solid drama about a cowboy whose ego jeopardizes marriage and friendship when he becomes a rodeo star. Directed by Nicholas Ray. With Arthur Kennedy, Robert Mitchum, Susan Hayward, Arthur Hunnicutt. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 13.

MACAO ●●● (1952) Middling story makes it on the strength of its stars. Mitchum romances Russell in his inimitable take-it-or-leave-it style, and helps police capture a gangster wanted in the United States along the way. With Robert Mitchum, Jane Russell, Gloria Grahame, William Bendix. (BW-80 min) (Mystery) (NR) AMC: Jan. 13, 25.

MADAME X ●● (1966) Lush, but wooden remake of the old chestnut about the lawyer who defends a woman for murder, unaware that she is his mother. Give it three handkerchiefs on the tearjerker scale. With Lana Turner, John Forsythe, Ricardo Montalban and Constance Bennett in her last film. (Drama) (NR) WPIX: Jan. 12.

THE MAGNIFICENT ROGUE ●● (1946) Tale of a rapscallion with a heart of gold. With Lynn Roberts, Warren Douglas. CBN: Jan. 22.

MAN ALIVE ●● (1945) A supposedly-dead O'Brien pretends to be a ghost to scare away his wife's new lover in this bright comedy. Directed by Ray Enright. With Pat O'Brien, Ellen Drew, Adolphe Menjou, Rudy Vallee, Jason Robards, Sr., Fortunio Bonanova, Minna Gombell, Jonathan Hale, Joseph Crehan. (BW-70 min) (Comedy) AMC: Jan. 14, 25.

MAN FROM FRISCO ● (1944) Tale of a "Golden Gater." With Michael O'Shea, Dan Duryea. CBN:

an international assassination plot when their child is kidnapped by the would-be killers in an attempt to ensure their silence. Stewart and Day are perfect as the quintessential American husband and wife, and the climactic sequence at Albert Hall is even more tense than in the original. Features the Academy Award-winning song, "Que Sera Sera," written by Jay Livingston and Ray Evans. Music by Bernard Herrmann. Photography by Robert Burks. Written by John Michael Hayes and Angus MacPhail. Directed by Alfred Hitchcock. With James Stewart, Doris Day, Bernard Miles, Brenda de Banzie, Daniel Gelin, Ralph Truman, Mogens Wieth, Alan Mowbray, Hillary Brooke. MASSACRE RIVER ● (1949) In this weak western, Madison and Calhoun are two calvary officers who fall in love with the same woman and still find time to deal with Indians on the warpath. With Guy Madison, Rory Calhoun, Carole Mathews, Steve Brodie, Cathy Downs, Johnny Sands. (BW-75 min) WGN: Jan. 18.

MCCABE AND MRS. MILLER ●●●● (1971) Altman's decidedly-offbeat western set in the Northwest at the turn of the century. Beatty plays a small-time gambler turned capitalist who, with Christie's help, establishes a bordello-gaming house in a frontier mining town and then must deal with a larger business concern looking to take him over. The brilliant cinematography by Vilmos Zsigmond, the music by Leonard Cohen and the rather somber, low-key performances make the mood of this film as expressive as the plot. Directed by Robert Altman. With Warren Beatty, Julie Christie, Rene Auberjonois, Shelley Duvall, Keith Carradine, Hugh Millais, Michael Murphy. (C-107 min) (Western) (R) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 16, 20, 24, 29.

MEET DR. CHRISTIAN ●● (1939) Hersholt plays a folksy Marcus Welby in this first entry in the long-running series. Directed by Bernard Vorhaus. With Jean Hersholt, Dorothy Lovett, Robert Baldwin, Enid Bennett, Paul Harvey, Marcia Mae Jones, Jackie Moran. (BW-63 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 11, 14, 18, 22.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, MR. LAWRENCE ●●● (1983) Bowie and Conti star as two World World II P.O.W.s held captive by the Japanese in this startling, provocative film about the lengths at which men will go to survive. Directed by Nagisa Oshima (In the Realm of the Senses.) With David Bowie, Tom Conti. (C-124 min) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 13.

METALSTORM: THE DESTRUCTION OF JARED SYN ● (1984) Bombastic sci-fi tripe as an intergalactic lawman tries to prevent a dastardly villain from destroying the universe. With Jeffrey Byron, Mike Preston. (C-83 mins) (Sci-fi) (PG) HTN: Jan. 11, 14, 20, 24, 30; HBO: Jan. 11, 16, 20.

MICKI AND MAUDE ●● (1984) Uneven farce as Moore gets his wife and mistress pregnant. Resolution? Marry them both. Directed by Blake Edwards. With Dudley Moore, Amy Irving, Ann

MIRAGE ● ● ● (1965) Suspenseful thriller in the Hitchcock mode with Peck an accountant who loses his memory during a power blackout and hires private-eye Matthau to help fill in the missing pieces that connect him to a murder. Directed by Edward Dmytryk. With Gregory Peck, Walter Matthau, Diane Baker, Leif Erickson, Kevin McCarthy. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 11.

MISTRESS PAMELA ● Money-hungry movie producers will cheapen anything. So why not Samuel Richardson's eighteenth-century epistolary novel about a servant girl trying to protect her virtue? My apologies to Henry Fielding, but this film is the real Shamela. With Ann Michelle. (C-91 min) (Drama) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 19, 24.

MISUNDERSTOOD ● ● (1984) Ridiculous tear-jerker as wealthy businessman Hackman attempts to cope with son Thomas' despair over the death of mother Anspach. Fox is his usual scene-stealing self as the other son. Set in Tunisia. Directed by Jerry Schatzberg. With Gene Hackman, Henry Thomas, Huckleberry Fox, Rip Torn, Susan Anspach, Helen Ryan, Maureen Kerwin, June Brown, Nadim Swalha. (PG) CINEMAX: Jan. 15.

MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE ● ● ● (1946) Hope bumbles his way into royal laughs and intrigue as a barber imitating a court dandy in the days of King Louis XV of France. A funny adaptation of the Booth Tarkington story which originally was filmed as a silent feature starring Rudolph Valentino. With Bob Hope, Joan Caulfield, Patric Knowles, Cecil Kellaway, Marjorie Reynolds, Joseph Schildkraut. (BW-93 min) (Comedy) WGN: Jan. 9.

MONTY PYTHON'S THE MEANING OF LIFE ● ● ● ● (1983) In a decidedly-philosophical mood, those bad boys from Britain make a mockery of all that humanity holds most dear. Perhaps lumber barons. Family fare. With Denver Pyle, Ken Berry, John Dehner. (Adventure) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 14.

THE MOVIE MURDERER (1970) Title is a perfect synonym for a know-it-all critic, but this made-for-TV film is about a cat-and-mouse game between an arsonist and an insurance investigator. With Arthur Kennedy, Warren Oates, Robert Webber. (C-99 min) (Mystery) (NR) WOR: Jan. 12.

MR. MOTO'S LAST WARNING (1939) Saboteurs, plotting to blow up the Suez Canal, believe they've taken care of Mr. Moto. (Mystery) (NR) NICKELODEON: Jan. 13.

MURDER CLINIC (1966) Beauty may be skin deep, but ugly acting goes all the way to the bone. A plastic surgeon of questionable reputation and practice tries to restore a woman's disfigured face. Also titled The Murder Society and Revenge of the Living Dead. With William Berger, Francoise Prevost, Mary Young. (C-87 min) (Thriller) (NR) WOR: Jan. 11.

MURDERS IN THE RUE MORGUE (1971) Poe's classic gets its fourth screen treatment in this lively chiller about members of a Parisian theatre company being successively dispatched in a gruesome manner. With Jason Robards, Herbert Lom, Christine Kaufman, Lilli Palmer, Maria Perschy. (C-86 min) (Horror) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 20.

MURROW (1985) This HBO Premiere Film traces the career of newscaster Edward R. Murrow from World War II radio correspondent to TV journalist. With Daniel J. Travanti, Dabney Coleman, Edward Herrmann, Robert Vaughn, David Suchet, John McMartin. HBO: Jan. 19, 24, 27, 30.

MY DOG SHEP (1948) Canine drama. With Tom Neal, William Farnum. (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 14.

MY FAVORITE BRUNETTE (1947) Entertaining froth as a baby photographer turns sleuth. Lorre and Chaney add to the fun. With Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Lon Chaney, Peter Lorre. (BW-87 min) (Comedy) (NR) NICKELODEON: Jan. 17.

MY FAVORITE YEAR (1982) When a swashbuckling movie hero arrives to guest-star in the fifties comedy show King Kaiser, a cub comedy-writer is assigned to keep him sober. As the cub, Mark Linn-Baker plays Sancho Panza to Peter O'Toole's Don Quixote, Puck to his Oberon, Tonto to his Lone Ranger; he's in sidekick heaven. And O'Toole is wonderfully showy. They make a dilly of a pair. CINEMAX: Jan. 12, 17.

MY KIDNAPPER, MY LOVE ●● (1980) The title gives away the main plot spring. The incidentals are that O'Connor is the pregnant, runaway daughter of wealthy parents, and Stacy is a crippled newspaper vendor goaded by his sleazy brother Rooney to hold her for ransom. Stacy, who actually lost an arm and leg in an accident, gives a tough performance in this more hard-edged than sappy drama. Directed by Sam Wanamaker. With James Stacy, Glynnis O'Connor, Mickey Rooney, Jan Sterling, J.D. Cannon. (C-100 min) (Drama) (NR) LIFETIME: Jan. 9.

MY MAN GODFREY ●●●● (1936) A screwball comedy that both delights and instructs. On a scavenger hunt, scatterbrained heiress Lombard searches for a "lost man," and finds him among the unemployed bums. He becomes her family's butler and proceeds to teach the idle rich human compassion. Great comic performances by Lombard, Powell as the gentleman butler, Auer as an artist mooching off the family and frog-voiced Eugene Pallette as the besieged patriarch. Directed by Gregory La Cava. With Carole Lombard, William Powell, Gail Patrick, Eugene Pallette, Mischa Auer. (BW-93 min) (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 12, 15, 20.

MY PAL TRIGGER ●● (1946) Friendship between a singing cowboy and "the smartest horse in the movies." With Roy Rogers, Gabby Hayes, Trigger. CBN: Jan. 12; NASHVILLE: Jan. 11.

THE MYSTERIOUS MR. WONG ●● (1935) Lugosi plays an Oriental villain who seeks "the twelve coins of Confucius," which will make him ruler of China. Inscrutable mystery set in New York's Chinatown. With Bela Lugosi, Wallace Ford, Arlene Judge, Lotus Long. (BW-62 min) (Mystery) (NR) SPN: Jan. 10; NOSTALGIA: Jan. 21.

MYSTERIOUS TWO ●● (1982) An extraterrestrial couple come to Earth seeking company for their return trip to a distant galaxy. Mediocre in all departments. With John Forsythe, Priscilla Pointer, James Stephens, Vic Tayback, Robert Pine, Noah Beery. (C-100 min) (Sci-fi) KTVT: Jan. 10.

team search for some buried gold in an old house in Oregon. Fun for the family. (PG) HBO: Jan. 9, 12, 17, 20.

THE NAKED AND THE DEAD ◆◆ (1958) A badly-handled adaptation of Norman Mailer's first novel dealing with a social cross-section of American servicemen fighting in the Pacific during World War II. Vacillating script, uneven direction by Walsh and generally-flat performances. Parody lurks in the shadows. With Aldo Ray, Raymond Massey, Cliff Robertson, Joey Bishop. (C-131 min) (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 11.

THE NAKED FACE ◆◆ Moore takes time out from his stint as James Bond to portray a psychiatrist suspected of murdering his patients. Tedious trash based on Sidney Sheldon's bestseller. With Roger Moore, Rod Steiger, Elliott Gould, David Hedison, Art Carney. (C-105 min) (Adventure) (R-Violence, language, adult themes) SELEC TV: Jan. 18, 22, 31, Feb. 4; SHOWTIME: Jan. 10, 14, 20, 26, 30; HBO: Jan. 11, 15, 19.

NAPOLEON AND SAMANTHA ◆◆ (1972) Tale of a lion and two kids on the lam is typical Disney fare. With Michael Douglas, Jodie Foster, Johnny Whitaker, Will Geer, Arch Johnson, Henry Jones. (C-91 min) (Drama) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 10, 14, 18, 20, 24, 26, 28, 31.

THE NESTING ◆ (1981) A psychologically-disturbed mystery writer moves into a haunted Gothic mansion, and some meaningless, gory killings ensue. A waste of time and a waste of Grahame, who, in her final role, plays the ghost of a madam who once ran the old house as a brothel. With Robin Groves, John Carradine, Gloria Grahame. (C-104 min) (Horror) (R) USA: Jan. 11.

NEVER CRY WOLF ◆◆◆◆ (1983) Sensitive, beautifully-photographed story of real-life author Farley Mowat's trek into the Artic to study wolves and other fauna. Smith, whom many of you will remember from American Graffiti, is wonderful in the lead role, and there are scenes of such power and loveliness that it's a puzzle why this film didn't do better at the box office. An unrecognized nature classic produced by Disney studios. Script by Curtis Hanson, Sam Hamm and Richard Kletter based on the book by Farley Mowat. Directed by Carroll Ballard (The Black Stallion.) With Charles Martin Smith, Brian Dennehy, Zachary Ittimangnaq, Samson Jorah, Hugh Webster, Martha Ittimangnaq, Tom Dahlgren, Walker Stuart. (C-105 min) (Adventure) (G) DISNEY: Jan. 11, 15, 19, 24, 27, 30.

THE NEW ADVENTURES OF TARZAN ●● (1935) This abbreviated version of a twelve-chapter serial pits decathlon champ Brix as Tarzan against a mysterious "green goddess" who rules over a forgotten city. Hailed by many as the purest treatment of the ape man on the screen, this movie was later re-edited and released as the 1938 feature Tarzan and the Green Goddess. Directed by Edward Kull. With Herman Brix, Ula Holt, Jiggs the Chimp. (Adventure) (NR) SPN: Jan. 21.

THE NEW MAVERICK ●●● (1978) A fun-filled update of the old TV series Maverick as the original stars, Garner and Kelly, return as Bret and Bart, a pair of smooth-talking gamblers who know how to settle a quarrel. This time out, they're joined by their nephew, a Harvard dropout, who displays similar attributes. Led to a short-lived series of its own. Directed by Hy Averback. With James Garner, Jack Kelly, Charles Frank, Susan Blanchard, Susan Sullivan, Eugene Roche, George Loros. (C-100 min) (Western) WPIX: Jan. 10.

NEW WINE ●● (1941) Another teaming of the popular Melody Master couple. With Ilona Massey, Alan Curtis. (Musical-drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 12, 13, 15, 21.

NEW YORK NIGHTS ● (1983) The makers of this softcore slop would have you believe that "New York nights" are hot and sexy, but one look at this film and you'll know that they're just plain dull. Not even worth visiting, much less sticking it out to the end. Directed by Simon Nuchtern. With Corinne Alphen, George Ayer, Bobbi Burns, Peter Matthey, Missy O'Shea, Nicholas Cortland, Marcia McBroom, Cynthia Lee, William Dysart. CINEMAX: Jan. 9, 15, 20.

A NIGHT IN CASABLANCA ●●● (1946) Not as lively as the evening they spent at the opera, but still full of enough hilariously-anarchic routines to raise a smile on the face of the soberest of judges. In their next-to-last film as a team, Groucho, Chico and Harpo make life rough for some Nazi war criminals at a North African hotel. Directed by Archie Mayo. With The Marx Brothers, Lisette Verea, Charles Drake, Sig Ruman. (C-85 min) (Comedy) (NR) DISNEY: Jan. 10, 17, 20, 22, 25, 29.

NIGHT OF THE COMET ●● (1984) A Night of the Living Dead retread as a comet passes over the Earth leaving in its wake a population of flesh-eating zombies and some unfortunate, miraculously-unchanged humans who must do everything in their power to survive. Most of the thrills are played for laughs, but the whole thing still is pretty lightweight. You'd probably be better off skipping this one and waiting for Halley's arrival instead. With Catherine Mary Stewart, Kelli Maroney, Robert Beltran. (C-95 min) (PG-13-Strong language, violence) HTN: Jan. 9, 13, 16, 25, 28.

THE NIGHT OF THE IGUANA ●●●● (1964) With so much talent behind and in front of the camera, how could this one miss? A poignant, bitingly-funny and superbly-acted adaptation of the Tennessee Williams play, starring Burton as a self-destructive, defrocked clergyman who arouses desire in three distinctly different women while acting a guide on a Mexican bus trip. Directed by John Huston. With Richard Burton, Deborrah Kerr, Ava Gardner, Sue Lyon, Grayson Hall, Skip Ward, Cyril Delevanti. (Drama) (NR) WOR: Jan. 13.

THE NIGHT RIDERS ●●●● (1939) The "Duke" exposes a man pretending to be a descendent of Spanish nobility for what he really is—a lowdown, dirty cardshark. With John Wayne, Doreen McKay. (Western) (NR) WGN: Jan. 13.

NIGHTMARE ON ELM STREET ●●● (1984) A good 'n scary low-budget horror feature from Director Wes Craven (The Hills Have Eyes, The Last House on the Left.) Finding that they are sharing the same dream, a group of teenagers discover they are being stalked in their sleep by a dead child murderer. Guaranteed to raise the goosebumps. With John Saxon, Ronee Blakely, Heather Langenkamp, Robert Englund, Amanda Wyss. (C-91 min) (Horror) (R-Language, violence, adult themes) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 13, 16, 19, 24, 29; HBO: Jan. 12, 16, 21; SHOWTIME: Jan. 17, 23, 28.

NO SMALL AFFAIR ●● (1984) Romance between a teenage photographer and a young singer from San Francisco. Lightweight "coming of age" comedy. With Jon Cryer, Demi Moore, George Wendt. (C-102 min) (Drama) (R) SELEC TV: Jan. 9, 14, 19, 29.

NORMA RAE ●●● (1979) Field sheds her Gidget image and wins her first Oscar as a poor Southern textile worker who becomes a feisty union activist when a New York politico comes south to unionize her plant. An affecting and rousing true-life drama. Directed by Martin Ritt. With Sally Field, Ron Leibman, Beau Bridges, Pat Hingle, Gail Strickland, Barbara Baxley. (C-114 min) (PG-Strong language, adult themes) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 16.

THE NORSEMAN ●● (1978) In 1006, Viking prince Majors sets sail for North America to find his long-missing father, Mel Ferrer. Cardboard period adventure. With Lee Majors, Cornel Wilde, Mel Ferrer, Jack Elam, Chris Connelly, Kathleen Freeman. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 19.

NORTH DALLAS FORTY ●●●● (1979) Outstanding sports movie based on ex-Dallas Cowboy wide receiver Peter Gent's best-selling autobiographical novel. Nolte is perfect as a pigskinner who has seen better days; and he's matched, surprisingly, by Davis as a flamboyant quarterback who should remind you of Dandy Don Meredith. Dark, funny, perceptive, this film is full of mind-boggling scenes—particularly, the one in which Svenson and real-life footballer Matuszak psych up each other before a big game. Directed by Ted Kotcheff. With Nick Nolte, Mac Davis, Dabney Coleman, Charles Durning, Dayle Haddon, G.D. Spradlin, Bo Svenson, Steve Forrest, John Matuszak. (C-119 min) (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 19.

OH GOD! BOOK II ●● (1980) Not nearly as delightful as the first installment in this rapidly-expanding series. Octogenarian Burns returns as God and persuades a schoolgirl to tell the world that contrary to the opinions of several radical theologians, He is as alive as you or I. With George Burns, Suzanne Pleshette, David Birney, Louanne, Howard Duff, Hans Conreid, Wilfrid Hyde-White. (C-94 min) (Comedy) (PG) HTN: Jan. 15, 23, 30.

OH GOD! YOU DEVIL ●● (1985) Not even Burns, who plays both characters mentioned in the title, can save this silly Faustian farce about a rock singer who sells his soul to Satan for some here-and-now success. Third episode in the Oh God! series. Written by Andrew Bergman. Directed by Paul Bogart. With George Burns, Ted Wass, Ron Silver, Roxanne Hart, Eugene Roche. (C-97 min) (PG-Adult themes) HTN: Jan. 9, 14, 19.

OLIVER TWIST ●● (1933) Dated, rather flat adaptation of the Dickens classic about the abandoned waif who falls in with Fagin's gang of crooked boys. Far inferior to both the 1948 David Lean version and the 1968 Oscar-winning musical Oliver! Directed by William Cowen. With Dickie Moore, Irving Pichel, William Boyd, Doris Lloyd, Barbara Kent. (Drama) (NR) NICKELODEON: Jan. 22.

OLIVER! ●●●● (1968) The adventures of Charles Dickens' plaintive orphan—the boy who wanted "some more"—set to hummable, zesty tunes. The milieu is the teeming, threatening London of the 1830s; the denizens who surround Oliver are a motley band of thieves, ruffians, trollops and scamps. But youthful virtue triumphs. With Ron Moody, Oliver Reed, Mark Lester. Music by Lionel Bart. Directed by Carol Reed. (Musical) (NR) AMC: Jan. 18, 28.

ON THE TOWN ●●●● (1949) Joyous musical about three sailors on leave in New York City. The Betty Comen-Adolph Green-Leonard Bernstein score includes the vibrant tune, "New York, New York," among others. Need it be said that Ann Miller is astounding. Co-directed by Gene Kelly and Stanley Donen. With Gene Kelly, Frank Sinatra, Jules Munshin, Vera-Ellen, Betty Garrett, Ann Miller. (98 min) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 9, 19.

ONCE UPON A TIME IN AMERICA ●●●● (1984) Spaghetti western Director Sergio Leone's long-awaited Jewish gangster epic follows a group of childhood pals as they do their best (and worst) to rise above the poverty of their Lower East Side environment. In the lead role of "Noodles" De Niro is, as usual, superb, but equally as good are Weld as a sex-crazed moll and the underrated Woods as his cold, calculating best friend. Released in two versions: The shorter one is an illogical mishmash; the longer a masterpiece. Directed by Sergio Leone (The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly, Once Upon a Time in the West.) With Robert De Niro, James Woods, Tuesday Weld, Elizabeth McGovern, Treat Williams, Burt Young, Joe Pesci, Danny Aiello, Larry Rapp, William Forsythe, James Hayden, Darlanne Fleugel. (Long version:C-227 min; short version:C-163 min) (R-Strong language, nudity, violence, adult themes) CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 16, 22.

SPORTS / VARIETY CANADIAN THE NETWORKS THE NETWORKS

ONCE UPON A TIME IN THE WEST ●●●● (1969) If Leone's previous efforts with Clint Eastwood were spaghetti westerns, the violence and grand, visually-operatic style make this one Fettucini Alfredo. Despicably-mean villain (kicking a crutch out from under a cripple!) Fonda leads a gang of hardened outlaws out to control the few and valuable water sources along a new railroad route. Much of the footage which was left on the editing room floor when it was first released in America recently has been restored, and the original version now is available. Directed by Sergio Leone. With Henry Fonda, Claudia Cardinale, Jason Robards, Charles Bronson, Keenan Wynn, Jack Elam, Woody Strode. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 19.

ONE FRIGHTENED NIGHT ●● (1935) Dated mystery spoof as a gaggle of relatives try to do each other out of an inheritance. With Charley Grapewin, Mary Carlisle. (BW-65 min) (Comedy) (NR) SPN: Jan. 15.

ONE FROM THE HEART ●● (1982) Even the great directors have their flops, and Francis Ford Coppola is no exception. Excessively arty, emotionally frigid, this simple morality tale of an estranged couple breaking up, finding new lovers and then getting back together never really clicks. Two positive notes though: Some of the visuals are genuinely dazzling, and Kinski is hilarious as the gymnast who becomes involved with the husband. With Frederic Forrest, Teri Garr, Raul Julia, Nastassja Kinski, Lainie Kazan, Harry Dean Stanton. (C-100 min) (Drama) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 9, 18, 21, 26.

ONE HEAVENLY NIGHT ●● (1931) Dated costume drama about a pre-World War I Hungarian nobleman who defies society by romancing a pauper. Directed by George Fitz maurice. With John Boles, Evelyn Laye, Leon Errol. SHOWTIME: Jan. 9, 18, 28.

OUT OF THE PAST ●●●● (1947) Classic film noir as Mitchum tries to go straight but finds himself attracted to femme fatale Greer. Screenplay by Geoffrey Homes. Directed by Jacques Tourneur. With Robert Mitchum, Jane Greer, Kirk Douglas, Rhonda Fleming. (BW-97 min) (Drama) (NR) SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 26, 30.

imprisoned. Boring, made-for-TV exploitation flick that's much too similar to the earlier and better Jackson County Jail, which also starred Mimieux. Directed by Michael Miller. With Yvette Mimieux, Royce D. Applegate, Dick Armstrong, Charles Young, Beverly Hope Atkinson, Susan Batson. (C-100 min) (Drama) (PG) LIFETIME: Jan. 10.

THE OUTSIDER ◆◆◆ (1962) The story of Pima Indian Ira Hayes, who helped raise the flag on Iwa Jima, and his inability to cope with the following notoriety and exploitation. Involving, but falters toward the end. With Tony Curtis, James Franciscus, Bruce Bennett. (BW-108 min) (NR) WOR: Jan. 12.

OVER THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE ◆◆ (1984) Caesar provides the only sparks in this lifeless situation comedy about a deli owner who wants to start a Manhattan restaurant. Directed by prolific producer Menahem Golan. With Elliott Gould, Margaux Hemingway, Sid Caesar, Shelley Winters, Carol Kane. (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 12.

P.J. ◆◆ (1968) Title should remind you that it's time for bed; movie might also. Peppard plays a private eye hired to protect a tycoon's beautiful young mistress. (Need I say more?) With George Peppard, Raymond Burr, Gayle Hunnicutt, Brock Peters. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 10.

PAINT YOUR WAGON ◆◆ (1969) Scroungy forty-niners Marvin and Eastwood buy Seberg at an auction and decide to share her as a wife during the California gold rush. With the exception of Presnell, who does "They Call the Wind Maria" capably, no one has a voice, but this big-budget musical still offers a few incidental pleasures. With Lee Marvin, Clint Eastwood, Jean Seberg, Harve Presnell, Ray Walston. (Musical) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 19.

PANDA'S ADVENTURES ◆◆ The life and times of a cuddly bear. (C-53 min) HTN: Jan. 10, 14, 21, 31.

PAPER MAN ◆◆ (1971) Collegians use a computer to create an imaginary man so that they can acquire fake credit cards. Of course, the plot backfires. With Dean Stockwell, Stephanie Powers, James Stacy, Tina Chen. (C-90 min) (Drama) (NR) WOR: Jan. 12.

THE PARADINE CASE ◆◆◆ (1947) Problems with censorship, casting and finally with producer Selznick, who took final control of the script, made this a trouble-plagued project for Hitchcock. In spite of its long-on-talk approach, Hitch's brilliant directing and the excellent acting make this story of an English barrister who falls in love with his beautiful, murderess client a classy drama. Directed by Alfred Hitchcock. With Gregory Peck, Alida Valli, Ann Todd, Louis Jourdan, Charles Laughton, Charles Coburn, Ethel Barrymore, Leo G. Carroll. (BW-125 min) (Drama) (NR) WPIX: Jan. 18; HTN: Jan. 12, 16, 25.

PARADISE ● (1982) Low-grade Blue Lagoon. Is that possible? A couple of nice, good-looking youngsters survive a caravan hijack and retire to an oasis where they discover each other's bodies. Tastefully done, which means spiritless, escapist junk. (But I must confess: I think Phoebe Cates is a knockout.) With Willie Aames, Phoebe Cates. (R) HBO: Jan. 16, 20.

PARADISE CANYON ●● (1935) The Duke's a government agent on the trail of counterfeiters in his last Monogram western. With John Wayne, Marion Burns, Yakima Canutt, Earle Hodgins, Reed Howes. (BW-52 min) (Western) (NR) ACTS: Jan. 15, 16.

PASSAGE TO INDIA ●●● (1984) After a fourteen year absence from the screen, Director David Lean returns with this lavish adaption of the E.M. Forster novel. Mounted in Lean's typically-epic style, the story of a young British girl (Davis) who oversteps the traditional bounds separating the cultures when she comes to India in the 1920s, resulting in a tragic accusation of attempted rape leveled at a young local doctor. Fine performances abound, but it's Peggy Ashcroft, as the understanding and compassionate Mrs. Moore, who walks away with the honors and the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress. Nominated for eleven Oscars in all, the Maurice Jarre score garnered another. Directed by David Lean. With Judy Davis, Peggy Ashcroft, Victor Banerjee, Alec Guinness. (C-162 min) (Drama) (PG) HTN: Jan. 17, 27.

A PATCH OF BLUE ●●● (1965) Sensitive, movingly-acted story of blind young white girl, living in a slum, who falls in love with a businessman who befriends her not realizing that he's black. Shelley Winters won an Oscar for her role as Hartman's slovenly, vulgar and meanspirited mother. Directed by Jerry Goldsmith. With Sidney Poitier, Elizabeth Hartman, Shelley Winters, Wallace Ford, Ivan Dixon, John Qualen, Elizabeth Fraser. (BW-105 min) (Drama) WOR: Jan. 21.

PATTON ●●●● (1970) George C. Scott's bravura performance as the blustery, hot-tempered, war-loving World War II general, known affectionately to his troops as "old blood and guts." A grandiose, spectacularly-mounted screen bio that garnered eight Oscars, including Best Picutre, Best Screenplay (co-authored by Francis Ford Coppola) and Best Actor for Scott, who snubbed the Academy by refusing to accept it, denouncing the award ceremony as no more than a "meat parade." Don't miss the beginning when Scott delivers his unforgettably-salty and patriotic pep-talk. Directed by Franklin Schaffner. With George C. Scott, Karl Malden, Stephen Young, Frank Latimore, Michael Strong. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 17.

THE PERILS OF PAULINE ●● (1947) Musical comedy bio of silent screen star Pearl White features winning Frank Loesser tunes. Boisterous fun with Hutton a vivacious White. Directed by George Marshall. PHAR LAP ●●● (1983) In Australia during the thirties, a stableboy turns an unlikely horse into a racing champion. Entertaining drama for the whole family. Directed by Simon Wincer. With Tom Burlinson, Ron Leibman, Martin Vaughan, Judy Morris, Celia de Burgh, Vincent Ball. (C-107 min) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 17, 19, 25, 29.

THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT ●● (1984) Intriguing Twilight Zone-like fantasy as a World War II sailor suddenly finds himself in the year 1984. Directed by Stewart Raffill. With Michael Pare, Nancy Allen, Eric Christmas, Bobby Di Cicco, Kene Holliday. (C-100 min) (PG) HTN: Jan. 15, 23, 28.

PICNIC AT HANGING ROCK ●●● (1979) Australian director Peter Weir's first international hit is an eerie, hypnotic tale about the mysterious disappearance of three schoolgirls. Directed by Weir (Gallipoli, The Year of Living Dangerously.) With Rachel Roberts. (PG) A&E NETWORK: Jan. 12, 16, 17.

PLAZA SUITE ●●● (1971) Three comedy sketches set in the same suite in New York's Plaza Hotel and all starring Matthau in a different role. In the first, he plays a businessman trying to stir up the embers of his twenty-year marriage on a second honeymoon; in the second, a movie producer meeting with an old girl friend; and in the last, the father of a hesitant bride-to-be. Adapted from the Neil Simon hit play. With Walter Matthau, Maureen Stapleton, Barbara Harris, Lee Grant, Louise Sorel. (Comedy) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 12.

THE PLOUGHMAN'S LUNCH ●● (1983) Dark, uneven account of an egocentric BBC journalist of lower-class origins trying to make it in corrupt British society during the Falkland Islands invasion. The last shot of the journalist attending his mother's funeral is perhaps the most cynical final frame ever put in a movie. Written by Ian McEwan, the author of several works of fiction including "First Love, Last Rites" and "The Cement Garden." Directed by Richard Eyre. With Jonathan Pryce, Frank Finlay, Rosemary Harris, Tim Curry. (C-107 min) (Drama) (R-Mature situations) BRAVO: Jan. 14, 23, 31.

PORKY'S ● (1982) Raunch nostalgia. Six pranking, peeping Florida high-schoolers get a rude welcome at Porky's, the local boozy strip-joint. A little

THE PRESIDENT'S PLANE IS MISSING ●● (1971) Crisis after crisis unfolds when Air Force One disappears and the U.S. is brought to the brink of a nuclear confrontation with Red China. Made prior to ping-pong diplomacy. Adapted from the novel by Robert Serling. With Buddy Ebsen, Arthur Kennedy, Peter Graves, Rip Torn, Mercedes McCambridge, Louise Sorel, Raymond Massey. (C-94 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 21.

THE PRINCESS AND THE PIRATE ●●● (1944) Far-out farce as Hope and Mayo stay one step ahead of pirates. Some great comic turns by all the principals. With Bob Hope, Virginia Mayo, Victor McLaglen, Walter Brennan, Walter Slezak. (C-94 min) SHOWTIME: Jan. 10, 18, 21, 26.

A PRIZE OF GOLD ●●● (1955) Engrossing adventure yarn as a disparate group plots a gold heist in post-World War II Berlin. Directed by Mark Robson. With Richard Widmark, Mai Zetterling, Nigel Patrick, Donald Wolfit. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 9.

PROFESSOR WAGSTAFF'S TIME MACHINE ●● Animated ripoff of the adventures of Mr. Peabody and Sherman. Wagstaff develops Oska, a time machine, that permits two youngsters to travel through history. Oska may be hipper than Peabody's Wayback, but it's not nearly as amusing. (€-57 min) SELEC TV: Jan. 10, 14, 19, 25.

THE PURPLE TAXI ●● (1977) A strong international cast fails to enhance this perplexing drama about life among a group of expatriates in Ireland.

Based on Michel Deon's bestseller. With Charlotte Rampling, Fred Astaire, Peter Ustinov, Philippe Noiret, Edward Albert. (C-93 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 20.

PUSS 'N BOOTS TRAVELS AROUND THE WORLD ●● Peripatetic feline and company circumnavigate the globe in this charming adventure for the family. (G) SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 27.

QUEEN OF THE AMAZONS ● Distaff adventure as an army of women show just how tough they are. (60 min) (Adventure) (NR) SPN: Jan. 19.

RACING WITH THE MOON ●● (1984) Pleasant, but forgettable bit of nostalgia as buddies Penn and Cage indulge themselves just before departing for World War II. Directed by Richard Benjamin. With Sean Penn, Elizabeth McGovern, Nicolas Cage, Suzanne Adkinson, John Karlen, Rutanya Alda. (C-109 min) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 21, 30.

RACKET BUSTERS ●● (1938) Bogie's looking to muscle in on the trucking business, but the feds aren't making it easy. OK crime drama. With Humphrey Bogart, George Brent, Allen Jenkins, Penny Singleton. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 18.

RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK ●●● (1981) Fast-paced Saturday morning adventure story with Ford a stonefaced archaeologist named Indiana Jones and Allen his tough female companion. One of the most popular movies of all time, it already has engendered a sequel, Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom. Directed by Steven Spielberg. With Harrison Ford, Karen Allen, Wolf Kahler, Denholm Elliott, Paul Freeman, John Rhys-Davies. (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 13, 18, 23, 28; HBO: Jan. 12, 15, 20, 21.

RAINBOW VALLEY ●● (1935) Big John plays an undercover agent protecting some highway builders in this ho-hum western. Directed by Robert N. Bradbury. With John Wayne, Buffalo Bill, Jr., Lucille Brown, LeRoy Mason, George Hayes, Lafe McKee. (BW-52 min) (Western) ACTS: Jan. 13.

RANDY RIDES ALONE ● (1934) Rugged individualist makes the West safe for you and me. With John Wayne. (Western) (NR) SPN: Jan. 15.

THE RARE BREED ●● (1966) An English cattlewoman brings a prize-winning bull to the United States to breed with longhorns, and then can't decide whose brand she wants to wear: Stewart's or Keith's. A western of no particular merit, but easy enough to watch. With Maureen O'Hara, James Stewart, Brian Keith, Juliet Mills. (C-83 min) (PG) HTN: Jan. 14, 19, 22, 31.

THE RAVINE ● ● (1969) McCallum winds up falling for the female enemy he's supposed to kill in this European-made World War II drama. Directed by Paolo Cavara. With David McCallum, Nicoletta Machiavelli, John Crawford, Lars Loch. (C-97 min) (Drama) USA: Jan. 19.

RAZORBACK ● ● (1984) Offbeat horror-thriller set in the Australian outback. After a woman reporter disappears, her husband picks up the trail that leads to a terrorizing wild boar. A rather silly premise but directed with a stylish flare. With Gregory Harrison. (C-95 min) (Horror) (R-Violence, adult themes) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 15, 23, 27, 31.

REACHING FOR THE MOON ● ● ● (1931) Entertaining Depression-era comedy with Fairbanks a wealthy man in acrobatic pursuit of Daniels. Fabulous sets, and Bing gets to sing a tune penned by Irving Berlin. Directed by Edmund Goulding. With Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., Bebe Daniels, Edward Everett Horton, Bing Crosby. (BW-66 min) (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 19, 21.

RECKLESS ● ● (1984) It's rebellion and romance eighties style when two kids with different pedigrees—he's from a working-class broken home, she's a cheerleader from an affluent family—are attracted to each other. Sort of Rebel With a Cause: Making it with Splash's Daryl Hannah. Decent rock soundtrack. Directed by James Foley. With Aidan Quinn, Daryl Hannah, Cliff DeYoung, Kenneth McMillan, Adam Baldwin, Lois Smith. (C-94 min) (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 9, 13, 19; SELEC TV: Jan. 12, 24, 28; PLAYBOY: Jan. 14, 29.

REET, PETITE, AND GONE ● ● (1947) Hip Jazz musician needs green to mount stage show. With Louis Jordan and his Orchestra, June Richmond. (BW-70 min) SPN: Jan. 12.

REPO MAN ● ● ● ● (1984) "The more you drive, the less intelligent you are." Wild, rambling, frighteningly-funny, always-surprising look at the hustlers, punks, UFO freaks and car repossessors (repo men) who inhabit the substrata of our society. Features the most brilliant top-to-bottom acting since the heyday of the Robert Altman ensemble company—particularly Estevez as repo apprentice Otto and Stanton as his father figure. A kind of eighties' answer to Easy Rider, this is one of the most original movies to come out of Hollywood in years. Set in Los Angeles. Music by Iggy Pop, Black Flag, The Juicy Bananas, The Plugz, The Suicidal Tendencies and others. Photography by Robby Muller. Produced by Michael Nesmith. Written and directed by Alex Cox. With Emilio Estevez. (C-83 min) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 9; CINEMAX: Jan. 10, 20.

THE RESURRECTION OF ZACHARY WHEELER ● ● (1971) Sci-fi drama has reporter Nielson trailing injured senator Dillman to a strange clinic in New Mexico. Not bad, but a botched ending. With Leslie Nielson, Bradford Dillman, Angie Dickenson, Jack Carter, James Daly. (Sci-fi) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 14.

THE RETURN ● ● (1978) The final installment of the sci-fi adventures of the Earthship Ark. After spending 400 years in a time warp, the ship's exploratory vessel returns home where more action awaits. With Keir Dullea, Lloyd Bochner. (C-95 min) (Sci-fi) KTVT: Jan. 17.

THE RETURN OF CHANDU ● ● (1934) A condensed four chapter-serial with Lugosi a magician who saves a princess from a cat-worshipping cult. With Bella Lugosi, Maria Alba, Iron Eyes Cody. (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 17, 18.

THE RETURN OF THE KING ● ● Animated adaptation of the J.R.R. Tolkein saga of Middle Earth as Frodo and Strider battle the evil kingdom of Sauron. With the voices of Orson Bean, John Huston, Roddy McDowell, Theodore Bikel, Glen Yarborough. (C-120 min) (Adventure) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 13, 17, 23.

THE REWARD ● ● (1965) Western programmer as bounty hunters turn on each other. With Max Von Sydow, Yvette Mimieux, Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., Gilbert Roland. (Drama) (R) USA: Jan. 9, 10.

RIDE ON A DEAD HORSE ● ● (1962) Greed causes a falling out among three gold prospectors when one kills another and then tries to pin the murder on the third. With John Vivyan, Bruce Gordon, Kevin Hagen, Lisa Lu, Charles Lampkin. (BW-72 min) (Western) WGN: Jan. 11.

RIDERS OF DESTINY ● ● (1933) Wayne's first Monogram western finds him playing an undercover agent named Singin' Sandy. His mission? To help a band of farmers thwart some water thieves. Written and directed by Robert North Bradbury. With John Wayne, Cecilia Parker, George "Gabby" Hayes, Forrest Taylor, Yakima Canutt, Al St. John. (Western) (NR) ACTS: Jan. 14.

RIDERS OF THE ROCKIES ● (1937) A high-altitude western. With Tex Ritter. (Western) (NR) NASHVILLE: Jan. 9.

RIDING ON AIR ● ● (1937) What a way to go. (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9.

THE RIGHT STUFF ● ● ● (1983) That elusive quality only the best test pilots had, and that made seven of them America's first astronauts. Philip Kaufman's rousing adaptation of Tom Wolfe's bestseller, spanning the sixteen years from the first sonic boom in 1947 to the splashdown of the last Mercury capsule in 1963. A campy, irreverent blending of idolatry and skewed humor featuring Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Sam Shepard in a role Gary Cooper would have loved to have stepped into. Winner of four Academy awards, including Best Editing and Original Score. Directed by Philip Kaufman. With Sam Shepard, Ed Harris, Dennis Quaid, Scott Glenn, Barbara Hershey, Fred Ward, Kim Stanley, Charles Frank, Lance Henriksen, Scott Paulin, Pamela Reed, Mary Jo Deschanel, Veronica Cartwright. (C-196 min) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 12, 17, 25.

RIM OF THE CANYON ● ● (1948) Autry trades shots with a few uncivilized varmints in this typical horse opera. With Gene Autry, Nan Leslie, Champion. (Western) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 11, 14, 21.

RING OF PASSION ● ● (1978) Sincere drama mixes politics and boxing as it tells the story of the two pre-World War II Louis-Schmeling heavyweight fights. Directed by Robert Michael Lewis. With Bernie Casey, Stephen Macht, Britt Ekland, Denise Nicholas, Allen Garfield, Joseph Campanella, Beah Richards. (C-100 min) (Drama) WPIX: Jan. 15.

RIOT SQUAD ● (1941) Didn't need to call them out. A desk sergeant could handle all of the excitement this film generates in an audience. With Richard Cromwell. (56 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 13, 18.

THE RIVER ● ● (1984) The third and least-successful member of 1984's "Dust Bowl Trilogy," which also included Country and Places in the Heart. Spacek is wonderful as a strong-willed Tennessee Valley farmer struggling to survive against both nature and capitalistic greed, and Glenn is just as good as the villain out to get her, but the picture itself is a bit too sappy and predictable. Beautifully photographed by Vilmos Zsigmond. Irritating musical score by John Star Wars Williams. Screenplay by Robert Dillon and Julian Barry. Directed by Mark Rydell (On Golden Pond.) With Sissy Spacek, Mel Gibson, Scott Glenn, Shane Bailey, Becky Jo Lynch, Barry Primus, Charlie Robinson, Billy Green Bush. (C-124 min) (PG-Adult themes) SELEC TV: Jan. 12, 28; HTN: Jan. 13, 18, 26.

THE RIVER NIGER ● ● ● (1976) Sensitively-told story of a black African family overcoming adversity to make a better life for themselves. Strong, believable performances from an outstanding cast. With James Earl Jones, Cicely Tyson, Lou Gossett, Glynn Turman, Roger E. Mosely, Jonelle Allen. (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 20, 28.

ROAD TO SALINA ● ● (1971) Look out for cuts in this one. In one of her last screen roles, Hayworth plays the owner of a small cafe who finally realizes that the drifter who's been ferociously making love to her daughter is her own long-lost son. A French/Italian low-grade teaser. With Rita Hayworth, Mimsy Farmer, Robert Walker Jr., Ed Begley. (C-97 min) (Drama) (NR) WOR: Jan. 19.

ROBIN HOOD: HERNE'S SON ● ● (1985) The dashing son of an Earl reorganizes the Merry Men who, needless to say, have been in disarray since the death of their famed leader. Another episode in the continuing SHOWTIME series. With Jason Connery, Marcher Lord, Oliver Cotton, Richard O'Brien, Nikolas Grace. (C-120 min) (Adventure) SHOWTIME: Jan. 13, 18.

ROBIN HOOD: THE POWER OF ALBION ● ● (1985) The new leader of the Merry Men is forced to assume the name "Robin Hood" when the Sheriff of Nottingham discovers his real identity. With Jason Connery, Nikolas Grace, George Baker, Jeremy Bulloch. (C-60 min) (Adventure) SHOWTIME: Jan. 20, 25.

ROCKY ● ● ● ● (1976) Oscar-winning saga of a broken-down, inarticulate club boxer who gets the chance of a lifetime when world champion Apollo Creed chooses him as his next opponent. Stallone is perfect as the naive pug, and the final slugfest between the two men will have you on your feet cheering. A first-rate, rags-to-riches sports story that unfortunately spawned numerous, formulaic sequels, such as 1985's flagwaving fantasy Rocky IV. Written by Sylvester Stallone. Directed by John Alvidsen. With Sylvester Stallone, Burgess Merdith, Talia Shire, Carl Weathers, Burt Young, Thayer David. (C-119 min) (Drama) (PG) SELEC TV: Feb. 1, 9, 13.

ROMANCING THE STONE ● ● ● (1984) The Perils of Pauline meets Raiders of the Lost Ark when a dowdy romance novelist falls out of her safe seclusion into one of her own plots and an action-charged South American adventure, complete with a rugged and roguish soldier-of-fortune. Kathleen Turner (the sultry femme fatale from Body Heat) holds the screen every minute with a combustible blend of glamour, wit and comic flair in this tip of the hat to the great grade B adventures of yore. Directed by Robert Zemeckis. With Kathleen Turner, Michael Douglas, Danny DeVito, Manuel Ojeda, Zack Norman, Alfonso Arau. (C-110 min) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 19, 29; CINEMAX: Jan. 12, 16, 20.

ROMANTIC COMEDY ● ● (1983) Moore and Steenburgen play a pair of playwrights embroiled in one romantic fiasco after another. A bust of a picture. With Dudley Moore, Mary Steenburgen, Ron Leibman, Frances Sternhagen, Janet Eilber. (C-102 min) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 14, 18, 23, 26, 31; CINEMAX: Jan. 21.

ROPE ● ● ● (1948) Underrated Hitchcock flick about two intellectual thrill-seekers who murder a pal just to see if they can get away with it. Well-acted, particularly by Dall, who is so coolly terrifying as the more-audacious member of the pair that you'll wonder why he wasn't a bigger star. Historically important considering that the film was shot in unedited ten-minute takes, a technique which definitely lends it a theatrical air. Adapted from the Patrick Hamilton play by Arthur Laurents. With Alfred Hitchcock. With James Stewart, John Dall, Farley G ranger, Joan Chandler, Cedric Hardwicke, Constance Collier, Edith Evanson, Douglas Dick. (C-81 min) (PG) HTN: Jan. 13, 21, 27; SELEC TV: Jan. 13, 17, 23.

ROPE OF SAND ● ● ● (1949) Well-paced action adventure that, with the familiar cast, seems to slip into a parody of Casablanca. Returning to South Africa, adventurer Lancaster has to vie with other interested parties, including Rains' corrupt police chief, to reclaim his stolen cache of diamonds. With Burt Lancaster, Claude Rains, Paul Henreid, Peter Lorre, Corinne Calvert, Sam Jaffe. (Adventure) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 21.

ROSEBUD BEACH HOTEL ● Softcore nonsense about a ramshackle dwelling that begins to make money when a young couple turns it into a brothel.

With Colleen Camp, Christopher Lee, Chuck McCann. (C-82 min) (Comedy) (R-Nudity, language, adult themes) SHOWTIME: Jan. 13, 18, 24, 30; HBO: Jan. 9, 20.

ROUGH NIGHT IN JERICHO ● ● (1967) And pretty noisy, too, with that trumpet blaring and those walls tumbling down. Martin plays a villainous town boss in this western plagued by innumerable cliches. With Dean Martin, George Peppard, Jean Simmons, John McIntire. WOR: Jan. 16.

ROYAL WEDDING ● ● ● (1951) The musical in which Fred dances up the wall, across the ceiling, and then down again. The story concerns a brother-and-sister act (Astaire and Powell) who travel to London to be a part of the festivities surrounding the marriage of then-Princess Elizabeth to the future Prince Philip. While there, each of them falls in love (he with a dancer, she with a nobleman), and they both end up getting married on the same day as Elizabeth. An ecstatically-performed, must-see musical. Other highlights, in addition to the ceiling number, include Fred's dance with a hat-stand during "Sunday Jumps," Powell's "Too Late Now" and a Fred and Jane duet entitled "How Could You Believe Me When I Said I Love You When You Know I've Been a Liar All My Life?" (93 min) (NR) CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 17.

RUMBLE FISH ● ● ● ● (1984) A brilliant; smoke-filled, black-and-white mood piece that stars Dillon as a confused teen named Rusty-James and Rourke as Motorcycle Boy, the doomed older brother he worships. Based on a novel by S.E. Hinton, this movie is a visual feast—full of unusual camera angles and numerous allusions to classic teen movies like Rebel Without a Cause, Blackboard Jungle, and West Side Story. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola. With Matt Dillon, Mickey Rourke, Dennis Hopper, Diana Scarwid, Vincent Spano, Diane Lane. (C-94 min) (R) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 9, 13, 21, 29.

RUN A CROOKED MILE ● ● (1969) The appealing cast adds pizazzz to this made-for-TV drama starring Jordan as a vacationing math teacher who stumbles into amnesia and a plot to control the European gold standard. With Louis Jordan, Mary Tyler Moore, Alexander Knox, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Laurence Naismith. (C-100 min) (Drama) WTBS: Jan. 9.

RUN FOR THE ROSES ● ● (1978) Trite family fare as a Puerto Rican boy, living with his Kentucky stepfather, attempts to train a lame colt. Object: A Kentucky Derby win. With Vera Miles, Stuart Whitman, Panchito Gomex, Sam Groom, Lisa Eilbacher. (Family feature) WPIX: Jan. 21.

RUN SILENT, RUN DEEP ● ● ● (1958) Conflict above and below water line as Gable and Lancaster battle the enemy and each other while their submarine plies Japanese waters during World War II. Adequate war actioner banking on the reliable performances of its leads. With Clark Gable, Burt Lancaster, Jack Warden, Brad Dexter, Nick Cravat. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 19.

RUNAWAY ● (1984) Tortoise-paced Blade Runner clone with Selleck on the trail of a gang of renegade robots led by evil genius Simmons, better known as the tongue-wagging member of the glitter rock group Kiss. Directed by Michael Crichton, who covered similar territory and much more effectively in Westworld. With Tom Selleck, Gene Simmons, Cynthia Rhodes, Kristie Alley. (C-99 min) (Sci-fi) (PG-13) CINEMAX: Jan. 18, 21.

RUNAWAY! ● ● (1973) Standard, made-for-TV disaster movie as we observe various characters on a runaway train. Directed by David Lowell Rich. With Ben Johnson, Ben Murphy, Vera Miles, Ed Nelson, Darleen Carr, Martin Milner, Lee H. Montgomery, Ray Danton. (C-73 min) (Drama) CINEMAX: Jan. 18, 21.

THE SACKETTS ● ● (1979) Over-long, though fast-actioned story of three brothers fighting their way to fortune in Colorado and New Mexico. Fair-to-middling western. With Sam Elliot, Tom Selleck, Glenn Ford, Ben Johnson, Gilbert Roland, Jeff Osterhage, Mercedes McCambridge. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Part I: Jan. 15; Part II: Jan. 16.

SAHARA ● (1984) See Princeton scholar Shields battle scorpions, sleep with a sexy sheik, dress like a man and drive her late father's racecar in that wild, wacky Sahara International road race. For people who think child models can act. Directed by Andrew V. McLaglen. With Brooke Shields, Lambert Wilson, Horst Bucholz, John Mills, John Rhys-Davies, Steve Forrest, Perry Lang. (C-111 min) (Drama) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 10.

SAILOR OF THE KING ● ● ● (1953) Exciting flagwaver as World War II naval man Hunter goes after a German ship. Also known as Single Handed. Based on C.S. Forester's novel Brown on Restitution. Directed by Ray Boulting. With Jeffrey Hunter, Michael Rennie, Wendy Hiller, Bernard Lee, Peter Van Eyck. (BW-83 min) (Drama) AMC: Jan. 10, 25.

SAN FRANCISCO ● ● ● ● (1936) "She fell in love with the toughest guy on the toughest street in the world!" She's a singer and he's the dashing owner of a Barbary Coast gambling saloon in this rousing entertainment climaxing in the great quake of 1906. Directed by W.S. Van Dyke. With Clark Gable, Jeanette MacDonald, Spencer Tracy, Jack Holt, Jessie Ralph, Shirley Ross, Ted Healy. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 20.

SANDERS OF THE RIVER ● ● ● (1935) Dated adventure tale of a British colonial servant trying to keep peace among several African tribes. Robeson is magnificent. Directed by Zoltan Korda. With Paul Robeson, Leslie Banks, Nina Mae McKinney, Robert Cochran, Martin Walker. SPN: Jan. 18.

SANTA FE TRAIL ● ● (1940) Flynn plays Jeb Stuart in this fairly competent pre-Civil War western about the U.S. cavalry's pursuit of abolitionist John Brown. In a peculiar bit of prophetic typecasting, Reagan portrays Flynn's sidekick, the long-locked George Armstrong Custer. Directed by Michael Curtiz. With Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Ronald Reagan, Raymond Massey, Van Heflin, Alan Hale. (BW-110 min) (Western) (NR) NICKELODEON: Jan. 19, 25.

SAVAGE ATTRACTION ● A woman discovers the Beast within her husband in this predictable domestic melodrama based on a true story. With Kerry Mack. (C-92 min) (Drama) (R-Nudity, adult themes) SHOWTIME: Jan. 14.

SAVAGE FURY ● Tempest in a teapot. SPN: Jan. 19.

SAVAGE WILDERNESS ● ● (1956) A frontier outpost is put in danger through the reckless actions of its headstrong, Indian-hating commander. Standard western punched up with excellent battle scenes and a good cast. Alternate title: The Last Frontier. Directed by Anthony Mann. With Victor Mature, Robert Preston, Guy Madison, Ann Bancroft, James Whitmore. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 13.

SAVANNAH SMILES ● ● (1982) Overly-cutesie picture about a couple of incompetent crooks who fall for an overly-cutesie, six-year-old girl. With Mark Miller, Donovan Scott, Bridgette Andersen. (C-104 min) (Drama) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 12, 17, 20; HBO: Jan. 10, 14, 22.

SAVE THE TIGER ● ● ● (1973) Oscar-winning performance by Lemmon as a garment manufacturer disillusioned by his fall from idealistic grace and membership in the rat race. Pretentious, yet solidly acted. With Jack Lemmon, Jack Gilford, David Thayer, Laurie Heineman, Patricia Smith. (Drama) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 15.

SCARLET ANGEL ● ● (1952) Satisfying western drama about a saloon girl who attempts to pass herself off to a wealthy family as wife of their dead son. With Yvonne De Carlo, Rock Hudson, Richard Denning, Amanda Blake. (Adventure) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 15.

SCARLET STREET ● ● ● (1945) Violating the Production Code in even dealing with the subject of prostitution, this film went even further in its story line about a man who kills a prostitute and goes "unpunished." Robinson plays the John who is pulled into a seamy situation by Bennett and her pimp Duryea. A rather- daring picture for its time. Directed by Fritz Lange. With Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett, Dan Duryea. (BW-103 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 15, 17.

THE SECOND WOMAN ● ● (1951) Intriguing psychological drama as Young is suspected by everyone, except new love Drake, of having murdered his fiancee. With Robert Young, Betsy Drake, John Sutton. (BW-91 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 16, 18, 22.

THE SENSUOUS NURSE ● Shameful exploitation of John Derek's first discovery, big-boned Ursula Andress, who plays a nurse hired by a greedy family to facilitate a rich relative's heart attack. Gives nurses a bad name, but the actors in this picture an even worse one. With Ursula Andress, Jack Palance. (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 17, 21.

SEPTEMBER STORM ● (1960) Inane drama about a group of disaffected people searching for treasure off the coast of Majorca. Filmed in 3-D. Directed by Byron Haskin. With Joanne Dru, Mark Stevens, Robert Strauss, Asher Dann, M. Jean-Pierre Kerien, Vera Valmont. (BW-99 min) (Adventure) LIFETIME: Jan. 15, 22.

SEVEN HILLS OF ROME ● ● (1958) Lanza plays an American TV star who follows his estranged fiancee to Rome only to fall in love with another young lady. A trite musical saved by its location photography and Lanza's send-ups of show biz rivals Dean Martin, Frankie Laine, Louis Armstrong and Perry Como. Features such songs as "Arrivederci Roma," "Temptation,""Come Dance With Me" and "Memories Are Made of This." Directed by Roy Rowland. With Mario Lanza, Renato Rascel, Marisa Allasio, Peggie Castle, Carlo Rizzo. (C-103 min) (Musical-drama) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 14, 25, 30.

SEVEN MAGNIFICENT GLADIATORS ● (1984) Ferrigno takes on an Italian tyrant in this sword-and-sandal variation on The Seven Samurai and The Magnificent Seven. With Lou "Hulk" Ferrigno, Sybil Danning. (Adventure) (PG) CINEMAX: Jan. 13.

SEVEN SINNERS ● ● ● (1940) The top-notch cast livens up this rough-and-tumble romance starring Marlene as a sultry cafe chanteuse in the South Seas, who riles up the navy boys while catching the Duke's eye. Remade as South Sea Sinner. With Marlene Dietrich, John Wayne, Broderick Crawford, Albert Dekker, Mischa Auer, Oscar Homolka, Anna Lee. (BW-87 min) (Action-romance) WOR: Jan. 10.

THE SEVEN YEAR ITCH ● ● ● ● (1955) Billy Wilder's hilarious sex comedy stars Ewell as a married New Yorker who sends his family away on a summer vacation, then discovers the curvaceous blonde subletting the apartment upstairs. Temptation beckons, and why not? With Monroe as the sexy neighbor, what red-blooded male could resist? This is the picture where Marilyn's skirt billows as a rush of air surprises her, but the most outrageous sequence occurs when would-be bachelor Ewell indulges in a fantasy of seduction. Co-written by George Axelrod and Billy Wilder. Directed by Billy Wilder. With Tom Ewell, Marilyn Monroe, Sonny Tufts, Evelyn Keyes, Oscar Homolka, Robert Strauss. (Comedy) (NR) WPIX: Jan. 21.

THE SHADOW STRIKES ● (1937) Silent screen matinee idol La Rocque stars as the famed radio character—the one "who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men." With Rod La Rocque, Lynn Anders. (C-61 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 21, 22.

SHAME ● ● (1962) Red-faced melodrama for hardcore trekkies. With William Shatner, Beverly Lunsford. (PG) (82 min) (Drama) (NR) SPN: Jan. 16.

SHEENA ● (1984) No plot, no acting, no excitement, just a lot of shots of Roberts looking good in a skimpy "queen of the jungle" outfit. For fans of Frederick's of Hollywood catalogues. Directed by John Guillermin. With Tanya Roberts, Ted Wass, Donovan Scott, Elizabeth of Toro. (C-117 min) CINEMAX: Jan. 10, 15.

SHERLOCK HOLMES FACES DEATH ● ● ● ● (1943) Murder and gloom at Musgrave Manor intrigue the seldom-baffled Sherlock Holmes; he solves the murders and dispels the gloom by recreating a human chess-game based on an old family ritual. Shuddery, atmospheric direction by the exceptionally-talented Roy William Neill, who helmed eleven of the fourteen Basil Rathbone-as-Holmes pictures. (Mystery) (NR) WGN: Jan. 19.

SHINBONE ALLEY ● ● ● (1971) Somewhat sentimentalized animated musical adapted from Don Marquis' brilliant stories about the misadventures of Archy, the poetic cockroach, and Mehitabel, the alley cat. Featuring the voices of Eddie Bracken (Archy), Carol Channing (Mehitabel), John Carradine (Tyrone T, Tattersall), Alan Reed, Sr. (Big Bill.) (C-84 min) (Musical) (G) SHOWTIME: Jan. 10, 22, 28.

THE SHINING ●●●● (1980) "Heeeeere's Johnny!" All work and no play makes Jack a maniacally-mischievous boy in this chilling adaptation of the Stephen King novel. Writer Nicholson, wife Duvall and their telepathic son become caretakers during the off-season for a palatial mountain resort where evil oozes from every room, and where daddy goes slowly berserk. Nicholson gives one of his great crazed performances, getting off lines that will have you howling and cringing at the same time; and more than a few of Kubrick's meticulously and eerily-staged scenes will haunt you long afterwards. Much better than the critical reception it received when first released. Directed by Stanley Kubrick. With Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall, Danny Lloyd, Scatman Crothers, Barry Nelson, Philip Stone. (C-146 min in original release, although some versions have been edited down for TV) (Thriller) (R-Violence) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 16; SHOWTIME: Jan. 9, 13, 18, 22; CINEMAX: Jan. 10, 15, 19.

SHOCK ●● (1946) A killer tries to silence a witness in this mediocre suspenser. With Vincent Price, Lynn Bari. (BW-70 min) (Horror) (NR) SPN: Jan. 18; NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 12, 13, 14, 20.

SHORTSTORIES ●●●● Collection of award-winning short films. A&E NETWORK: Jan. 9, 10, 11, 15, 16, 17, 18, 22.

SHOW BUSINESS ●● (1944) Typical backstage musical full of singing, dancing, comedy and romance. Songs include "It Had To Be You," "Making Whoopie," "Dinah," and the classic "They're Wearing 'Em Higher in Hawaii." With Eddie Cantor, Joan Davis, George Murphy, Constance Moore, Nancy Kelly. (BW-92 min) (Musical) (NR) AMC: Jan. 15.

A SHRIEK IN THE NIGHT ●● (1933) Old-fashioned melodrama as a mysterious murderer stalks an exclusive apartment building. With Ginger Rogers, Lyle Talbot. (BW-66 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 19, 20.

SIDEWALKS OF LONDON ●●● (1938) Busker Laughton transforms Leigh into a star, but loses her to the more artistic Harrison. Well-acted, diverting drama with music. Directed by Tim Whelan. With Charles Laughton, Vivien Leigh, Rex Harrison. SPN: Jan. 13.

SILVER STALLION ● (1941) This is one horse opera you don't want to attend. Directed by Edward Finney. With David Sharpe, LeRoy Mason. (BW-58 min) SPN: Jan. 20.

SIX BRIDGES TO CROSS ●●● (1955) Engaging crime drama loosely based on the famous Brink's robbery. Good performance by Curtis as a small-time operator who finally makes it big when he masterminds a two-and-one half million dollar heist. With Tony Curtis, Julie Adams, Sal Mineo, George Nader. (BW-96 min) (NR) WOR: Jan. 22.

SIX GUN RHYTHM ● (1939) Chamber music. A western with Tex Fletcher. NASHVILLE: Jan. 15.

THE SKY IS GRAY ●●● Compelling message drama as a young black boy discovers the evil world of racial discrimination when he accompanies his mother to a Southern town in the 1940s. Scripted by Charles Fuller (A Soldier's Story.) With Olivia Cole, James Bond III, Cleavon Little. (C-44 min) (Drama) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 19, 22, 30.

SKYBOUND ●● (1935) Insubstantial melodrama as a couple of cops go undercover to investigate smugglers. With Lloyd Hughes, Eddie Nugent. SPN: Jan. 10.

SLAP SHOT ●●● (1977) Riotous tale of a minor league hockey team on the skids that turns itself around when it begins to play dirty with a capital D. Gutter-mouthed script by Nancy Dowd. Directed by George Roy Hill. With Paul Newman, Michael Ontkean, Lindsay Crouse, Jennifer Wrren, Melinda Dillon, Strother Martin, Jerry Houser, Andrew Duncan. (C-122 min) (R-Strong language, adult themes, violence) WPIX: Jan. 19.

SLAUGHTER ON TENTH AVENUE ●●● (1957) An assistant D.A. tries to clean up New York City's waterfront (a Herculean task), but encounters problems with the local racketeers. Well-paced crime drama. With Richard Egan, Jan Sterling, Dan Duryea, Walter Matthau. WOR: Jan. 20.

SLIGHTLY SCARLET ●●● (1956) Memorable melodrama about big-city corruption as Payne becomes involved with a pair of redheaded sisters. Directed by Allan Dwan. With John Payne, Rhonda Fleming, Arlene Dahl, Kent Taylor. (C-99 min) (NR) WOR: Jan. 19.

THE SMALL VOICE ●●● (1948) Absorbing yarn about some escaped convicts who hold a couple captive in their rural cottage. Directed by Fergus McDonell. With James Donald, Valerie Hobson, Howard Keel, David Green, Michael Balfour, Joan Young. (BW-83 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 14, 15, 17, 21.

SMASHING TIME ●● (1967) Two girls from the English north country head to London to make their mark at the height of the swing mod scene. A good-natured and hectic slapstick comedy, but the Mack Sennett style doesn't seem particularly well-suited to its stars. With Lynn Redgrave, Rita Tushingham, Michael York, Ian Carmichael, Anna Quayle, Jeremy Lloyd. (C-96 min) LIFETIME: Jan. 15, 22.

SMASH-UP ●●● (1947) Hayward is overpowering as the doomed alcoholic wife of a songwriter in this distaff variation on The Lost Weekend. Also known as Samsh-Up, The Story of a Woman and A Woman Destroyed. Scripted by John Howard Lawson from a story by Dorothy Parker and Frank Cavett. Directed by Stuart Heisler. With Susan Hayward, Lee Bowman, Marsha Hunt, Eddie Albert, Carl Esmond, Carleton Young, Charles D. Brown. (BW-113 min) (Drama) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 16, 18, 20.

SNOW JOB ● (1972) This clumsy caper flick is true to its title. With Jean-Claude Killy, Danielle Gaubert, Cliff Pots, Vittorio De Sica. (C-90 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 13.

A SOLDIER'S STORY ●●● (1984) Perceptive and well-acted adaptation of Charles Fuller's Pulitzer Prize-winning drama, A Soldier's Play. In the waning days of World War II, the tough-nosed sergeant of an all-black army unit is found murdered, and the polished, black military lawyer sent to investigate discovers the finger of guilt pointing in unexpected directions. Rollins and Caesar (who was nominated for an Oscar for Best Supporting Actor) both give outstanding performances, but the real class of the cast is Denzel Washington as the Malcolm X-like Private Peterson. Music by Herbie Hancock. Adapted by Charles Fuller. Directed by Norman Jewison. With Howard E. Rollins, Jr., Adolph Caesar, Denzel Washington, Larry Riley, Art Evans, David Alan Grier, David Harris, Dennis Lipscomb, Wings Hauser, Patti LaBelle. (C-102 min) (Drama) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 18, 26; HBO: Jan. 9, 13, 17.

THE SOLID GOLD CADILLAC ●●● (1956) Holiday is in top form as a minor stock owner who thwarts the plans of her company's board of directors. Hilarious, feel-good, Capra-esque comedy. With Judy Holiday, Paul Douglas, John Williams, Fred Clark, Ray Collins, Arthur O'Connell. (Comedy) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 14.

SOMEONE LIKE YOU ●● (1978) A fairly-intriguing South African melodrama as two people see their romance turn into a courtroom custody case. With Janet du Plessis, Hans Strydom. LIFETIME: Jan. 13, 20.

SOMEWHERE, TOMORROW ●● Distraught over the death of her father and unable to get along with her mother, a sixteen year old discovers that life is worth living through the kindly intervention of a ghost. Acceptable family fare. With Sarah Jessica Parker, Nancy Addison. (C-91 min) (Drama) (PG) HTN: Jan. 9, 20, 26.

SON OF FURY ●●● (1942) Exciting eighteenth-century swashbuckler finds Power avenging himself on nefarious uncle Sanders. Remade as Treasure of the Golden Condor. Directed by John Cromwell. With Tyrone Power, Gene Tierney, George Sanders, Frances Farmer, Roddy McDowall, Kay Johnson, John Carradine, Elsa Lanchester, Harry Davenport, Dudley Digges, Ethel Griffies. (BW-98 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 12.

SONG OF TEXAS ●● (1943) The newly-crowned "King of the Cowboys" (succeeding Gene Autry) singing and shooting his way along the Texas trail. With Roy Rogers. NASHVILLE: Jan. 19, 20.

SORCERER ●●● (1977) A fascinating, stylish remake of the French classic The Wages of Fear that's certain to keep you on the edge of your seat. Four criminals, hiding out in a squalid South American town, "volunteer" to drive a truckload of nitroglycerine through some torturous jungle terrain. Needless to say, the odds on their surviving are close to nonexistent. Incredible, gut-wrenching score by Tangerine Dream. Directed by William Friedkin. With Roy Scheider, Bruno Cremer, Francisco Rabal, Amidou, Ramon Bieri, Peter Capell. (C-122 min) (Drama) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 26; Feb. 7.

SOUNDER ●●●● (1972) Sensitive, moving tale of a family of black sharecroppers in Louisiana during the depression. Winfield and Tyson are excellent as the parents of young Kevin Hooks who must come to terms with the realities of racism. Adapted by Lonne Elder III from a novel by William H. Armstrong. Directed by Martin Ritt. With Paul Winfield, Cicely Tyson, Kevin Hooks, Carmen Matthews. (C-105 min) (Drama) (G) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 10, 16, 20, 25, 28.

THE SOUTHERNER ●●●● (1945) The best and most-visually poetic of Jean Renoir's five American films. Reminiscent of The Grapes of Wrath in mood and theme, Scott plays a young farmer who gives up sharecropping and struggles, along with his family, to make it on his own growing cotton in Texas. Although Renoir is credited with the adapted screenplay, William Faulkner is rumored to have had a hand in it. A beautiful piece of filmmaking. Directed by Jean Renoir. With Zachary Scott, Betty Field, J. Carroll Naish, Beulah Bondi, Percy Kilbride, Blanche Yurka, Charles Kemper. (BW-91 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 13, 17.

SPITFIRE ●●● (1934) Convincing performance by Hepburn as a backwoods girl, known for her abilities as a faith healer, who falls in love with a married man from the city. With Katharine Hepburn, Robert Young, Ralph Bellamy. (BW-88 min) (Drama) (NR) NICKELODEON: Jan. 12, 18.

SPLASH ●●● (1984) Laugh-rich romantic fantasy about an interspecies love affair between businessman Hanks and a mysterious, blonde-tressed beauty who turns out to be half human, half fish. As the mermaid, Hannah proves herself to be both a gifted comedienne and a sensitive actress. A winner! Directed by Ron Howard. With Daryl Hannah, Tom Hanks, John Candy, Eugene Levy. (C-110 min) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 10, 19.

THE SPOILERS ●● (1942) Melodramatic western with Wayne a Yukon gold miner and Dietrich a saloon girl. Great fist fight between Wayne and Scott. With John Wayne, Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott, Richard Bathelmess. (BW-87 min) (Western) (NR) WOR: Jan. 9.

STACY'S KNIGHT ●● A demure and self-conscious lady blackjack player blooms when she hooks up with guy who knows how to play the percentages. (C-95 min) (Drama) (PG) HTN: Jan. 9, 12, 16, 19, 21, 26.

STAR 80 (1984) Director Bob Fosse's disturbing account of playmate-turned-movie-star Dorothy Stratten, who was murdered by her husband Paul Snider. As Stratten, Hemingway embodies the Playboy myth of "the girl next door," but ultimately the movie seems to be less about Stratten and more about her husband—probably because Eric Roberts' chilling portrayal is so overpowering that everything else in the movie pales in comparison. A very scary movie about those who make it in America and those who don't. With Mariel Hemingway, Eric Roberts, Cliff Robertson, Carroll Baker. (C-103 min) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 17, 29.

STAR OF MIDNIGHT ●●● (1935) A stylish variation on The Thin Man, as New York attorney Powell and marriage-hungry Rogers attempt to solve the mysterious disappearance of an actress. Directed by Stephen Roberts. With William Powell, Ginger Rogers, Paul Kelly, Gene Lockhart, Ralph Morgan, Leslie Fenton, J. Farrell McDonald. (BW-90 min) (Mystery) (NR) AMC: Jan. 18.

THE STAR PACKER ● (1934) With Green Bay, it always was a team effort. A western with John Wayne, Verna Hillie. ACTS: Jan. 16, 17.

STARMAN ● ● ● (1984) E.T. meets Stranger in a Strange Land as Bridges portrays an alien anthropologist who finds himself pursued by scientists and government officials when he lands on Earth. Along the way, he falls for the husky-voiced Allen, and it's their romance that makes this sci-fi fable more than just run-of-the-mill. With Jeff Bridges, Karen Allen. (C-115 min) (Sci-fi) (PG) SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 15, 19, 27; HBO: Jan. 12, 15, 19, 21.

STATE DEPARTMENT FILE 649 ● ● (1948) Low-budget espionage in the Orient. With Virginia Bruce, William Lundigan. (BW-87 min) SPN: Jan. 19.

STRAIGHT ON TILL MORNING ● ● (1972) Muddled thriller as Tushingham searches for a man who might be willing to father her child. Her quest takes her to London where she becomes involved with a psychopathic killer. Trivia enthusiasts should know that the title comes from Peter Pan. Written by Michael Peacock. Directed by Peter Collinson. With Rita Tushingham, Shane Briant, Tom Bell, Annie Ross, James Bolam, Claire Kelly. (C-96 min) (Drama) LIFETIME: Jan. 15, 22.

THE STRANGER ON THE THIRD FLOOR ● ● ● (1940) A reporter's testimony helps to convict a man of murder. Later, he discovers that the man was innocent and the real killer still is on the loose. Powerful noirish thriller. Written by Frank Partos. Directed by Boris Ingster. With John McGuire, Peter Lorre, Margaret Tallichet, Elisha Cook, Jr., Charles Waldron, Charles Halton, Ethel Griffies. (BW-63 min) (Mystery) (NR) AMC: Jan. 20.

THE STRATTON STORY ● ● ● (1949) Moving biopic of big leaguer Monty Stratton, who refused to give up his baseball career even after he had a leg amputated. Oscar winner for Original Story by Douglas Morrow. Directed by Sam Wood. With James Stewart, June Allyson, Frank Morgan, Agnes Moorehead, Bill Williams. (BW-106 min) (Drama) CINEMAX: Jan. 14, 22.

A STUDY IN SCARLET ● ● (1933) Early Sherlock Holmes mystery with Owen as the Conan Doyle sleuth. With Reginald Owen. (C-60 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 10, 12, 15, 18, 21.

SWANN IN LOVE ● ● (1984) Erotic, languorous adaptation of Marcel Proust's classic novel "Swann's Way," with Irons as the aristocrat whose social standing is destroyed when he becomes roamntically obsessed with a gold-digging courtesan. Well-acted by all. Directed by Volker Schondorff (The Tin Drum.) With Jeremy Irons, Ornella Muti, Fanny Ardant, Marie-Christine Barrault. (C-110 min) (Drama) (R-Nudity, mature situations) BRAVO: 16 (dubbed), 19 (subtitled.)

SWING SHIFT ● ● ● (1984) Fictionalized Rosie the Riveter as Hawn discovers herself when she lands a job at an airplane factory while husband Harris is off fighting in World War II. Russell is wonderful as the trumpet player she has an affair with, and Lahti is even better as her "tramp with a heart of gold" girlfriend. A moving piece of nostalgia with a slight feminist bite. Directed by Jonathan Demme (Melvin and Howard, Stop Making Sense.) With Goldie Hawn, Kurt Russell, Christine Lahti, Ed Harris, Fred Ward, Sudie Bond. (C-100 min) (Drama) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 9, 15, 19, 25, 28, 31; CINEMAX: Jan. 11, 15, 19.

SWING TIME ● ● ● ● (1936) Fred and Ginger sing and dance their way through such Jerome Kern-Dorothy Fields numbers as "Pick Yourself Up," "A Fine Romance" and "The Way You Look Tonight." Broderick, Blore and Moore all lend comic support to a plot which finds Fred a gambler engaged to a girl back home but hopelessly smitten by the delightful Rogers. Directed by George Stevens. With Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Helen Broderick, Eric Blore, Victor Moore. CINEMAX: Jan. 9, 13, 19.

THE SWORD OF THE VALIANT ● ● Enjoyable adaptation of the Arthurian legend of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight. With Sean Connery, Miles O'Keeffe, Trevor Howard. (C-102 min) (Adventure) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 15, 19, 24, 30.

A TALE OF FIVE WOMEN ● ● (1951) An RAF officer with amnesia has only five faded photographs as clues to his identity, and magazine writer Kelly parades him through five European capitals on a tour of self-discovery. Episodic ho-hummer. With Bonar Colleano, Barbara Kelly, Gina Lollobrigida, Lana Morris, Anne Veron, Eva Bartok. (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 12.

TALK TO ME ● ● Moving account of a man who decides to seek help because his stutter is destroying his personal life. With Austin Pendleton, Michael Murphy, Louise Fletcher. (C-90 min) HTN: Jan. 10, 16, 21, 29.

TANGO ● ● (1936) Ambition threatens to break up a dance team. With Marian Nixon, Chuck Chancler. (BW-66 min) SPN: Jan. 12.

TEN FROM YOUR SHOW OF SHOWS ● ● ● ● (1973) Hilarious excerpts from one of TV's funniest series, the legendary Your Show of Shows. With Sid Caesar, Imogene Coca, Carl Reiner, Howard Morris. (G) CINEMAX: Jan. 12, 16, 20.

TEN THOUSAND BEDROOMS ● ● (1957) Slapdash musical romance with Deano working hard to come up with a few meager laughs in his first without Lewis. Plotless story of an American tycoon buying a Rome hotel and falling in love with stenographer Alberghetti. With Dean Martin, Anna Maria Alberghetti, Eva Bartok, Walter Slezak, Paul Henreid. WOR: Jan. 13.

TENDER WARRIOR ● ● (1979) In the swamps of Georgia, a young boy and his pet chimp go after some moonshiners who are caging animals. For the family. With Dan Haggerty. (Family) (G) HBO: Jan. 10, 14, 19, 22.

TERMS OF ENDEARMENT ● ● ● ● (1983) It Happened One Night meets Love Story in this wildly-funny, tender blending of screwball comedy and sentimental drama. MacLaine, Winger and Nicholson give outstanding performances in this intertwined story of the thirty-year relationship between a daughter and her strong-willed, priggish mother. A four-hanky, five Academy Award winner, including Best Picture. Directed by James L. Brooks. With Shirley MacLaine, Debra Winger, Jack Nicholson, John Lithgow, Danny DeVito, Troy Bishop, Huckleberry Fox. (C-130 min) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 14, 18, 23.

THE TERROR OF TINY TOWN ● (1938) This all-midget musical western simply is one of the worst movies ever made. A favorite at "Golden Turkey" gatherings everywhere. Written by Fred Myton. Directed by Sam Newfield. With Billy Curtis, Yvonne Moray, Little Billy, Billy Platt, Johnny Bambary, Charles Becker, Nita Krebs. (BW-62 min) (Western) SPN: Jan. 22.

TESS OF THE STORM COUNTRY ● ● (1960) Solid, slow-moving remake of a 1932 Janet Gaynor vehicle (which in turn was a remake of a Mary Pickford silent) about a Scottish girl's difficulty adjusting to life in Pennsylvania Dutch country. Based on the novel by Grace White. With Diane Baker, Jack Ging, Lee Phillips, Wallace Ford, Bert Remsen. (C-84 min) (Drama) (NR) USA: Jan. 9.

TESTAMENT ● ● ● ● (1983) Heartrending, low-key drama about the effects of a nuclear holocaust on a close-knit, small-town American family. Alexander is unforgettable as the mother who courageously tries to maintain some sanity in the face of the greatest horror human beings ever will know. Originally filmed for PBS. Adapted by John Sacret Young from a story by Carol Amen. Directed by Lynne Littman. With Jane Alexander, William Devane, Roxana Zal, Ross Harris, Lukas Haas, Philip Anglim, Lilia Skala, Leon Ames, Rebecca DeMornay, Mako, Lorene Tuttle. (C-90 min) (Drama) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 13, 18, 23, 28.

TEX RIDES WITH THE BOY SCOUTS ■ (1938) Ritter teaches some tenderfeet that there's more to life than earning merit badges. A twentieth-century western with Tex Ritter. NASHVILLE: Jan. 12, 13.

TEXAS ACROSS THE RIVER ● ● (1966) Spoofy western comedy with Martin a Texas gunrunner, Bishop his Indian sidekick and Delon a Spanish nobleman on the run from love problems. Nothing much jells, and the humor is basically for the drunken drive-in crowd. With Dean Martin, Joey Bishop, Alain Delon, Peter Graves, Tina Marquand. WOR: Jan. 15.

TEXAS TERROR ● ● (1935) Believing he's responsible for his best friend's death, Sheriff Wayne gives up his badge to take up prospecting. Routine oater. With John Wayne, Lucille Brown, LeRoy Mason, George Hayes, Buffalo Bill Jr., Yakima Canutt. (Western) (NR) WGN: Jan. 20.

THAT UNCERTAIN FEELING ● ● ● (1941) Stylish Lubitsch comedy from his post-Ninotchka period about a married couple. Directed by Ernst Lubitsch. With Merle Oberon, Melvyn Douglas, Burgess Meredith. NICKELODEON: Jan. 10.

THE MAN FROM BUTTON WILLOW ● ● (1965) Animated western for the kids about the first U.S. undercover agent trying to stop land swindlers during the building of the first transcontinental railroad. Voices of Dale Robertson, Edgar Buchanan, Herschel Bernardi, Howard Keel, Ross Martin. (C-84 min) (Adventure) WGN: Jan. 11.

THESE THREE ● ● ● (1936) Granville is superb as a young student who creates a scandal by spreading lies about two of her female teachers in this compelling, but sanitized adaptation of Lillian Hellman's play about lesbianism, The Children's Hour. Oddly enough, even though the then-taboo subject was jettisoned in favor of extramarital affairs, this version works better than the supposedly more-accurate 1961 remake called The Children's Hour. Photography by Gregg Toland. Directed by William Wyler, who also directed the remake. With Miriam Hopkins, Merle Oberon, Joel McCrea, Walter Brennan, Bonita Granville. (BW-92 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 16, 25.

THEY ALL LAUGHED ● ● ● (1981) Amusing Nashville-like tale of four private detectives in New York City. Worth watching to see the late Stratten as a gum-chewing comedienne. Directed by Peter Bogdanovich. With Audrey Hepburn, Ben Gazzara, John Ritter, Dorothy Stratten, Colleen Camp, Blaine Novak, Patti Hansen, George Morphogen, Sean Ferrer. (C-115 min) (Comedy) HBO: Jan. 10, 12, 16, 21.

THEY MADE ME A CRIMINAL ● ● ● (1939) Garfield delivers another knockout performance as a fugitive prizefighter who thinks he killed another boxer in the ring. Remake of The Life of Jimmy Dolan. Directed by Busby Berkeley. With John Garfield, Claude Rains, Ann Sheridan, The Dead End Kids, Gloria Dickson, Mary Robson, Ward Bond. NICKELODEON: Jan. 15.

THEY SHOOT HORSES, DON'T THEY? ● ● ● ● (1969) During the depression, numerous people, who are down on their luck, compete for prize money in a marathon dance contest. Cynical, depressing and utterly compelling. Young won the Oscar as the seedy organizer of the event. Based on the novel by Horace McCoy. Directed by Sydney Pollack. With Gig Young, Jane Fonda, Michael Sarrazin, Susannah York, Red Buttons, Bonnie Bedelia, Bruce Dern. (C) (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 9.

THIEF OF HEARTS ● ● (1985) Burglar Bauer steals the diary of a woman and, when he discovers how hot her fantasies are, sets out to seduce her. Gross violation of not only an individual's right to privacy, but also of an individual's right to see a good movie. Written and directed by Douglas Day Stewart. With Steven Bauer, Barbara Williams, John Getz. (C-100 min) (R-Nudity) SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 18, 22, 27, 31.

THE THING ● ● ● ● (1951) Sci-fi classic with James Arness (alias Sheriff Matt Dillon) as an alien plant-like humanoid dug out of the ice in the arctic by a team of research scientists. The creature needs blood to thrive after he thaws out, and some of the scientists make for unwilling donors. Tense melodramatic action, and the low budget doesn't make a bit of difference. With Kenneth Tobey, Robert Cornthwaite, Margaret Sheridan, James Arness, Douglas Spencer and George Fenneman from The Groucho Show. (BW-87 min) (Sci-fi) (NR) AMC: Jan. 12.

THE THIRD MAN ● ● ● ● (1949) "In Italy, for thirty years under the Borgias, they had warfare, terror, murder and bloodshed, but they produced Michaelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci and the Renaissance. In Switzerland, they had brotherly love; they had 500 years of democracy and peace—and what did they produce? The cuckoo clock. So long, Holly." Carol Reed's classic thriller, corroded in cynicism, wonderfully cinematic, set in the bombed-out shell of post-war Vienna where pulp western novelist Cotton comes and discovers that his boyhood friend, Harry Lime (Welles), is supposedly dead. Marvelously atmospheric, enhanced by the original zither music of Anton Karas. CINEMAX: Jan. 10, 20.

THE THIRTY-NINE STEPS ●● (1978) British remake of the Hitchcock classic about an innocent man pursued by both the police and foreign spies lacks the master's gift for riveting suspense. With Robert Powell, Dabid Warner. (Drama) (NR) CINEMAX: Jan. 13.

THIS IS SPINAL TAP ●●●● (1984) "Big bottoms, she's got 'em." Unbelievably-funny parody of a rockumentary on the rise and fall of a heavy metal group with the unappetizing name "Spinal Tap." Full of in jokes, the humor is so subtle that at times you'll wonder whether you're watching a satire or the real thing. In fact, when this film was first screened, many of the teenagers who saw it admitted they liked it, but wondered why they hadn't chosen to document the career of a better band like, say, "Van Halen" or "Motley Crue." Script and music written by Christopher Guest, Michael McKean, Harry Shearer and Rob Reiner. (C-82 min) (Drama) (NR) SELEC TV: Jan. 12, 21, 25.

THE THREE AND ONE-HALF MUSKETEERS ● Dubbed Spanish film as Tin Tan rescues Porthos, Athos and Aramis. SPN: Jan. 16; NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 14, 16.

THREE CAME HOME ●●● (1950) Unforgettable account of British families living in a World War II Japanese concentration camp. Hayakawa as the commandant and Colbert as the interned writer Agnes Newton Keith, on whose autobiography this film was based, are equally riveting. Potent stuff. Directed by Jean Negulesco. With Claudette Colbert, Sessue Hayakawa, Patric Knowles. (Drama) (NR) USA: Jan. 13.

THREE HOURS TO KILL ●●● (1954) A stagecoach driver-turned-gunfighter, Andrews returns to the town where he was accused of killing his fiancee's brother to find the real killer. Tense, tightly-paced western. With Dana Andrews, Donna Reed, Stephen Elliot, Dianne Foster, Richard Coogan. (C-77 min) WTBS: Jan. 10.

THREE LITTLE SISTERS ●● (1944) "Don't you do what your big sister done." Distaff drama. With Mary Lee, Ruth Terry. (NR) CBN: Jan. 16.

THE TOAST OF NEW YORK ●●● (1937) Fictitious film bio of robber baron Jim Fisk (Arnold), with Grant as his honest partner and Farmer as the woman both men want. Directed by Rowland V. Lee. With Edward Arnold, Cary Grant, Frances Farmer, Jack Oakie, Donald Meek, Clarence Kolb, Billy Gilbert, Stanley Fields. (BW-109 min) (Drama) (NR) USA: Jan. 21.

TOBY AND THE KOALA BEAR ●● Animated adventure for the kids about a young boy sentenced to work in an Australian convict's colony and the koala bear he befriends. (C-76 min) (Family feature) (G) SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 15, 20.

TOP HAT ●●●● (1935) Classic Astaire and Rogers musical as they sing and dance their way through a collection of dazzling Irving Berlin songs like "Cheek to Cheek," "Isn't This a Lovely Day" and "Top Hat, White Tie and Tails." Great comic relief from Horton and Blore. Oh yeah, the plot hinges upon Ginger thinking that Fred already is married. Directed by Mark Sandrich. With Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Edward Everett Horton, Helen Broderick, Eric Blore, Erik Rhodes. (BW-98 min) (NR) SLEC TV: Jan. 9, 18; CINEMAX: Jan. 13, 21.

TOPPER RETURNS ●●● (1941) Last entry in the Topper series, and arguably the most hilarious. Cosmo finds himself involved in a murder mystery. With Joan Blondell, Roland Young, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson. (BW-87 min) SPN: Jan. 12.

THE TORCH ●● (1950) Over-blown romance as a Mexican revolutionary woos the daughter of an aristocrat. Directed by Emilio Fernandez. With Paulette Goddard, Pedro Armendariz, Gilbert Roland, Walter Reed. (BW-90 min) (Drama) ACTS: Jan. 9.

TRACK OF THE CAT ●● (1954) A hunt for a cattle-marauding cougar is set against the family strife within a snowbound farmhouse in Northern California in this unusually-ambitious, offbeat and atmospherically-depressing adaptation of a Walter Van Tilburg Clark novel. Mitchum gives an outstanding performance, but the final result is diminished by the incredibly-slow pacing. Directed by William Wellman, who also directed the excellent adaptation of Van Tilburg Clark's The Ox-Bow Incident. With Robert Mitchum, Teresa Wright, Tab Hunter, Diana Lynn, Beulah Bondi, Philip Tonge. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 22.

TRACKERS ●● (1955) The Lone Ranger and Tonto follow the trail of some bad men. With Clayton Moore, Jay Silverheels. (Western) CBN: Jan. 18.

TRAPPED ●● (1973) A man is mugged and left unconscious in a department store at closing tine. He awakens to find himself surrounded by vicious, flesh-chewing guard dogs. Dull paranoia film. With James Brolin, Susan Clark, Earl Holliman, Robert Hooks. SPN: Jan. 22.

TRENCHCOAT ●● (1983) Disappointing Hitchcock-like comic thriller with Kidder a mystery writer who gets involved with spies. A Walt Disney Production. Directed by Michael Tuchner. With Margot Kidder, Robert Hays, David Suchet, Gila Von Weitershausen, Daniel Faraldo. (C-91 min) (Thriller) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 12, 15, 18, 21; SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 19, 23; CINEMAX: Jan. 14, 18, 19.

TRIPLE ECHO ●●● (1973) High-powered acting lifts this tale about a transvestite/deserter hiding from the British military police. Also know as Soldier in Skirts. With Glenda Jackson, Oliver Reed. LIFETIME: Jan. 10, 17.

THE TROUBLE WITH HARRY ●●●● (1955) Unusual, wickedly-funny comedy about the attempts of various residents in a New England town to get rid of a corpse named Harry. A radical departure for Hitchcock, and it works. Photography by Robert Burks. Music by Bernard Herrmann. Written by John Michael Hayes. Directed by Alfred Hitchcock. With Edmund Gwenn, Mildred Natwick, Shirley MacLaine (film debut), John Forsythe, Mildred Dunnock, Royal Dano, Jerry "Beaver" Mathers. (C-99 min) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 22, 26, 30.

THE TRUTH ABOUT SPRING ●●● (1965) Lovable, but wyly fisherman Mills feels it's time daughter Hayley had her first boyfriend and takes young lawyer MacArthur aboard. Light romantic comedy for adolescents. With John Mills, Hayley Mills, James MacArthur. (Comedy) (NR) WGN: Jan. 12.

THE TWELVE MONTHS ●● Anya, a poor little orphan girl, learns that true kindness always is rewarded. An animated special for the whole family. (104 min) (Family feature) (NR) HTN: Jan. 17, 20, 28; SELEC TV: Jan. 11, 15, 26.

TWISTED BRAIN ●● (1974) Or revenge of the wimp. A bright but nerdy high school kid develops a formula that can turn him into a monster, and then he gets even with all the jocks who kicked sand in his face and the teachers who ridiculed him. Good for grisly laughs in spite of the super-cheap production and bargain-basement acting. Originally titled Horror High. With Pat Cardi, Rosie Holotik, John Niland, Joye Hash, Austin Stoker. WPIX: Jan. 12.

TWO WEEKS TO LIVE ●● (1943) Standard Lum and Abner comedy. With Lum and Abner. (Comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 14, 20.

UNCOMMON VALOR (1984) After ten years of going through proper channels with no results, a military career officer organizes a raid on a Laotian POW camp to rescue his son who's been listed as "missing in action" since the Vietnam War. With Gene Hackman, Robert Stack. (C-105 min) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 17, 20, 28.

UNDER THE VOLCANO ●●●● (1984) "Christ, what a dingy way to die." John Huston's adaptation of Malcom Lowry's supposedly-unfilmable literary masterpiece. Set against the chaotic, symbol-rich backdrop of Mexico, an alcoholic, brooding and majestically-doomed ex-British consul lives out his last hours in a self-destructive descent into damnation. Much of the novel's baroque, multi-layered texture has been pared, but its intensity remains in Huston's cinematic evocation and a staggering (in all senses of the word) performance by Albert Finney. Directed by John Huston from the script by Guy Gallo. With Albert Finney, Jacqueline Bisset, Anthony Andrews, Katy Jurado, Indio Fernandez, Ignacio Lopez Tarso, James Villiers, Emilio Fernandez, Gunter Meisner, Carlos Riquelme, Rene Ruiz. (C-112 min) (Adventure) (R) SHOWTIME: Jan. 10.

UNFAITHFULLY YOURS ●● (1984) Remake of the marvelous Preston Sturges film starrring Dudley Moore as a renown and respectable symphony conductor who degenerates into a jealousy-crazed lunatic when he suspects his young and beautiful Italian wife of dallying around. Can't touch the original, but Moore has his comic turns down pat and the elegantly-sensual Kinski is effectively casted to type. Directed by Howard Zieff. With Dudley Moore, Nastassja Kinski, Armand Assante, Albert Brooks, Cassie Yates, Richard Libertini. (C-96 min) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 16, 22, 26, 31.

UNICO IN THE ISLAND OF MAGIC ●● For the kiddies. (C-89 min) (Fantasy) (G) SELEC TV: Jan. 12, 18, 24, Feb. 6.

AN UNMARRIED WOMAN ●●●● (1978) Paul Mazursky's poignant, perceptive and stylishly-modern story of a woman piecing back together her emotional life after her husband, completely out of the blue, ups and leaves her for another. Clayburgh gives a moving, Oscar-nominated performance that beautifully balances the earnest with the vulnerable, the humor with the hurt. Written and directed by Paul Mazursky. With Jill Clayburgh, Alan Bates, Michael Murphy, Cliff Gorman, Pat Quinn, Kelly Bishop, Lisa Lucas. WPIX: Jan. 12.

THE UNSUSPECTED ●● (1947) Rains shines in this polished but belabored mystery thriller. A seemingly mild-mannered radio crime show commentator, he's forced to revealing incriminating clues over the air after he does away with young niece Caulfield. With Claude Rains, Joan Caulfield, Constnace Bennett, Audrey Totter, Fred Clark. (BW-103 min) (Mystery) WTBS: Jan. 14.

UNTIL SEPTEMBER ●● (1984) While in Paris, tourist Allen falls for a married banker whose wife and family are away for the summer. Cliche-ridden romantic drama. Directed by Richard Marquand. With Karen Allen, Thierry Lhermitte, Christopher Cazenove, Marie-Christina Conti, Nitza Saul, Hutton Cobb. (R) CINEMAX: Jan. 14.

UPTOWN NEW YORK ●● (1932) Two lonely people with shady reputations fall in love. With Jack Oakie, Shirley Grey. (BW-80 min) (Drama) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 9, 19, 20.

THE VAGABOND LOVER ●● (1929) Pleasant musical-comedy with Vallee a saxophone playing crooner who pretends to be a great impressario. Dressler steals the show as a society matron. Songs include "If You Were the Only Girl in the World" and "I'm Just a Vagabond Lover." Directed by Marshall Neilan. With Rudy Vallee, Sally Blaine, Marie Dressler, Charles Sellon, Norman Peck, Danny O'Shea, Nella Walker, Malcolm Waite and the Connecticut Yankees. (BW-69 min) (Musical-comedy) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 13, 22.

VALLEY OF FEAR ●●● Sherlock Holmes investigates a mystery involving a cutthroat band of thieves in this animated feature. Based on the story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. With the voice of Peter O'Toole. (C-48 min) (Cartoon) SHOWTIME: Jan. 17, 21, 26, 29.

THE VICTORS ●●● (1963) Rambling, big cast war drama following an American infantry platoon as they fight and love their way across Europe during World War II. Lots of action and some good performances hold it together. With George Peppard, George Hamilton, Eli Wallach, Jeanne Moreau, Vince Edwards, Romy Schneider, Albert Finney, Peter Fonda, Melina Mercouri, Senta Berger, Michael Callan. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 14.

THE VIKING QUEEN ●● (1967) In first-century Britain, the Druids are raising hell with their Roman occupiers, and their queen tries to mediate peace. Lame period costume adventure. With Don Murray, Carita, Donald Houston, Andrew Keir. (Historical) (NR) WGN: Jan. 16.

VIRGINIA FLY IS DROWNING ●● Moving BBC made-for-TV movie about a spinster school teacher who dreams of romance. With Anna Massey. A&E NETWORK: Jan. 13, 14.

VOYAGE TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA ● ● ● (1961) Silly, though entertaining sci-fi tale with Admiral Nelson (Pidgeon) and his experimental submarine fighting the clock and skullduggery aboard to destroy a radiation belt threatening the Earth. An Irwin Allen film with some good effects that served as the basis for the even sillier TV series. With Walter Pidgeon, Robert Sterling, Joan Fontaine, Peter Lorre, Barbara Eden, Michael Ansara, Frankie Avalon. (C-105 min) (NR) WOR: Jan. 12; WGN: Jan. 12.

WALK PROUD ● ● (1979) Honest account of a Chicano lad who falls for his beautiful WASP classmate. Directed by Robert Collins. With Robby Benson, Sarah Holcomb, Domingo Ambriz, Pepe Serna, Trinidad Silva. (C-102 min) (Drama) HBO: Jan. 10, 15, 18.

WALKING TALL, FINAL CHAPTER ● (1977) Tennessee Sheriff Buford Pusser continues to swing his bat at corruption wherever he finds it—that is, until he dies in a mysterious, fiery accident. This is unquestionably the worst of the three theatrical films made about Pusser. With Bo Svenson, Margaret Blye, Leif Garrett, Forrest Tucker. (C-112 min) (Drama) (NR) KTVT: Jan. 17.

WALTZ ACROSS TEXAS ● ● (1982) Love among the oil wells. Modest, likable romance. Based on a novel by Max Crawford. With Anne Archer, Terry Jastrow, Richard Farnsworth. LIFETIME: Jan. 11, 13, 20.

THE WAR LOVER ● ● (1962) Two pilots, one girl. Get the picture? Good action in the air, but the plot gets shot down on the field. Taken from the John Hersey World War II novel set in England. With Steve McQueen, Robert Wagner, Shirley Ann Field. (Drama) (NR) WGN: Jan. 15.

THE WAR OF THE ROBOTS ● (1978) Silly sci-fi fantasy. With James R. Stuart, Melissa Long. (Sci-fi) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 20.

THE WASHINGTON AFFAIR ● ● Political melodrama. (Drama) (NR) LIFETIME: Jan. 14, 21.

WEEKEND PASS ● (1984) Lighthearted, and definitely lightheaded comedy about four Navy recruits on the make during a seventy-two-hour period in Los Angeles. Compare this to Gene Kelly's On the Town and you'll understand why people always are complaining about how they don't make movies like they used to. Written and directed by Lawrence Bassoff. With D.W. Brown, Peter Ellenstein, Patrick Hauser, Chip McAllister, Pamela G. Kay, Hilary Shapiro, Grand L. Bush. (C-88 min) (R) HBO: Jan. 11, 17, 20.

WELL OF LOVE ● ● (1950) Lassie saves a few humans in this family adventure. With Lassie, Robert Donner. CBN: Jan. 12.

WEST OF THE DIVIDE ● (1934) "Where the law book is no good." A western with John Wayne. (Western) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 16, 19, 20.

THE WESTERNER ● ● ● ● (1940) Unforgettable western with Brennan winning his third Oscar as Judge Roy Bean, a vicious land-grabber with a fatal attraction for Miss Lily Langtry. The final sequence where Brennan purchases every seat in a theater so that he alone can watch Langtry perform is a classic. Directed by William Wyler. With Gary Cooper, Walter Brennan, Doris Davenport, Forrest Tucker, Dana Andrews. (BW-100 min) (Adventure) (NR) AMC: Jan. 17.

WHITE PONGO ● (1945) Turgid romantic adventure. With Richard Fraser, Maris Wrixon. (Adventure) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 10, 13, 15, 17, 20.

WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF? ● ● ● ● (1966) "Rubbing alcohol for you, Martha?" A soul-searching night in the lives of four residents of a New England college community. The brilliant ensemble acting (Burton should have won an Oscar; Taylor and Dennis did) coupled with dialogue that snarls and growls, make this one of the most important American films of the sixties. Academy Award-winning black-and-white photography by Haskell Wexler. Adapted by Ernest Lehman from the play by Edward Albee. Directed by Mike Nichols. With Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton, Sandy Dennis, George Segal. (BW-129 min) (Drama) (PG) AMC: Jan. 16, 26.

WILFRED AND EILEEN ● ● Young British couple attempts to cope with the horrors of World War I. Average BBC made-for-TV movie. With Judi Bowker, Christopher Guard. A&E NETWORK: Jan. 13, 14.

WILL PENNY ● ● ● ● (1968) Moving western about a romance between an aging range rider and an abandoned married woman. The cast is uniformly good, but the standouts are Heston, Pleasance and Hackett. Heston delivers an earthy performance as the crusty old cowboy, Hacket as the woman who wants to share her life with him and Pleasance as a Bible-quoting outlaw patriarch determined to torment and destroy all who cross his path. The final scenes will have you in tears. Directed by Tom Gries. With Charlton Heston, Joan Hackett, Donald Pleasance, Bruce Dern, Lee Majors, Anthony Zerbe, Ben Johnson. (Western) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 9.

WILLIE WONKA AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY ● ● (1971) Muscial fantasy for the kids, with Wilder conducting tours of his mysterious factory and offering a group of youngsters the opportunity to win a lifetime supply of candy. Based on Roald Dahl's children's book. With Gene Wilder, Jack Albertson, Ursala Reit. (C-100 min) (Family feature) (G) HTN: Jan. 11, 18, 23, 29; CINEMAX: Jan. 19.

THE WISTFUL WIDOW OF WAGON GAP ● ● (1947) Marjorie Main teams up with Bud and Lou in this minor western comedy about a widow more than willing to put her brand on the bumbler who killed her husband. With Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Marjorie Main, George Cleveland. (Comedy) (NR) WGN: Jan. 11.

WITH CLEAN HANDS ● ● (1983) Sanitized mystery. With Ilarion Ciobanu, Sergia Nicolaescu. (Mystery) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 22.

A WOMAN CALLED MOSES ● ● ● (1978) Moving made-for-TV bio of Harriet Tubman, the black woman who masterminded the underground railroad which helped slaves escape the pre-Civil War South. Tyson is spectacular as Tubman, and there are scenes of slavery and human degradation that will sear the soul. With Cicely Tyson, Will Geer, Robert Hooks, John Getz. WOR: Part I: Jan. 16; Part II: Jan. 17; WTBS: Part I: Jan. 21; Part II: Jan. 22.

THE WOMAN IN GREEN ● ● (1945) A series of murdered young women, found with their right forefingers cut off, has Scotland Yard baffled. Holmes is called in and discovers a blackmail ring headed by the beautiful and deadly Lydia, who has teamed up with Holmes' old arch-nemesis Dr. Moriarty. With Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Hillary Brooke, Henry Daniell. (BW-68 min) (Mystery) (NR) NOSTALGIA: Jan. 15, 21.

THE WOMAN IN WHITE ● ● ● (1948) The fifth adaptation of the Wilkie Collins novel (the first four all were done during the silent era.) Moody, though a bit stolid, gothic thriller with Young taking a job as a tutor and being pulled into the dark currents of a strange Victorian household. Parker and Greenstreet (as the villanous count) are particularly good in their roles. With Gig Young, Eleanor Parker, Sidney Greenstreet, Alexis Smith, Agnes Moorehead, John Emery, John Abbott. (Mystery) (NR) WTBS: Jan. 21.

WONDER OF IT ALL ● ● Nature documentary features rare footage of the most amazing animals from the world's seven continents. Includes scenes of stampeding herds of caribou, exotic apes at play and Australia's beautiful Lyre bird. (C-133 min) (Documentary) (NR) DISNEY: Jan. 12, 17, 21, 25, 28, 30.

WRECKING CREW ● (1942) A brawny nail-pounder runs into trouble when his co-workers decide he's a Jonah. With Richard Arlen. SPN: Jan. 10.

WUTHERING HEIGHTS ● ● ● ● (1939) Olivier is Heathcliff and Oberon is Cathy in this haunting, romantic adaptation of Emily Bronte's famous Gothic novel. Oscar-winning photography by Gregg Toland. Script by Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur. Directed by William Wyler. With Laurence Oliver, Merle Oberon, David Niven, Flora Robson, Donald Crisp, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Leo G. Carroll, Cecil Kellaway. (BW-103 min) (Drama) (NR) AMC: Jan. 22, 26; SELEC TV: Jan. 12.

YENTL ● ● (1983) Maligned by critics as an empty-headed ego trip, this Barbra Streisand adaptation of an Isaac Bashevis Singer story is not as bad as you've heard. But don't get me wrong, because it's not that good either. It's essentially a rather mediocre film about a young Jewish woman who masquerades as a man to continue her schooling at a males-only institution. The sets are derivative, the camerawork uninteresting and even Streisand's songs are forgettable. A major disappointment. Directed by Barbra Streisand. With Barbra Streisand, Mandy Patinkin, Amy Irving. (C-133 min) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 14, 19, 24, 27; HBO: Jan. 11, 16, 22; HTN: Jan. 10, 19, 24.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU ● ● ● ● (1938) A piquant piece of Capra-corn served up with delicious wit and zany humor. When the daughter of a happy-go-lucky family falls in love with the son of a wealthy businessman, all the skeletons and eccentricities of each clan come tumbling out of the closet. A blue-ribbon cast heads up this delightful comedy that deflates the glorified myth of the self-made man as an American hero. Taken from the Moss Hart/George S. Kaufman play, and an Oscar-winner for Best Picture and Best Director. Directed by Frank Capra. With Jean Arthur, Lionel Barrymore, James Stewart, Edward Arnold, Ann Miller, Spring Byington, Mischa Auer, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, Harry Davenport and xylophonist Dub Taylor. (BW-127 min) (Comedy) (NR) SHOWTIME: Jan. 13, 18, 22, 28.

YOU LIGHT UP MY LIFE ● ● (1977) Conn plays a singer/songwriter struggling to realize herself in this syrupy programmer that showcases the popular title sung by Debby Boone. Written and directed by Joseph Brooks. With Didi Conn, Joe Silver. (PG) CINEMAX: Jan. 18, 22.

YOU'LL FIND OUT ● ● (1940) Silly musical-comedy chiller as band leader Kay Kyser and his Kollege of Knowledge are hired to play a party where the hostess is in danger of being bumped off by a trio of weirdos portrayed by Karloff, Lugosi and Lorre. The Johnny Mercer/Jimmy McHugh songs include "You've Got Me This Way," "The Bad Humour Man," "I've Got a One Track Mind" and "Don't Think It Ain't Been Charming." Written by James V. Kern. Directed by David Butler. With Kay Kyser, Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Helen Parrish, Alma Kruger, Joseph Eggenton and the Kollege of Knowledge featuring the likes of Ish Kabibble, Ginny Simms, Harry Babbitt, Sully Mason. (BW-97 min) (Musical) (NR) AMC: Jan. 11.

YOU'RE IN THE NAVY NOW ● ● (1951) Despite the presence of Coop, a forgettable comedy about sailors biding their time on the U.S.S. Teakettle. Notable for the film debuts of Marvin and Bronson. Directed by Henry Hathaway. With Gary Cooper, Lee Marvin, Jane Greer, Eddie Albert, Millard Mitchell, Jack Webb, Charles Buchinski (Bronson.) (Comedy) (NR) USA: Jan. 22.

YOUNG AND DANGEROUS ● ● (1957) Standard melodrama as a lawless youth is saved by the love of a good woman. Directed by William Claxton. With Mark Damon, Edward Binns, Lili Gentle, Connie Stevens, Ann Doran. (BW-78 min) (Drama) CBN: Jan. 10.

YOUR CHEATIN' HEART ● ● ● (1964) Hamilton is quite believable as country-and-western hellbrand Hank Williams in this moving biopic of one of America's greatest singer-songwriters. Songs dubbed by Hank Williams, Jr. Directed by Gene Nelson. With George Hamilton, Susan Oliver, Red Buttons, Arthur O'Connell, Rex Ingram. (BW-99 min) (Drama) (PG) SHOWTIME: Jan. 11, 19, 23.

ZELIG ● ● ● ● (1983) Brilliant black-and-white, newsreel-like docu-comedy of the misadventures of chameleon-man Leonard Zelig who, lacking a personality of his own, survives by adopting whatever identity he feels will most please the person he is with. Includes perhaps the most outrageous verbal gag uttered since the demise of Groucho when Allen as Zelig discloses his disagreement with Freud concerning the matter of penis envy. State-of-the-art cinematography by Gordon Willis. Written and directed by Woody Allen. With Woody Allen, Mia Farrow. (BW-84 min) (PG) THE MOVIE CHANNEL: Jan. 11, 16, 22, 27, 31.

1985 BLOCKBUSTER FILMS IN REVIEW

BY R.C. DICKERSON AND MICHAEL SCHULLER

The following list of movies includes the top fourteen box office hits of 1985. To be included in this review, films must have grossed at least $38 million in their theatrical runs. Watch for many of these films to premiere on satellite TV in 1986.

R.C. Dickerson and Michael Schuller are Satellite DISH Magazine's California-based film critics.

1985 was a disappointing year for the Hollywood industry. In contrast to last year's near-record business, only a few movies did respectably at the box office, while the majority either bombed or had short, moderately-profitable runs. Perhaps, it had something to do with the rise of the VCR? Perhaps, it had more to do with the absence of any Lucas or Spielberg-directed—emphasis on directed—blockbusters. Of course, there were three megahits to take up the slack (and spare change.) Beverly Hills Cop, Back to the Future and Rambo all did their bit to offset the deficit. But three movies do not a banner year make.

The following list of movies includes the top box-office hits of 1985. Each is listed based on its position in terms of receipts (dollar amount grossed) as of November 27. It's now apparent that as the year progresses, these films will be joined by at least a pair of late releases. We're speaking, of course, of the Glenn Close-Jeff Bridges mystery, Jagged Edge, which continues to show staying power despite being aimed mainly at an adult crowd, and Sly Stallone's latest contribution to detente, the patriotic pug fantasy, Rocky IV. However, these movies' late release dates prevented them from being included in this roundup. So keeping in mind these exceptions, herewith are those films that most established themselves as winners at the box office this past year.

BEVERLY HILLS COP

By now, everyone should know that Beverly Hills Cop is one of the box office wonders of the age, out-grossing such previous blockbusters as last year's Ghostbusters and the Steven Spielberg adventure, Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom. And just in case you've been vacationing on a distant planet and haven't had a chance to catch this flick, the reason for its huge success is the casting of Saturday Night Live vet Eddie Murphy as Axel Foley, a Detroit undercover cop who takes a "vacation" to Beverly Hills to investigate the gangland-style slaying of one of his best friends.

Admittedly, Beverly Hills Cop boasts a narrative line that anyone raised on a diet of TV police shows could figure out during the opening credit sequence. But frankly, who cares? It's also full of individual Eddie Murphy scenes guaranteed not just to tickle your funnybone, but to lay siege to it. Who could sit stonefaced while Murphy dresses down a U.S. customs outfit for a lapse in security a la his showstopping redneck bar scene in 48 Hrs., or fail to crack up when he persuades a recalcitrant maitre d' to admit him to a millionaires-only restaurant by pretending to be a homosexual who thoughtfully wants to inform one of the diners that he may have contracted a case of herpes during a night of mutual indiscretion? It's a fabulous comedic performance and, in our opinion, Murphy's best to date.

Directed by Martin Brest. Also with Judge Reinhold, Lisa Eilbacher, John Ashton, Ronny Cox, Steven Berkoff. (R)

BACK TO THE FUTURE

Imagine Disney hiring the Marx Brothers as creative consultants, and you'll have some idea of the comic chaos that reigns over the Steven Spielberg-produced/Robert Zemeckis-directed smash hit Back to the Future. It's as if The Absent Minded Professor spent A Night at the Opera.

Starring Michael J. Fox (of TV's Family Ties), this wacked-out, time-travel fantasy loops together elements from Freud, Einstein, H.G. Wells and Rocky, and Bullwinkle's Mr. Peabody with his wayback machine—in this case a souped-up DeLorean. Fox is catapulted from the eighties, where his life plays like an SCTV family sitcom called Father Knows Worst right back to the fifties. In this more halcyon time, when full service at a gas station really meant full service, our hero finds himself in an Oedipal jam when his own mother, now a lusty teenager, falls for him. We won't tell you how he straightens out the mess, but we will tell you that you won't be bored for a second.

Back to the Future is full of the funniest gags and gimmicks to come this way in many a moon. It's filled with a plethora of jokes comparing the then and now, including a series on Reagan that will have Democrats and Republicans alike howling in the aisles. You'll even find out who taught rock n' roller Chuck Berry how to play the guitar. All in all, it was the fun movie of the year, and one that you'll want to see again and again.

Also with Christopher Lloyd, Lea Thompson, Crispin Glover. (PG)

RAMBO: FIRST BLOOD PART II

Ted Kotcheff's First Blood was a hard-hitting, extremely-violent parable about America's involvement in Vietnam. Its sequel, Rambo: First Blood Part II, is an action-packed, wish-fulfillment fantasy which actually suggests that one man armed to the teeth with the latest in advanced weaponry can destroy sizable portions of both the Soviet and North Vietnamese armies. Far-fetched to say the least, but theater audiences didn't flock to Rambo for its realism. They went for blood and guts, and in that department Rambo delivers...with a vengeance.

The star of this rousing flagwaver is Sylvester Stallone, who seems an odd choice to play such a gung-ho, Sgt. Rock-like soldier, considering that he avoided the draft by spending a good part of the Vietnam war years teaching gym at an all-girls Swiss boarding school. Still, he looks the role: Biceps bulging, pectorals the size of a small condo, his whole body glazed with more Vaseline than Bob Guccione puts on a lens for one of his PENTHOUSE Pet portraits. This man is, pure and simple, a killing machine.

When Richard Crenna, as his ex-commander, tells him that the U.S. government wants him to return to Vietnam to take pictures of potential POW camps, anyone with half a brain knows that Rambo is going to do more than aim his Kodak at some grass huts. I mean we're talking Uzi-Power, M-16 Mania and, believe it or not, a modern-day crossbow that shoots silent and cuts deep. Rambo queries: "Do we get to win this time?" And this movie responds with a thundering "yes." How could it miss at the box office?

COCOON

As a film that metamorphosed into one of last summer's box-office hits, Cocoon proved one thing conclusively: Ponce de Leon had the right place, just the wrong time—about 400 years wrong. For Don Ameche, Wilford Brimley and Hume Cronyn, three old codgers residing in a St. Petersburg, Florida, retirement community, the fountain of youth turns out to be the indoor swimming pool of a nearby mansion they sneak into for occasional dips. And it's after one such plunge that they suddenly find themselves as spry as pups, and as horny as teenagers at a drive-in movie: Illness replaced by schoolboy cavorting, and arthritis giving way to disco fever much to the befuddlement of their wives and girlfriends, splendidly played by Stapleton, Tandy and Verdon.

It all has to do with some strange sea pods and a quartet of mysterious strangers, led by Brian Dennehy (the bartender in 10, and of late the likable villain in Silverado), who turn out to be of unearthly origin and uncommonly gentle demeanor. (Even with the pods, you can forget any similarities to Invasion of the Body Snatchers.)

In the wake of Splash, Director Ron Howard has returned to the familiar waters of fantasy, this time fashioning from the Tom Benedek screenplay a poignant and warm-hearted meeting of E.T. and The Over-the-Hill Gang, that also works as a bittersweet, yet gently-humored parable. With the requisite special effects, provided by George Lucas' Industrial Light and Magic Company, and an extraterrestrial love affair between young Earthling Steve Guttenberg and fetching alien Tahnee Welch (Raquel's daughter), Cocoon also has the youthful appeal that brings in the dollars. But with a marvelous cast of old troupers, this film finally was one that kids could take their parents to, or even better yet, their grandparents.

SYGMA

Harrison Ford (center) and members of the cast of Witness.

WITNESS

Director Peter Weir always has been concerned with the clash of divergent beliefs. Remember The Last Wave, in which a rational Richard Chamberlain sinks deeper and deeper into aboriginal hoodoo-ism? Or how about The Year of Living Dangerously, in which Mel Gibson's opportunism is tested by Linda Hunt's political faith? So it should come as no surprise that Weir's first American film, Witness, explores what happens when a peace-loving, backward-looking Amish community admits a stranger from the outside—a stranger schooled in the everyday violence of contemporary society.

But don't worry. If this theme isn't your cup of tea, Witness pleases in so many respects that it's bound to reach you. For starters, there's Harrison Ford giving what has to be the best performance of his career as a Philadelphia cop forced to seek refuge with the Amish when he discovers that some of his amigos on the police force want him dead.

Anyone who thought Ford was limited to piloting spaceships or staying one step ahead of giant boulders is in for a shock. We're talking Oscar caliber, folks.

Even better than Ford is Kelly McGillis as the Amish woman he falls for. The soft-lit scene where she turns around in the midst of a sponge bath and locks eyes with Ford is the stuff of which dreams (and art) are made. With an excellent supporting cast, beautiful photography, a haunting score by Maurice Jarre, and a love story that ranks right up there with Casablanca, Witness is our choice to garner Best Picture at this year's Academy Awards.

Also with Alexander Godunov, Lukas Haas, Josef Sommer, Danny Glover.

THE GOONIES

Take the group dynamics of an updated and hip Our Gang, add a pinch of Tom Sawyer and sprinkle liberally with the assembly-line thrills of Raiders of the Lost Ark and you have all the ingredients of The Goonies.

Although directed by Richard Donner (The Omen, Superman—The Movie), The Goonies was conceived and overseen by Steven Spielberg, and there's no mistaking his imprint. It's the story of a group of ordinary kids, which for Spielberg means middle-class and suburban-valued, who set out to save their small community from greedy country club developers by searching out the treasure of legendary pirate, One-eyed Willie.

Each a different and cutely-endearing type: There's Mikey (Sean Astin), the dreamy, asthmatic leader; Mouth (Corey Feldman), the wise-cracking, heavy-metal punk; Chunk (Jeff B. Cohen), the junkfood-loving fat kid; Data (Ke Huy-Quan), the high-tech wiz kid with a bagful of Mission Impossible gadgetry; and as auxiliary members: Mikey's muscular older brother, Brand (Josh Brolin); his cute honey, Andy (Kerri Green); and her pal, Stef (Martha Plimpton.)

Of course, the adventure is nothing short of a rollercoaster ride careening through special effects and booby-trap perils, including a tangle with a sinister Italian gang—the Fratellis, led by a crusty Ma Barker type (Anne Ramsey) and boasting Sloth, a retarded but lov-

POLICE ACADEMY 2: THEIR FIRST ASSIGNMENT

If you guffawed during Police Academy, then you're going to go ape over this mindless sequel, which strings together enough bad jokes to please even the most demanding of third graders. We get hit with gags much like an enemy suffers saturation bombing: So many fall that one is bound to make us laugh.

David Graf as the Green Beret type Tackleberry, who meets his macho match in a woman, and Michael Winslow as the cadet whose ability to duplicate any and all sounds with his voice will have you wondering "is it live or is it Memorex?" This guy truly is remarkable. In fact, the film's most magical moment comes when Winslow does an impression of Bruce Lee that includes an overdubbed, but unsynched English soundtrack.

But the movie's outstanding performance belongs to comedian Bob Goldthwait. He plays Zed, the wigged-out leader of a gang of punk extortionists who are terrorizing the sixteenth precinct, which just happens to be the turf our police academy graduates are responsible for. Spewing forth syllables as if his vocal system were a Rube Goldberg contraption gone amuck—gears grinding, sawdust in the transmission, no brake fluid—Goldthwait comes on like a man permanently hooked up to an intravenous coffee machine. Let's hope that if Police Academy 2 does anything, it will be the start of a long and prosperous career for this incredibly-talented funnyman.

NATIONAL LAMPOON'S EUROPEAN VACATION

After their misadventures on the way to Wally World in National Lampoon's Vacation, the Griswalds of Chicago are back on the road again. This time to storm the continent with all the laughs of a hapless D-Day invasion.

It's a prize-winning appearance on Pig in a Poke, a TV quiz show, that provides the opportunity. And before Clark (Chevy Chase) can load up the video camera, the family's off on a three-country tour de farce. Of course, you can see many of the gags coming from 3000 miles away, like dad driving on the wrong side of the road in jolly old England. (Actually the film's funniest scenes considering they lead to run-ins with bike rider Eric Idle.) A little more inventive, again behind the wheel, are the renovations he makes at Stonehenge. In Paris, there's a three-minute tour of the Louvre, ladies of the evening for son Rusty, nude nightclubs for mom and dad and the insults of surly French waiters met with smiling obliviousness. But by the time the klutzy clan hits Rome, this vacation runs out of gas. And though it offers up a few amusing moments, we can only hope the Griswalds decide to stay home next year and paint the house.

A VIEW TO A KILL

Let's face it. When it comes to playing James Bond, Roger Moore is no Sean Connery, but he's no George Lazenby either. In fact, as far as we're concerned, the best Bond movie ever made was the Moore vehicle, The Spy Who Loved Me. But sad to say, if A View to a Kill is any indication, Moore's better days are behind him. If Bond's boss "M" had half a heart, he'd retire the paunchy Moore and select a successor posthaste.

The rest of the cast at least looks better, although ex-Charlie's Angel Tanya Roberts seems about as sexy as your grandmother when compared to the other female in the cast, disco diva Grace Jones. As the murderous May Day, Jones displays enough animal magnetism to turn Warren Beatty into a submissive lap dog. No kidding, she's so hot that in her final scene she literally explodes across the screen. And Jones almost is matched by Christopher Walken as the evil Zorin, who plays his part with a seething sadism certain to put him into the Bond Villains Hall of Fame next to Goldfinger and Dr. No.

MGM/UA

Roger Moore and Grace Jones in A View to a Kill.

The movie itself is middle-rung Bond, about 003 1/2 on the action scale. There's a dynamic, knock-your-socks-off opening sequence which almost is a direct cop from the aforementioned The Spy Who Loved Me. A later scene finds Moore and Grace Jones slugging it out on the Eiffel Tower, and then repeating the performance with a slightly-different emphasis in bed. And the slambang finale wreaks more havoc than any disaster Irwin (The Towering Inferno) Allen ever dreamed of. But for long stretches, A View to a Kill is just plain dull, which is surprising for a Bond film. You would have thought that after supervising fourteen James Bond adventures, Producer Albert R. Broccoli would have the formula down pat.

Music by John Barry. Title song performed by Duran Duran. Directed by John Glen. Also with Patrick (The Avengers) Macnee. (PG) in the top grossers this year. And with Fletch, he even gave some of his detractors pause to reconsider the promise that seemed to be there when he gave up Saturday Night Live.

Toning down his patented pratfall style, he still plays to the silly here, but also to the wry, and makes the most out of a gaggle of quipy one-liners supplied by the smart Andrew Bergman screenplay.

As an investigative reporter for a Los Angeles newspaper, Chase slips in and out of hot water with drug-peddling cops and corrupt businessmen as easily as he does into dime-store disguises and phony identities, like Harry S. Truman, G. Gordon Liddy and Don Corleone. And in the best tradition of the hard-boiled detective genre, there's a distracting blonde (Dana Wheeler-Nicholson) along the trail of vice that eventually leads to the cream of L.A. society. With a fair amount of suspense and snappy pacing from Director Michael Ritchie, this entertaining combination of mystery and comedy is Chase's funniest film yet.

Tom Hulce in* Amadeus.

AMADEUS

The success of this movie proves the old Hollywood axiom that winning an Oscar guarantees bigger returns at the box office. Opening last year, this thought-provoking, spare-no-cost depiction of the rivalry between eighteenth-century composers Antonio Salieri and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart started doing big business in 1985—just after it became apparent that it was a shoo-in for Best Picture.

Still, whatever the reason for its box office take, Amadeus deserved its audience, because even though it deals with lofty ideas, it does so in a flashy, fun-filled way. We love this movie because it plays not to the highfalutin, disinterested boxes of perfumed royalty, but to the raucous, down-to-earth peanut gallery. In many ways (and we don't mean this as an insult) it's like a Rocky Horror Picture Show for classical music lovers. Already students at Harvard are flocking to it, much the way teens across America flock to see Tim Curry in black lace lingerie.

But we don't mean to cheapen this fine, deeply-felt film and the first-rate performances of its two principal actors, F. Murray Abraham and Tom Hulce. Abraham plays Salieri like a pockmarked bird of prey, exuding evil but still somehow eliciting our sympathy. And who can resist Hulce's mad cackle, a laugh so infectious that even the Grand Inquisitor himself would have broken into a smile had he heard it. He transforms Mozart into just what Salieri calls him: "A boastful, lustful, smutty, infantile boy." But, of course, the real star of Amadeus is Mozart himself. What sweet, transcendent music!

Adapted by Peter Shaffer from his own play. Directed by Milos Forman. Also with Elizabeth Berridge, Jeffrey Jones. (PG)

MASK

Like the 1980 film, The Elephant Man, with which it shares more than one similarity, Mask is a story dealing in the contrast between outer appearances and inner reality. Based on true-life characters, its hero, Rocky Dennis (Eric Stoltz), is a teenager whose experiences are not untypical of many others: Being loved by his family, finding a girlfriend and sharing his dreams with friends. But unlike others, this fifteen year old suffers from a rare congenital disease which has disfigured his head to twice the normal size, giving his face the appearance of a bizarre mask. The other dissimilarities are that his deeply-loving mother, Rusty (Cher), is a biker moll with a penchant for drugs and a free but-not-so-easy lifestyle, and his extended family is a Southern California motorcycle gang.

Mask's emotional center is in the devoted relationship between Rocky and his mother, and how he surmounts such extraordinary circumstances to lead such an ordinary and well-adjusted life. The story is fraught with the opportunity to oversentimentalize, and Director Peter Bogdanovich, particularly in depicting the lamb-like rather than the rowdy nature of the biker bunch, does let his heart get in the way. But in the performances of Stoltz and Cher there is a touching honesty that will make Mask an uplifting picture for many.

naif who takes gleeful delight in toys, magic tricks and pubescent humor, there are those who see something a little knowingly-mischievous and ironically-malicious behind the rouged face, the butch-waxed haircut, and the white shoes and snappy red bow tie. But the case seems to be that you find him either outrageously-funny or simply puerile. And Pee-wee's Big Adventure likewise probably will hit you one way or the other.

It's all set in motion when his most-prized possession—his balloon-tired bicycle—is stolen and, in pursuit, Pee-wee sets off hitchhiking to the Alamo. It's an eventful and frequently-harrowing odyssey that offers up pensive moments spent with his beloved mutt, Speck, sharing songs with hoboes and some perilous confrontations with roughnecks. But at the end of the road, there's an emotional and joyous reunion between boy and bike, and even stardom when Pee-wee finds his life being made into a movie starring James Brolin. The whole affair has a daffy, surreal feel to it, from the cowboy-and-Indian wallpaper in Pee-wee's house, to bike-riding horses. And if it struck many as excessively-strange or bewilderingly dull, you probably can chalk it up to the fact that geekiness takes something of an acquired taste.

PALE RIDER

At the end of Pale Rider, the mysterious Clint Eastwood character, known simply as Preacher, rides off into the mountains, a little girl wailing his name in a fruitless attempt to get him to return. Sound familiar? Well, it should to any one who ever has seen George Stevens' classic western, Shane, which concludes with a young boy (pop-eyed Brandon de Wilde) screaming his lungs out at a vanishing Alan Ladd: "Shane, Shane, come back, Shane." And, what's more, this isn't the only similarity between these two westerns. We counted fifteen—or was it sixteen?—and we weren't even trying. In fact, we'd be willing to bet that if you saw these movies on a double bill, you'd need a pretty swift calculator to keep up with everything that Pale Rider steals from Shane.

But hey, this doesn't make Pale Rider a lousy movie. As a matter of fact, it's probably the best western to appear on the screen since Walter Hill's The Long Riders. I mean with Clint Eastwood in the saddle how could it miss? He just happens to be the most authentic western hero since John Wayne bought that thousand-acre spread in the sky.

The plot revolves around a community of gold panners who are being forced from their land by a strip-mining concern. The panners seem headed for defeat, when suddenly into their midst rides a gun-toting stranger, and... well, you can figure out what happens after that. Suffice it to say that you won't be disappointed by the final shootout between Eastwood and seven—that's right, seven!—gunmen. It's a jim-dandy, and as explosive as anything he ever did for Sergio Leone in those spaghetti westerns he made nearly twenty years ago.

Photography by Bruce Surtees. Script by Michael Butler and Dennis Shryack. Directed by Clint Eastwood. Also with Michael Moriarty (doing an Elisha Cook, Jr., impression), Carrie Snodgress, Christopher Penn, Richard Dysart, Richard (Jaws) Kiel, John Russell. (R)

The Third In A Series

An Open Letter To Owners Of Home Satellite Systems

Dear Home Satellite System Owner:

By now, most of you are aware that HBO® and Cinemax® satellite feeds will be scrambled full time starting January 15.

Unfortunately, along with the news of HBO's scrambling plans has come a flood of misinformation about these plans, as well as about the availability of HBO and Cinemax signals after January 15. Understandably, many of you have expressed concern over these issues. We would like to set the record straight on some of these issues so that you may have the information you need to make the choices you will be faced with when scrambling occurs.

First, why are we scrambling?

An increasing number of commercial enterprises — including hotels, motels, bars and apartment buildings — are picking up our signals without permission and without charge. This is a violation of the copyrights of artists and businesses with whom we have contractual agreements to provide programming. Signal scrambling is the best way to protect these copyrights. At HBO, we are careful to distinguish between the legitimate reception of our signals by individual satellite system owners and theft by commercial establishments who may be profiting from our signal. For this reason, we have established a plan to make HBO and Cinemax available to individual satellite system owners.

How can you continue to receive HBO and Cinemax after scrambling?

To continue to receive HBO and Cinemax after they are scrambled, you can contact a TVRO dealer or local cable company to purchase a descrambler that uses the M/A-COM VideoCipher II™ technology. You can then purchase a monthly subscription for the programming services you wish to receive. You can do this by contacting a local cable company or, if you prefer, you may purchase a subscription directly from HBO. Please bear in mind that owning a descrambler box alone will not allow you to receive HBO and Cinemax. It simply gives you the capability of receiving unscrambled signals from a growing number of satellite programming services. After you subscribe to HBO and Cinemax, your descrambler will be activated to receive our services.

How much will it cost to subscribe to HBO and Cinemax?

You may subscribe to HBO and Cinemax through a local cable company or through HBO directly. If you subscribe through HBO directly, the monthly prices will be $12.95 for HBO, $12.95 for Cinemax, or $19.95 for the HBO/Cinemax Combo. These prices include our monthly program guide. Prices charged by local cable companies will vary from one company to another. We encourage home satellite system owners to check prices at their local cable companies before contacting HBO for a subscription.

We realize that this letter answers only some of the questions you may have about HBO's scrambling plans. If you would like more information, please call our Scrambling Hotline at (212) 302-6242 during business hours, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.–5 p.m., Eastern Time. TV ENTERTAINMENT Trivia

BLOCKBUSTERS THEN AND NOW

1. Hey, pardner, can you name the biggest box-office star of all time?

2. Adjusted for inflation, this 1963 costume saga still ranks as the most expensive Hollywood film ever made.

3. When drive-in theaters showed these two disaster films, comedians called the double feature "Shake and Bake." The first was Earthquake. Can you identify the other?

4. This top-grossing 1940 animated musical told the story of a nosy, wooden-headed, would-be boy who had trouble distinguishing between the truth and a lie.

5. Two comic fantasies about magical cars landed in the Top Ten films of 1969. One was Chitty Chitty Bang Bang; the other outgrossed the likes of Funny Girl and Bullitt to wind up the number one moneymaker of the year. Name it.

6. Fans were "hopelessly devoted" to this top-grossing 1978 rock-and-roll musical in which John Travolta proved that when it comes to Brylcreem, "a little dab will (still) do you."

7. Steven Spielberg cleared the beaches with this thriller that turned into the box office winner of 1975.

8. British warbler Julie Andrews had the honors of starring in what two films which were the top moneymakers of 1965?

9. This former head of the Screen Actors' Guild starred in the two top-grossing films of the fifties—both religious epics. Name him and the films.

10. While raindrops were falling on their heads, these two stars made it pour at the box office in the most popular western (according to cash receipts) of all time. Name them and the film.

R.C. Dickerson and Michael Schuller are Satellite DISH Magazine's California-based film critics.

"If you don't want to see this movie, just say so!"

Richard Orlin is Satellite DISH Magazine's New York-based cartoonist and artist.

10. Answer: Paul Newman and Robert Redford in Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.

PEOPLE etc.

By Bill Givens

Having produced more television film footage than perhaps anyone else in the business doesn't seem to be enough for superachiever Aaron Spelling. With Dynasty going strong, The Colbys aborning, The Love Boat still at sea and several other series on the air, Spelling now is taking on a new challenge by going into theatrical film production. Aaron Spelling Productions soon will begin filming on four features. And you thought the Colbys had empires to run!

And speaking of empires, the sun is about to set on Her Majesty's most dapper secret agent. Roger Moore, veteran of seven James Bond films, is ready to move on to other things. Meanwhile 007 Producer Cubby Broccoli is staging a star search for the next Bond. Prime candidates are Simon (Falcon Crest) McCorkindale and Pierce (Remington Steele) Brosnan—both of whom come equipped with the requisite savoir-faire (and British accent.)

It Had To Happen Department: For the past several years, the movie houses have been making a gradual transition from exhibition halls for serious—or just plain entertaining— films to teenage pleasure domes. Now, a new kind of theater will be popping up in your shopping mall. Called Kidpix, the theater unabashedly advertises itself as a chain of baby-sitting showcases aimed for the five to eleven-year-old age group. Already in operation in a Los Angeles shopping mall, the theater allows parents to drop off their kids in a high-security atmosphere where they will be tagged (parent and child get a matching serial number), watched and entertained with cartoons and video shorts.

DISHING IT OUT

HBO Premiere Film Examines Career of Legendary Newsman

The life and career of legendary television newsman Edward R. Murrow will be portrayed by Hill Street Blues star Daniel J. Travanti in a Home Box Office Film, debuting January 19.

As CBS' London correspondent, Murrow became America's link to the news of World War II with his dramatic radio reports from England's war-torn capital. Later, his integrity and honest reporting formed the cornerstone of CBS' television news department. But finally, his reporting on controversial issues which created pressure from advertisers caused, his separation from CBS.

"Murrow is much more than just one man's story," said Rick Beiber, senior vice president of HBO Premiere Films and Programming Operations. "In telling the story of Edward R. Murrow, you're telling the story of television news."

HBO has assembled an all-star cast for the feature. Dabney Coleman, best known for his villainous roles in such films as 9 to 5, plays CBS' dynamic and forceful founder, William S. Paley. Robert Vaughn portrays Franklin Roosevelt, a role often played by another Murrow cast member, Edward Herrmann. This time, Herrmann is Murrow's friend and co-worker Fred Friendly.

Besides providing a picture of Murrow's life and career, Murrow is something of an an indictment of network television, which may have made it more attractive to HBO."The television world is a commercial world, and there's no excuse for coming in third," said Murrow Executive Producer Robert Berger. "If you want to do quality work—and Ed Murrow did—it's always a battle."

One of the battles Murrow fought was against Senator Joseph McCarthy, the tyrannical chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee whose search for communists in government finally became a persecution of the innocent. While other news organization feared McCarthy's wrath, Murrow and Friendly went on the air with a strongly-critical examination of the senator's tactics. That TV segment helped turn public opinion against McCarthy, but it cost Murrow much of his support within CBS.

Until the day he died, Murrow continued to voice the opinion that the profit-oriented bent of network television leads to bland, conventional programming. Murrow always considered himself an educator, and Travanti's favorite line from the drama is when Murrow points to a television set and says "This instrument can teach, illuminate and, damn it, it can inspire."

Preparing for and playing the role in Murrow was an education in itself for Travanti who was a child during the time that Murrow was making his impact on television news. Travanti said he was doing "other things" as a kid. "You might say I was a little vapid. So I didn't watch too many TV news shows," he said. "I kind of recall Person to Person, and I definitely remember the night Murrow interviewed Marilyn Monroe on it. I made a point of seeing that because I was mad for Marilyn Monroe. I mean, I wasn't that vapid!"

In researching his role, Travanti learned much about the man who many consider the father of broadcast journalism. "He was a relentlessly-honest man," Travanti said, "He didn't like to report on anything he hadn't seen or experienced. So he drove his bosses crazy, especially during the Second World War in London, by risking his neck in order to get stories firsthand. "Someone once asked Ed Murrow why he'd gone on a bombing mission that had placed his life at risk, and he responded, 'I was up in a plane because that's where the war is.' That's the kind of journalist he was," said Travanti.
